Larchmont Patricia Lombard,2015-11-30 Larchmont Boulevard is more than a street it is the soul and spine of the surrounding neighborhoods created in the early 1900s when Los Angeles was just coming into its own Located in the heart of Los Angeles Larchmont Boulevard is a charming walkable street running north and south from Third Street to Melrose Avenue that gives residents and visitors the feeling of a small town tucked inside the vast car centric city of Los Angeles This book tells the story of Larchmont s beginnings in 1921 when the Los Angeles Times reported that developers Julius La Bonte and Charles Ramson had purchased seven lots on Larchmont Boulevard to create a business district of 30 stores between First Street and Beverly Boulevard The one block stretch where a trolley line once ran is affectionately known as the village by locals in the surrounding neighborhoods of Brookside Citrus Square Country Club Heights Fremont Place Hancock Park La Brea Hancock Larchmont Village Melrose Oakwood Maplewood St Andrews Ridgewood Wilton St Andrews Square Sycamore Square Western Wilton Wilshire Park Windsor Square and Windsor Village Vines & Vision Matthew Kettmann,2021-03-04 Vines Vision The Winemakers of Santa Barbara County is a first of its kind exploration of the people places history trends and soul of Santa Barbara County wine country Featuring nearly 1 000 photographs by renowned visual anthropologist Macduff Everton and about 100 chapters written by the region s leading food wine journalist Matt Kettmann Vines Vision is a one stop shop for learning about the past present and future of Santa Barbara wine culture North American Pinot Noir John Winthrop Haeger,2004-09-14 A comprehensive reference guide to Pinot Noir wine in North America including historical and viticultural background and profiles of six dozen prominent pinot producers in California Oregon British Columbia New York and elsewhere The Los Angeles Times Book of California Wines Darlene Geis,1984

A Toast to Eclipse Brian McGinty,2012-09-10 The sparkling wines of California rival the best French Champagnes today but their place at our tables came about through careful craftsmanship that began more than a century ago The predecessor of today s California bubbly was Eclipse Champagne the first commercially successful California sparkling wine produced by Arpad Haraszthy in the mid to late nineteenth century In A Toast to Eclipse Brian McGinty offers a definitive history of the wine exploring California s winemaking past and two of the people who put the state s varietal wines on the map Arpad and his father Agoston Haraszthy the legendary father of California viticulture Inspired by his father s dream of making California one of the world s great viticultural regions Arpad Haraszthy 1840 1900 pursued that goal at a time when the best grapes for making California wine had yet to be discovered when the best locations for vineyards had not yet been established and when the public could hardly believe that good wine could be made in a country overrun with gold miners and desperados As a young man Arpad spent two years in the Champagne country of northeastern France studying the classic methods of French sparkling wine manufacture before bringing his knowledge home to California As McGinty shows the story of the award winning wine Haraszthy created is also the story of San Francisco during its heyday as the largest most dynamic city in the American West McGinty reveals new information about California varietals and winemaking districts and probes the controversy about whether Agoston Haraszthy introduced the Zinfandel grape to the Golden State Aficionados of wine and of California history will find this narrative insightful and refreshing and all readers will gain an appreciation for Arpad Haraszthy Eclipse and the delicate process of making a wine sparkle California Home Cooking Michele
