The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Elsa Morante's Politics of Writing Stefania Lucamante, 2014-12-18 Elsa Morante's Politics of Writing is a collected volume of twenty one essays written by Morante specialists and international scholars Essays gather attention on four broad critical topics namely the relationship Morante entertained with the arts cinema theatre and the visual arts new critical approaches to her four novels treatment of body and sexual politics and Morante's prophetic voice as it emerges in both her literary works and her essayistic writings Essays focus on Elsa Morante's strategies to address her wide disinterest and contempt for the Italian intellectual status quo of her time regardless of its political side while showing at once her own kind of ideological commitment Further contributors tackle the ways in which Morante's writings shape classical oppositions such as engagement and enchantment with the world sin and repentance self reflection and corporality as well as how her engagement in the visual arts theatre and cinematic adaptations of her works garner further perspectives to her stories and characters Her works particularly the novels Menzogna e sortilegio House of Liars 1948 La Storia Romanzo History A Novel 1974 and more explicitly Aracoeli Aracoeli 1982 foreshadowed and advanced tenets and structures later affirmed by postmodernism namely the fragmentation of narrative cells rhizomatic narratives lack of a linear temporal consistency and meta and self reflective processes

Death and the Dolce Vita Stephen Gundle, 2020-01-16 A brilliant methodical investigation of a murder scandal that convulsed the Roman political and social establishment in the 1950s Financial Times On April 9 1953 twenty one year old Wilma Montesi went missing from her family home in Rome Thirty six hours later her body was found washed up on a neglected public beach Some said it was suicide others a tragic accident But as the police tried to close the case darker rumors bubbled to the surface Could it be that the mysterious death of this quiet conservative girl was linked to a drug fueled orgy involving some of the richest and most powerful men in Italy Death and the Dolce Vita a hybrid of history and police detection brilliantly recreates the details of the Montesi affair in light of the postwar economic miracolo italiano that inspired Fellini's classic film of libertine frivolity As well as being a thriller it provides an excellent account of the virtues and misdeeds of Europe's most foxy political class Ian Thompson The Guardian UK An intense claustrophobic narrative of murder mystery and scandal worthy of a Verdi opera a page turning narrative that explores its extraordinary characters and even more extraordinary cover ups evasions and dissemblage reaching to the top of Italian political life The Scotsman UK

Fear of Freedom Carlo Levi, 2008 Carlo Levi was a painter writer and antifascist Italian from a Jewish family and his political activism forced him into exile for most of the Second World War While in exile he wrote Christ Stopped at Eboli a memoir and Fear of Freedom a philosophical meditation on humanity's flight from moral and spiritual autonomy and our resulting loss of self and creativity Brooding on what surely appeared to be the decline if not the fall of Europe Levi locates the human abdication of responsibility in organized religion and its ability to turn the sacred into the sacrificial In doing so he references the entire intellectual and cultural estate of Western civilization from the Bible and Greek mythology to Sigmund Freud and Carl Jung This edition features newly published pieces of Levi's artwork and publication of the work It also includes an introduction that discusses Levi's life and enduring legacy Fear of Freedom not only addresses a specific moment in history and a universal timeless condition but it is also a powerful indictment of our contemporary moral and political failures      Against Redemption Franco Baldasso, 2022-12-06 WINNER HELEN AND HOWARD R MARRARO PRIZE IN ITALIAN HISTORY Discloses the richness of ideas and sheds light on the controversy that characterized the transition from fascism to democracy examining authors works and memories that were subsequently silenced by Cold War politics How a shared memory of Fascism and its cultural heritage took shape is still today the most disputed question of modern Italy crossing the boundaries between academic and public discourse Against Redemption concentrates on the historical period in which disagreement was at its highest the transition between the downfall of Mussolini in July 1943 and the victory of the Christian Democrats over the Left in the 1948 general elections By dispelling the silence around the range of opinion in the years before the ideological struggle fossilized into Cold War oppositions this book points to early postwar literary practices as the main vehicle for intellectual dissent shedding new light on the role of cultural policies in institutionalizing collective memory During Italy's transition to democracy competing narratives over the recent traumatic past emerged and crystallized depicting the country's break with Mussolini's regime as a political and personal redemption from its politics of exclusion and unrestrained use of violence Conversely outstanding authors such as Elsa Morante Carlo Levi Alberto Moravia and Curzio Malaparte in close dialogue with remarkable but now neglected figures stressed the cultural continuity between the new democracy and Fascism igniting heated debates from opposite political standpoints Their works addressed questions such as the working through of national defeat Italian responsibility in World War II and the Holocaust revealing how the social racial and gender biases that characterized Fascism survived after its demise and haunted the newborn democracy      Thinking Italian Animals D. Amberson, E. Past, 2014-09-18 This bracing volume collects work on Italian writers and filmmakers that engage with nonhuman animal subjectivity These contributions address 3 major strands of philosophical thought perceived borders between man and animals historical and fictional crises and human entanglement with the nonhuman and material world      Roma.
