The Cinema of Raúl Ruiz Michael Goddard,2013-09-22 Raúl Ruiz while considered one of the world's most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz's cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations

Figures of Possibility Niklaus Largier,2022-03-15 From medieval contemplation to the early modern cosmopoetic imagination to the invention of aesthetic experience to nineteenth century decadent literature and to early twentieth century essayistic forms of writing and film Niklaus Largier shows that mystical practices have been reinvented across the centuries generating a notion of possibility with unexpected critical potential Arguing for a new understanding of mystical experience Largier foregrounds the ways in which devotion builds on experimental practices of figuration in order to shape perception emotions and thoughts anew

Largier illuminates how devotional practices are invested in the creation of possibilities and this investment has been a key element in a wide range of experimental engagements in literature and art from the seventeenth to the twentieth century and most recently in forms of new materialism Read as a history of the senses and emotions the book argues that mystical and devotional practices have long been invested in the modulating and reconfiguring of sensation affects and thoughts Read as a book about practices of figuration it questions ordinary protocols of interpretation in the humanities and the priority given to a hermeneutic understanding of texts and cultural artifacts

Melancholy, Love, and Time Peter G. Toohey, 2010-03-11 Ancient literature features many powerful narratives of madness depression melancholy lovesickness simple boredom and the effects of such psychological states upon individual sufferers Peter Toohey turns his attention to representations of these emotional states in the Classical Hellenistic and especially the Roman imperial periods in a study that illuminates the cultural and aesthetic significance of this emotionally charged literature His probing analysis shows that a shifting representation of these afflicted states and the concomitant sense of isolation from one's social affinities and surroundings manifests a developing sense of the self and self consciousness in the ancient world This book makes important contributions to a variety of disciplines including classical studies comparative literature literary and art history history of medicine history of emotions psychiatry and psychology Peter Toohey is Professor and Department Head of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Calgary Canada

The Intoxication of Destruction in Theory, Culture and Media Erin K. Stapleton, 2025-10-01 This book examines the desire for and intoxication with destruction as it appears in cultural objects and representation arguing that all cultural and aesthetic value is fundamentally predicated on its own fragility as well as the living transience of those who make and encounter it Beginning with a philosophy of expenditure after Georges Bataille each chapter maps different operations of destruction in media and culture These operations are expressed and located in representations of human extinction and explosive architecture in execution and in eroticism and in media and digital archives which constitute a further destabilization of the notion of destruction in the dynamic between aspirational immortality and material volatility embedded in the archival systems of digital cultures

Apparitions, Daemons, and Emanations Charles Freeland, 2024-03-01 The book presents a new study of the visual arts and poetry in the work of three well known French writers and artists from the mid twentieth century Georges Bataille Pierre Klossowski and Henri Michaux Each was fiercely independent belonging to no school academy or political persuasion What do they have in common While the book's three central essays do not initially set out to establish comparisons between these writers common ground emerges a shared combat against culture a shared non representational artistic practice Their writing poetry and painting offer not a portrayal of things or ideas but rather an emanation or apparition of the unknown and the infinite one charged with deepening art's relation to life

Hospitality and Treachery in Western Literature James A. W. Heffernan, 2014-05-27 In works of Western literature ranging from Homer's Odyssey to Albee's Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf the giving and taking of hospitality is sometimes pleasurable but more often perilous Heffernan traces this leitmotiv through the history of our greatest writings including Christ's Last Supper Macbeth's murder of his royal guest and Camus's short story on French colonialism in Arab Algeria By means of such examples and many more this book considers what literary hosts hostesses and guests do to as well as for each other In doing so it shows how often treachery rends the fabric of trust that hospitality weaves
