tradition of funerary monuments designed for and dedicated to individual children daughters as well as sons The book consists of five major parts which could be read in any order though the overall sequencing is based on the premise that an understanding of the context and background will enhance a reading of these fascinating child monuments Consequently there is a progression of knowledge presented from the broader context of the earlier parts towards the final parts where the actual child monuments are discussed in detail Thus the book begins with an overview of the wider cultural contexts of funerary monuments and where children fitted into this It then moves on to look at the forgotten Renaissance of central Europe and specifically the situation in Poland The middle part addresses the culture of memory examining the role of funerary monuments in reinforcing social religious and familial continuity The last parts deal with the physical monuments empirical data iconography and iconology Through this illuminating consideration of children s monuments the book raises a host of fascinating questions relating to Polish social and cultural life family structure attitudes to children and gender It also addresses the issue of why Poland witnessed this unusual development and what this tells us about the transmission of cultural and artistic ideas across Renaissance Europe Drawing upon social and cultural history visual and gender studies the work not only asks important new questions but provides a fresh perspective on some familiar topics and themes within Renaissance history

East European Accessions Index, 1957 New Studies in Medieval and Renaissance Gdańsk, Poland and Prussia Beata Możejko, 2017-03-31

New Studies in Medieval and Renaissance Poland and Prussia The Impact of Gdańsk draws together the latest research conducted by local historians and archaeologists on the city of Gdańsk and its impact on the surrounding region of Pomerania and Poland as a whole. Beginning with Gdańsk's early political history and extending from the 10th to the 16th century its twelve chapters explore a range of political social and socio cultural historical questions and explain such phenomena as the establishment and development of the Gdańsk port and city. A prominent theme is a consideration of the interactions between Gdańsk and Poland and Prussia including a look into the city's links with the State of the Teutonic Order in Prussia and the Kingdom of Poland under the rule of the Piast and Jagiellonian dynasties. The chapters are placed in the historical context of medieval Poland as well as the broader themes of religion the matrimonial policy of noble families or their contacts with the papacy. This book is an exciting new study of medieval Poland and unparalleled in the English speaking world making it an ideal text for those wanting to deepen their knowledge in this subject area.
