Florin Abraham, 2016-11-17 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2017 Romania since the Second World War is the first book about Romania designed to chart the progress of the nation under the communist regime as well as the transition period that followed providing detailed analysis of the aspects of continuity and change that can be identified over the period as a whole The book begins with Romania s involvement in the Second World War looking at the communist regime in depth It examines how communism took hold and the elimination of traditional elites took place before discussing the impact of Gheorghiu Dej and Nicolae Caeusescu the two most important leaders of the communist era The following chapters cover the main social and economic changes during the communist regime The second part of the book explores the transition period following the end of communism in 1989 with special attention given to international relations and Romania s drive for inclusion in NATO and the EU Romania since the Second World War assesses socio demographic trends across the postwar period before concluding with some thoughts on the nation s development during this time The book includes a useful appendix covering the key figures in Romania s recent history and a helpful bibliography making this a key text for anyone interested in the modern history of Eastern Europe

Intellectuals and Fascism in Interwar Romania Cristina A. Bejan, 2019-08-23 In 1930s Bucharest some of the country s most brilliant young intellectuals converged to form the Criterion Association Bound by friendship and the dream of a new modern Romania their members included historian Mircea Eliade critic Petru Comarnescu Jewish playwright Mihail Sebastian and a host of other philosophers and artists Together they built a vibrant cultural scene that flourished for a few short years before fascism and scandal splintered their ranks Cristina A Bejan asks how the far right Iron Guard came to eclipse the appeal of liberalism for so many of Romania s intellectual elite drawing on diaries memoirs and other writings to examine the collision of culture and extremism in the interwar years The first English language study of Criterion and the most thorough to date in any language this book grapples with the complexities of Romanian intellectual life in the moments before collapse Romania Lucian Boia, 2001 Romania occupies a unique position on the map of Eastern Europe It is a country that presents many paradoxes In this book the preeminent Romanian historian Lucian Boia examines his native land's development from the Middle Ages to modern times delineating its culture history language politics and ethnic identity Boia introduces us to the heroes and myths of Romanian history and provides an enlightening account of the history of Romanian Communism He shows how modernization and the influence of the West have divided the nation town versus country nationalists versus pro European factions the elite versus the masses and argues that Romania today is in chronic difficulty as it tries to fix its identity and envision a future for itself The book concludes with a tour of Bucharest whose houses streets and public monuments embody Romania's traditional values and contemporary contradictions

Subverting Communism in Romania Mihaela Serban, 2019-08-22 Subverting Communism in Romania explores the role of law in everyday life and as a mechanism for social change during early communism in Romania Mihaela Serban focuses on the regime's attempts to extinguish private property in housing through housing nationalization and expropriation This study of early communist law illustrates that law is never just an instrument of state power particularly over the long term and from a ground up perspective Even during its most totalitarian phase communist law enjoyed a certain level of autonomy at the most granular level and consequently was simultaneously a space of state power and resistance to power The book draws from archives recently made available in Romania which have opened up new perspectives for understanding a mundane yet crucial part of the modern human experience one's home and the institution of private property that often sustains it

Romania, 1916-1941 Dennis Deletant, 2022-08-19 This study challenges the rose tinted view of the interwar period in Romanian history which is often judged against the darkness of almost five decades of Communist rule Romania like several of the states of Eastern Europe emerged from the First World War as it had entered it as a predominantly agricultural country and one of its major problems was the condition of the peasantry This volume's focus is the drive to improve that condition on the collapse of democracy and the search by Romania's leaders for strategies to secure the state to assert the country's independence and to maintain its territorial integrity in the face of the threat to the European order posed by two totalitarian systems represented by Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union By examining recent scholarship this volume provides the most up to date account of Romania's predicament in the interwar years Romania 1916-1941 is a useful resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in foreign policy politics society internationalization and late development in interwar Central and Eastern Europe Romania, 1973 Politics and Peasants in Interwar Romania Sorin Radu, Oliver Jens Schmitt, 2017-11-06 The volume discusses the integration of peasants into the nation building project of Greater Romania with a focus on social and cultural practices Thus it addresses one of the key questions of the new political system in post imperial East Central and Southeast Europe It advocates a shift from a multiple top down perspective capital province urban political elites rural voters to an analysis concentrating on regionally diverse rural societies with a special interest in the predominantly ethnic Romanian population Romania during the World War I Era Kurt Treptow, 2022-09-01 One of the most dramatic periods in modern history the World War I era also marked a turning point in Romanian history This volume is a collection of studies presented by Romanian American and British scholars at the Fourth International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Iasi and Focsani Romania from 22-27 June 1998 on the occasion of the eightieth anniversary of the end of the great world conflict Articles included Mark Axworthy Through British Eyes Romanian Military Performance in World War I Catalin Turliuc Major Factors which Determined the Conduct of the Great War Valeriu Florin Dobrinescu Ion I C Bratianu The Genius of Greater Romania Diana Fotescu Regina Maria si razboiul de intregire nationala Constantin Hlihor Romania within the Geopolitics of the Great Powers of Europe between 1918-1919 Nicholas M Nagy Talavera Iorga's Role during the Great War 1914-1918 Demetrius Dvoichenko de Markov The Anti Communist White Guards and Romania 1918 Ernest H Latham Jr We Will Do Business Romania and the Baldwin Locomotive Works Kurt W Treptow John Reed and Romania in 1915 Costica Prodan Unele consideratii privind participarea Romaniei la primul razboi mondial 1916-1918 and many others Romania and the Quest for European Identity Cristian Cercel, 2019-03-15 Exploring the largely positive representations of Romanian Germans predominating in post 1989 Romanian society this book shows that the underlying reasons for German prestige are strongly connected with Romania's endeavors to become European The election in 2014 of Klaus Iohannis as Romania's president was hailed as evidence that the country chose a European future that Iohannis belonged to Romania's tiny German minority was also considered to have played a part in his success Cercel argues that representations of Germans in Romania descendants of twelfth century and eighteenth century colonists become actually a symbolic resource for asserting but also questioning Romania's European identity Such representations link Romania's much desired European belonging with German presence whilst German absence is interpreted as a sign of veering away from Europe Investigating this case of discursive self colonization and this apparent symbolic embrace of the German Other in Romania the book offers a critical study of the discourses associated with Romania's postcommunist Europeanization to contribute a better understanding of contemporary West East relationships in the European context This fresh and insightful approach will interest postgraduates and scholars interested in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe and in German minorities outside Germany It should also appeal to scholars of memory studies and those interested in the study of otherness in general The Holocaust in Romania Radu Ioanid, 2022-04-20 In this book Ioanid explores in great detail the physical destruction of Romania's Jewish and Roma communities including the pogroms of Bucharest and Iasi as well as the deportations and the massacres from Bessarabia Bukovina and Transnistria Based on thousands of archival documents and testimonies of survivors The Holocaust in Romania sheds new light on Romania's prefascist and fascist antisemitic legislation and its implementation. New chapters consider the forced labor of the Jews, persecution by the Protestant churches and the decision making process of the Antonescu government in its treatment of Jews and Roma. With this book the Romanian Holocaust will no longer be forgotten.

Women's Life Writing in Post-Communist Romania Simona Mitroiu, 2022-11-07. This book analyzes the impact of abusive regimes of power on women's lives and on their self-expression through close readings of life writing by women in communist Romania. In particular, it examines the forms of agency and privacy available to women under totalitarianism and the modes of relationships in which their lives were embedded. The self-expression and self-reflexive processes that are to be found in the body of Romanian women's autobiographical writings, this study presents, create complex private narratives that underpin the creative development of inclusive memories of the past through shared responsibility and shared agency. At the same time, however, the way these private personal narratives intertwined with collective and official historical narratives exemplifies the multidimensional nature of privacy as well as the radical redefinition of agency in this period. This book argues for a broader understanding of the narratives of the communist past, one that reflects the complexity of individual and social interactions and allows a deep exploration of the interconnected relations between memory, trauma, nostalgia, agency and privacy.

Religion and Politics in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2007-10-25. Stan and Turcescu examine the complex relationship between church and state in the new Romania, providing analysis in key areas: church collaboration with communist authorities, post-communist electoral politics, nationalism and ethno-politics and religious education among other areas.

Romania Redefined in British Travel Narratives Dimitrios Kassis, 2025-01-19. Remaining in relative obscurity until the early nineteenth century, the Danube Principalities were persistently viewed as a region inhabited by citizens of the Ottoman Empire that epitomised all the negative qualities attached to Eastern Europe, having no direct connection to the Greek and Slavic cultures that bordered Wallachia, Moldavia and Transylvania. Romanians were often subjected to the most severe scrutiny by British travellers who ventured into this part of the Balkan Peninsula. In juxtaposition with other Balkan nations such as the Greeks and Serbians, whose national struggle was met with the sympathy of European intellectuals, the Romanian-speaking populations were often demonised, persistently ignored or systematically represented on the basis of their state of vassalage to the nearby empires. This volume pertains to the representations of Romania in ten British travelogues which approached Romanian-ness from different angles, triggering the image of the decadent Orient. Other than the Romanian political context, which was explored in tune with the interests of the British expansionist agenda and through the lens of the Anglo-Saxon racial discourse that occupied a prevalent position in Victorian imagination.

100 Years since the Great Union of Romania Dan Dungaciu, Viorella Manolache, 2019-11-06. 100 Years since the Great Union of Romania is a pertinent witness to the course of Romanian political thinking. It confirms that December 1918 demands to be celebrated as a fundamental historical event which imparts a prominent force to the continuing dynamics of the preposition since potentiating it not only with the structural valences of the initial moment and the starting point but also giving it the meaning of the plenary symbols of a historical act which after 100 years celebrates its establishment by reaffirming and confirming its fully mature vocation This volume is dedicated to the 100 years since the Great Union of all Romanians It will appeal to the wider academic community PhD students professors and researchers and to any reader interested in history history of political thoughts political philosophy and science or international relations Witnessing Romania's Century of Turmoil Nicolae Mărgineanu,2017 The story of psychologist Nicolae Mărgineanu's imprisonment and survival conveys in detail the impact of Communist rule in Romania The Shaping of Western Civilization Michael Burger,2013-09-26 Michael Burger's goal in this inexpensive overview is to provide a brief historical narrative of Western civilization Not only does its length and price separate this text from the competition but its no frills uncluttered format and well written one authored approach make it a valuable asset for every history student The Shaping of Western Civilization begins with the ancient Near East and ends with globalization Unlike other textbooks that pile on dates and facts Shaping is a more coherent and interpretive presentation Burger's skills as writer and synthesizer will enable students to obtain the background required to ask meaningful questions of primary sources In addition to suggestions for further reading this overview includes over 50 images and 22 maps A Concise History of Romania Keith Hitchins,2014-02-20 A comprehensive and engaging new history charting Romania's development over 2000 years from its establishment to the present day Democratic Consolidation and Europeanization in Romania Sergiu Mișcoiu,2021-09-07 This volume is a multi dimensional analysis of Romania's political economic cultural and societal transformation after 1989 It synthetically depicts the main stages of the processes of democratic transition and consolidation as well as the subsequent phenomena of Europeanization but also the series of more recent democratic setbacks that affected the Romanian society The overall perspective is integrative providing the reader with a balanced and complete understanding of Romania's post communist challenges without being spared of the most sensitive aspects The volume gathers the contributions of some of the most distinguished experts in different sub fields of transition studies including political systems societal transformations minority rights macro economic dynamics and foreign policy
