Robert Altman Hollywood Survivor:

Robert Altman Daniel O'Brien,1995 Robert Altman Daniel O'Brien,1996-11 One of the most talented and unique filmmakers of all time Robert Altman with his preference for offbeat characters experimental techniques and improvisation has produced a succession of artistically outstanding films From MASH to Popeye Nashville to The Player Altman is that rare Hollywood filmmaker who will not compromise his vision In Robert Altman Hollywood Survivor Daniel O'Brien gives a concise overview of the entire career and examines the reasons for Altman's rise and fall from critical acclaim concluding with the big comeback of the 1990s Robert Altman's Subliminal Reality Robert T. Self,2002 With his complex and unconventional films Robert Altman often draws an impassioned response from critics but bafflement and indifference from the general public Some audiences have dismissed his movies as insignificant unsatisfying and unreadable Ironically Altman might agree he makes films in order to challenge filmgoers' expectations of straightforward narratives and easily understood endings In Robert Altman's Subliminal Reality Robert T. Self sheds light on Altman's work and provides the most comprehensive analysis of his films to date With close readings of classics like MASH McCabe Mrs Miller and Nashville as well as the more recent films The Player Short Cuts and Cookie's Fortune Self asserts the value of Altman's work not only to film theory and the entertainment industry but to American culture Book jacket The Cinema of Robert Altman Robert Niemi,2016-03-01 In a controversial and tumultuous filmmaking career that spanned nearly fifty years Robert Altman mocked subverted or otherwise refashioned Hollywood narrative and genre conventions Altman's idiosyncratic vision and propensity for formal experimentation resulted in an uneven body of work some rank failures and intriguing near misses as well as a number of great films that are among the most influential works of New American Cinema While Altman always professed to have nothing authoritative to say about the state of contemporary society this volume surveys all of his major films in their sociohistorical context to reposition the director as a trenchant satirist and social critic of postmodern America depicted as a lonely wasteland of fraudulent spectacle exploitative social relations and unfulfilled solitaires in search of elusive community Robert Altman Frank Caso,2015-10-15 Known as an iconoclast and maverick film director Robert Altman has consistently pushed against the boundaries of genre From refashioning film noir in The Long Goodbye the western in McCabe Mrs Miller the psychological drama in Images science fiction in Quintet and the romantic comedy in A Perfect Couple he has always tested the limits of what film can and should do In this book Frank Caso examines the development of Altman's artistic method from his earliest days in industrial film to his work in television and feature films Altman is one of those directors whose films audiences can easily recognize but what exactly are the distinctive elements that have become his signature Caso identifies more than twenty such elements in Altman's style tracing some such as his use of free hand cameras and engagement with Christian imagery to the beginning of his career Caso also examines Altman's unsettling mix of offbeat comedic tone with a predominance of violence murder and death showing how their counterpointing effects rendered his films at once naturalistic and otherworldly Exploring these and other aspects of the Altmanesque style

Caso maps the innovations that have made Altman a master filmmaker Enriched with illustration throughout Robert Altman will appeal to fans of this distinctive American auteur or anyone interested in ground breaking cinema Fifty Hollywood Directors Suzanne Leonard,Yvonne Tasker,2014-11-20 Fifty Hollywood Directors introduces the most important iconic and influential filmmakers who worked in Hollywood between the end of the silent period and the birth of the blockbuster By exploring the historical cultural and technological contexts in which each director was working this book traces the formative period in commercial cinema when directors went from pioneers to industry heavyweights Each entry discusses a director s practices and body of work and features a brief biography and suggestions for further reading Entries include Frank Capra Cecil B DeMille John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang Orson Welles DW Griffith King Vidor This is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in film history Hollywood and the development of the role of the director Robert Altman's Soundtracks Gayle Sherwood Magee,2014-10-01 Robert Altman s Soundtracks offers a compelling new look at this celebrated director s films through his innovative uses of music and sound As author Gayle Sherwood Magee illustrates Altman s considerable and varied output speaks to the changing film industry over decades from Nashville 1975 to A Prairie Home Companion 2006 A Companion to Robert Altman Adrian Danks,2015-06-22 A Companion to Robert Altman presents myriad aspects of Altman s life career influence and historical context This book features 23 essays from a range of experts in the field providing extensive coverage of these aspects and dimensions of Altman s work The most expansive and wide ranging book yet published on Altman providing a comprehensive account of Altman s complete career Provides discussion and analysis of generally neglected aspects of Altman s career including the significance of his work in television and industrial film the importance of collaboration and the full range and import of his aesthetic innovations Includes essays by key scholars in Altman studies bringing together experts in the field emerging scholars and writers from a broad range of fields Multi disciplinary in design and draws on a range of approaches to Altman s work being the first substantial publication to make use of the recently launched Robert Altman Archive at the University of Michigan Offers specific insights into particular aspects of film style and their application industrial and aesthetic film and TV history and particular areas such as the theorisation of space place authorship and gender Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling Mark Minett,2020-12-22 Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling reveals an Altman barely glimpsed in previous critical accounts of the filmmaker This re examination of his seminal work during the New Hollywood period of the early 1970s including M A S H Brewster McCloud McCabe Mrs Miller Images The Long Goodbye Thieves Like Us California Split and Nashville sheds new light on both the films and the filmmaker reframing Altman as a pragmatic innovator whose work exceeds but is also grounded in the norms of classical Hollywood storytelling The Lost Decade Chris Horn,2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman

Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lan of To Live and Die in L A Friedkin 1985 Behind the homogenous picture of the decline of the auteur in 1980s American cinema are films and careers that merit greater attention and this book offers a new way to perceive individual films American film history and the viability of sustained authorial creativity within post studio era Hollywood

Hollywood Independent Paul Kerr,2023-03-09 Hollywood Independent dissects the Mirisch Company one of the most successful employers of the package unit system of film production producing classic films like The Apartment 1960 West Side Story 1961 The Great Escape 1963 and The Thomas Crown Affair 1968 as irresistible talent packages Whilst they helped make the names of a new generation of stars including Steve McQueen and Shirley MacLaine as well as banking on the reputations of established auteurs like Billy Wilder they were also pioneers in dealing with controversial new themes with films about race In the Heat of the Night gender Some Like it Hot and sexuality The Children s Hour devising new ways of working with film franchises The Magnificent Seven The Pink Panther and In the Heat of the Night spun off 7 Mirisch sequels between them and cinematic cycles investing in adaptations of bestsellers and Broadway hits exploiting frozen funds abroad and exploring so called runaway productions The Mirisch Company bridges the gap between the end of the studio system by about 1960 and the emergence of a new cinema in the mid 1970s dominated by the Movie Brats

Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips,2014-07-11 More than any other writer Raymond Chandler 1888 1959 is responsible for raising detective stories from the level of pulp fiction to literature Chandler s hard boiled private eye Philip Marlowe set the standard for rough brooding heroes who managed to maintain a strong sense of moral conviction despite a cruel and indifferent world Chandler s seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler's unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks's director's cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler's sometimes difficult personality Chandler's wisecracking Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision

"Short Cuts" and American Life and Society in Early Nineties Hasti

Sardashti, 2011-10-27 Prior and during the time Altmans Short Cuts was developed and shaped Americans experienced over a decade of Republican administration represented by Reagan and Bush extreme right wing national policies and an ill economy On 9 November 1989 with the fall of Berlin Wall America and whole world experienced one of the most extreme changes in the history of the twentieth century the end of the cold war and the beginning of a new post Cold war era Hardly anyone could have foreseen the end of communism in the Soviet Union and in Eastern Europe during that time The demise of the Soviet Union left the United States the sole remaining superpower a position that carried its own risks and problems With this extreme change of dichotomy between the two world powers on which was the base of the national and international politics for more than fifty years and also a major coping mechanism for the people by splitting between the Good and Bad God and Evil Communism and Democracy in late 1980s and early 1990s it came to a break down of the known structures which were experienced as very frightening by American people I wonder if Short Cuts was an attempt by Robert Altman in the early 90s to comfort all these anxious and helpless people who were confused and who couldn't understand why things happen to them what happened to them and asking themselves why What did we do wrong What if this did not happen and that happened The Robert Altmans Short Cuts and American Society and American Life in the Early Nineties is an attempt to examine all these notions and understand what is about Short Cuts making it to become such a timeless and unique movie

The Infernal Return Rodney Farnsworth,2001-10-30 George Lukas and other leading filmmakers acknowledge their indebtedness to mythographic scholarship on archetypes In his new study author Rodney Farnsworth identifies a pattern of filmmakers obsessions with archetypal rituals centered on sacrifice and the family in films made between 1977 and 1983 a period of political upheaval on both sides of the Atlantic Combining a strong historical reading of the films in a sociopolitical context and utilizing Queer Theory as a framework for his arguments Farnsworth offers a close examination of key films of the period including works by Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman and Francis Ford Coppola and provides a fascinating and timely glimpse of an important political and cinematic time Marking the end of a more liberal era the late seventies and early eighties witnessed the growth of reactionary conservative movements such as the New Religious Political Right These were the years that gave birth to movies from esoteric art house pictures to blockbusters such as Star Wars that seemed in many cases to be adaptations of primordial mythology subverting liberal to moderate views into reactionary depictions of family life Although filmmakers had turned to these myths to shape their works Farnsworth observes the unstable volatile nature of the archetypes deconstructed their best social intentions into something rich strange and deadly This thought provoking work will be of interest to students of social history as well as film studies
