Haboo Hilbert, Vi, 1985 The stories and legends of the Lushootseed speaking people of Puget Sound were an important part of the oral tradition by which beliefs values and customs were handed from one generation to another Vi Hilbert a Skagit Indian grew up at a time when many of the old social patterns survived and when everyone still spoke the ancestral language As an adult when she realized that native language and culture were being forgotten she began to work with linguists and anthropologists in recording and translating as much of the Lushootseed oral tradition as possible Haboo is her collection of thirty three stories Most of the stories in the book take place in the Myth Age before the world was transformed Animals plants trees and even rocks had human attributes as well as the characteristics we know today Characters included Wolf Salmon and Changer who made things the way they are now Especially prominent are Mink Raven and Coyote three tricksters who are usually caught in their duplicity but who can occasionally rise to heroic deeds Other worlds exist the sky world the Salmon People s world and it is possible to walk from one to another Many of the stories are light humorous and earthy reflecting the foibles of human nature While a serious moral is usually implied instruction is achieved by humorously detailing the unfortunate even disastrous consequences of breaking taboos In his Introduction Thom Hess professor of linguistics at the University of Victoria places the stories in the context of the Lushootseed world view Vi Hilbert in her Preface describes the storytellers many of them relatives and older friends with special knowledge of the old ways The vivid and humorous stories in Haboo will be of interest to linguists anthropologists and folklorists as well as to future generations of Lushootseed people and all others concerned with native languages and cultures

Haa Tuwunáagu Yís, for Healing Our Spirit Nora Dauenhauer, Richard Dauenhauer, 1990 Haa Tuwunaagu Yis for Healing Our Spirit is the first publication of Tlingit oratory recorded in performance It features Tlingit texts with facing English translations and detailed annotations photographs of the orators and the settings in which the speeches were delivered and biographies of the elders There are thirty two speeches by twenty one Tlingit elders Most were taped between 1968 and 1988 but two speeches were recorded on wax cylinders by the Harriman Expedition in Sitka in 1899 and are the oldest known sound recordings of Tlingit The book is of importance both to native and non native readers alike For those of Native American heritage it articulates concepts understood and practiced by elders but difficult for them to explain and often bewildering to younger generations For people around the world interested in Northwest Coast culture it offers new insights into a traditional world view and the classics of Tlingit oral literature Careful attention is given to transcription translation and annotation by the collaboration of Nora Marks Dauenhauer a native speaker of Tlingit and a published poet with a degree in anthropology and her husband Richard Dauenhauer a translator of European poetry and a former poet laureate of Alaska with a Ph D in comparative literature
