One in Christ Jesus David Lertis Matson, K.C. Richardson, 2014-11-11 This Festschrift dedicated to S Scott Bartchy comes on the occasion of his retirement from the Department of History at the University of California at Los Angeles This volume contains seventeen essays contributed by Professor Bartchy s esteemed colleagues associates friends and former graduate students Beginning with his groundbreaking work on Greco Roman slavery Bartchy s teaching and research have been marked both by his use of social scientific methods for studying the New Testament and by an interest in the social history of early Christianity including the role of women in the early Christian assemblies the Christian critique of traditional views of male honor and the practice of table fellowship and its implications for Christian social relations To honor Bartchy s legacy the editors thought it appropriate to organize this collection according to the relational categories suggested by Galatians 3 28 Each essay pertains therefore to the social dynamics between Jews and Gentiles slaves and freeborn or males and females in the early church and beyond The volume s subtitle reflects Scott s many accomplishments as a jazz musician and sounds a note of unity in diversity that characterizes the diverse perspectives and themes found in the essays of this volume

First and Second Timothy and Titus (Paideia: Commentaries on the New Testament) Christopher R. Hutson, 2019-11-05 Drawing from many parts of the broad Christian tradition this commentary on First and Second Timothy and Titus helps readers gain a stronger understanding of early Christian ministry in the first two centuries Paideia commentaries show how New Testament texts use ancient narrative and rhetorical strategies to form and shape the reader and provide a fresh reading of the biblical texts in light of ancient culture and modern issues Students pastors and other readers will appreciate the historical literary and theological insight offered in this commentary

The New Testament on Sexuality William Loader, 2012-09-13 This is the fifth and final installment of William Loader s authoritative acclaimed series on attitudes toward sexuality in the ancient world Sexual themes are never far beneath the surface where there are human beings This was certainly the case for Christians in the first century world Some began in a strongly Jewish context and worked out their faith in dialogue with their scriptural heritage Others had to work out their sexual ethics in a world strongly influenced by Greco Roman ideals and practices In The New Testament on Sexuality William Loader explores the relevant cultural contexts and looks at New Testament texts related to sexuality highlighting both the warnings about sexual wrongdoing and the affirmations of sexual union He deals with specific themes such as divorce same sex relations women and men in leadership and celibacy individual behavior gender roles and rules preferences and hopes also fall under the scope of his investigation Broad ranging and thorough this book engages both the biblical texts and the diverse ways in which they have been interpreted

Reconsidering Gender Myk Habets, Beulah Wood, 2011-01-01 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis

Men and Women in the Household of God Korinna Zamfir,2013-04-10 Korinna Zamfir explores the manner in which the Pastoral Epistles redefine roles and ministries within a changed ecclesiological framework the ekkl sia as oikos Theou The contextual investigation focuses on the cultural and social background of the station codes and church orders Applying the environmental approach advanced by Abraham Malherbe Zamfir discusses the Pastoral Epistles as writings intimately linked to their Greco Roman social and cultural environment The volume addresses the mentalities reflected in moral philosophies political theories drama and epigraphy focusing on the discourse articulated in these sources Exploring the adoption of conservative mentalities the monograph advances a reading of the Pastoral Epistles based on ideology critique It also incorporates insights gained from research on the social world of earliest Christianity in particular on private associations Korinna Zamfir argues that the ecclesiology of the Pastoral Epistles presupposes the metaphorical use of oikos Theou and shows that in Greco Roman antiquity oikos denotes larger social entities like the religious association the polis and the cosmos The ekkl sia is the oikos and polis of God As a consequence the Pastoral Epistles define roles and ministries based on the public private divide and on honor and shame mentality The theo logical and cosmic dimension of the household of God explains the essentialist understanding of social and ecclesial roles The author also tackles the contrast between discourse and ecclesial reality

Women's Socioeconomic Status and Religious Leadership in Asia Minor in the First Two Centuries C.E. Katherine Bain, 2014 Rethinking the socioeconomic status of women in the Roman world Moving beyond discussions of patriarchy and prescribed women's roles in the Roman world discussions that have relied too much on elite literary sources in her view Katherine Bain explores what inscriptional data from Asia Minor can tell us about the actual socioeconomic status of women in the first and second centuries C E Her findings suggest that women's leadership in social associations and by implication in Jewish and Christian congregations as well was even more frequent than has been imagined Book Cover

The Not-Very-Persecuted Church Laura Hunt, 2011-11-01 How do we live distinctively in communities embedded in the world around us The Not Very Persecuted Church provides church leaders pastors and Christians interested in community development with principles for evaluating culture in light of mission Since we are called to live in community the processes that build group identity can help us understand how to live together well Paul addressed some of the problems that can occur in not very persecuted groups in the first four chapters of 1 Corinthians and he shows us the way suffering forms identity in that context With discussion questions and stories from personal interviews this book offers both fascinating glimpses into the world of the first century and practical applications for Christians today

Community Building in the Shepherd of Hermas Mark Grundeken, 2015-06-02 In Community Building in the Shepherd of Hermas Mark Grundeken investigates key aspects of Christian community life as reflected upon in the early Christian writing the Shepherd of Hermas 2nd century C E Grundeken's thematic study deals with various topics the community's identity including its alleged Jewish Christianness lack of resurrection belief sectarian tendencies and its relation to the authorities and to the emperor cult social features encompassing gender roles and charity and rituals such as baptism metanoia Eucharistic meals the Sunday collection dancing and singing the holy kiss and reading of Scripture The many fruitful entries prove Hermas to be one of the main texts for studying the development of community building in the early church

1 Timothy Aida Besancon Spencer, 2014-08-28 In a thorough and insightful commentary on Paul's letter to his co worker Timothy which the Apostle wrote before and during Nero's persecution Aida Besancon Spencer carefully examines each part of the letter and relates it to the overall flow of the argument and in light of the larger biblical historical social and cultural contexts How Paul's writing related to the ancient communities is highlighted in the light of original data gleaned from her explorations on location in Ephesus and throughout Greece In addition Paul's rhetorical and ministry strategies especially as they relate to women and their role in the church are explored Throughout Spencer presents an in depth exegesis in a readable format enhanced by forty years of ministry

Phoebe Joan Cecelia Campbell, 2009 Human beings are embedded in a set of social relations A social network is one way of conceiving that set of relations in terms of a number of persons connected to one another by varying degrees of relatedness In the early Jesus group documents featuring Paul and coworkers it takes little effort to envision the apostle's collection of friends and friends of friends that is the Pauline network The persons who constituted that network are the focus of this set of brief books For Christians of the Western tradition these persons are significant ancestors in faith While each of them is worth knowing by themselves it is largely because of their standing within that web of social relations woven about and around Paul that they are of lasting interest Through this series we hope to come to know those persons in ways befitting their first century Mediterranean culture Imagine trying to find a window into the life of an individual who lived approximately two thousand years ago in a culture vastly different from our own Consider the added difficulty when that individual is a woman and the only written record of her consists of two biblical verses Rom 16 1 2 In this volume Joan C Campbell takes on the challenge and provides a surprisingly full and rich account of Phoebe of Kenchreai With Campbell we visit Phoebe's hometown we wander the city streets with her and we meet her associates Along the way we gain insight into the social roles that Paul ascribes to her sister deacon and patron and what these roles entailed in first century Mediterranean Jesus groups This book is important reading for anyone interested in the contribution of women to emerging Christianity and for contemporary deacons who seek to understand the biblical roots of their ministry Joan C Campbell CSM PhD is a member of the Congregation of Saint Martha of Prince Edward Island Canada and assistant professor of New Testament Studies at Atlantic School of Theology in Halifax Nova Scotia A major teaching and research interest of hers is the cultural world of first century Mediterranean Jesus groups and how knowledge of that cultural world can illumine biblical texts that deal with women such as Phoebe She is the author of Kinship Relations in the Gospel of John

Jesus and the Gospels (2nd Edition) Craig Blomberg, 2020-05-21 A clear and comprehensive introduction to the study of Jesus and the Gospels Craig Blomberg's award winning Jesus and the Gospels prepares readers for an intensive study of Matthew Mark Luke John and the events they narrate Blomberg considers the historical context of the Gospels and sheds light on the confusing interpretations brought forth over the last two centuries This updated edition incorporates new scholarship debate critical methods and the ongoing quest for the historical Jesus and ensures the work will remain a valuable tool for exploring the life of Christ through the first four books of the New Testament

Birthing Salvation Anna Rebecca Solevåg, 2013-10-09 In Birthing Salvation Anna Rebecca Solevåg explores the theme of childbearing in early Christian discourse The book maps the importance of women's childbearing in Greco Roman culture and shows how childbearing discourse interfaces with salvation discourse in three early Christian texts the Pastoral Epistles the Acts of Andrew and the Martyrdom of Perpetua and Felicitas Issues of gender and class are explored through an intersectional analysis In particular the institution of slavery and its implications for ideas about salvation in these texts are drawn out Birthing Salvation offers fresh interpretations of these texts including the peculiar statement in 1 Tim 2 15 that women will be saved through childbearing
