Robert Gregory 1881-1918 William Robert Gregory, 1981 The Great War in Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, 2003 The Great War in Irish Poetry explores the impact of the First World War on the work of W B Yeats Robert Graves and Louis MacNeice in the period 1914 45 and on three contemporary Northern Irish poets Derek Mahon Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley Its concern is to place their work and memory of the Great War in the context of Irish politics and culture in the twentieth century The historical background to Irish involvement in the Great War is explained as are the ways in which issues raised in 1912 20 still reverberate in the politics of remembrance in Northern Ireland particularly through such events as the Home Rule cause the loss of the Titanic the Battle of the Somme the Easter Rising While the Great War is perceived as central to English culture and its literature holds a privileged position in the English literary canon the centrality of the Great War to Irish writing has seldom been recognised This book shows first that despite complications in Irish domestic politics which led to the repression of memory of the Great War Irish poets have been drawn throughout the century to the events and images of 1914 18 This engagement is particularly true of those writing in the troubled Northern Ireland of the last thirty years The second main concern is the extent to which recognition of the importance of the Great War in Irish writing has itself become a casualty of competing versions of the literary canon

The Autograph Tree William Henry, 2020-02-07 Between the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Lady Augusta Gregory welcomed numerous distinguished literary and artistic friends to her home in Coole Park Many of these visitors were invited to carve their initials onto a wonderful 160 year old copper beech tree in her walled garden which became known as the Autograph Tree This book contains profiles of the signatories The book is also a history of the Irish Literary Revival told through the biographical accounts of these people as many of them played significant roles in this very important event

Irish Aces of the RFC and the RAF in the First World War Joe Gleeson, 2017-05-17 The First World War had an enormous impact on Ireland Over 240 000 Irish men and women volunteered to serve with the Allied forces suffering almost 40 000 casualties The Irish contribution to the air war remains overlooked not just in Ireland but also by historians generally Although just 6 000 Irish served with the Allied flying services at a cost of 500 casualties their impact was out of all proportion to their numbers The contribution of Irish aces of the RFC and RAF to the Allied cause was enormous just over thirty of whom accounted for 400 enemy aircraft Irishmen such as Mannock McElroy and Hazell were among the highest scoring pilots of the war Some were revered by their men others were controversial figures reckless with their own lives and those under their command but many of their stories remain untold This book seeks to restore all those who were written out of Irish history while also providing for their achievements to be considered in the overall context of the first air war Illustrations 24 black and white photographs     W.B.
