Robert Carriers Menu Planner:

Robert Carrier's Menu Planner Robert Carrier,1984-01-01 Back In Time For Dinner Mary Gwynn,2015-03-12 Do you remember the arrival of the fish finger the rise and fall of Angel Delight Vesta curries and Wimpy hamburgers Did you own a fondue set or host a Tupperware party or were you starving yourself on the Cabbage Soup Diet Was life always too short to stuff a mushroom And what was the point of Nouvelle Cuisine There has been a revolution in our kitchens In 1950 the average housewife worked a seventy five hour week No one owned a fridge or had seen a teabag let alone an avocado or a Curly Wurly Ten years later sugar consumption had rocketed we ate more biscuits for dinner than vegetables and fruit It was not until the mid 1990s that we started to worry about five a day And now nearly twenty years on from the first vegetable box delivery scheme we are fatter than ever before Has there ever been a golden age of the family meal Full of delicious detail this marvellous companion to the BBC series is rich with nostalgia and provides a feast of extraordinary factual nuggets Who can guess the filling of the first pre packed sandwich in 1984 And who could have foreseen then that a kitchen robot that can write your shopping list is now just around the corner Reflecting all the fads and fashions that have graced our table Back in Time for Dinner is much more than a book about dinner it holds a mirror to our changing family lives

Restaurants and Catering Jeremiah J. Wanderstock,1970 Information Obesity Andrew Whitworth,2009-02-28 An exploration of information literacy and ICT skills education from the point of view of social and political theory The author incorporates theories to argue why the idea of information literacy is so important in the 21st century and also to develop teaching strategies to this end The book argues that only through expanding the range of information literacy education taking it beyond just formal school and university education and into homes friendship networks and workplaces can we construct an effective educational response to information technology in the 21st century Information literacy includes but transcends ICT skills and ultimately is about being politically socially and communicatively competent in an information society Although this is a book about education it argues that we need to start thinking of education as something done by families friends workmates and society as a whole as well as schools and colleges Each chapter introduces the readers to some social and political theory but in ways accessible to a lay audience To complement each section think tasks and practical exercises will help the readers apply the insights in their personal contexts The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea
