Islamic Homosexualities Stephen O. Murray,Will Roscoe,1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Islamic Homosexualities Will Roscoe,Stephen O. Murray,1997-02-01 The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called

Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Arabic Literature in the Post-Classical Period Roger Allen,D. S. Richards,2006-04-13 The final volume of the series explores the Arabic literary heritage of the little known period from the twelfth to the beginning of the nineteenth century Even though it was during this time that the famous Thousand and One Nights was composed very little has been written on the literature of the period generally and Roger Allen and Donald Richards bring together some of the most distinguished scholars in the field The volume is divided into parts with the traditions of poetry and prose covered separately within both their elite and popular contexts The last two sections are devoted to drama and the indigenous tradition of literary criticism Role Model and Countermodel Carsten

Schapkow,2015-12-09 This book explores the Golden Age of Sephardic Jewry on the Iberian Peninsula and its perception in German Jewish culture during the era of emancipation For Jews living in Germany the history of Sephardic Jewry developed into a historical example with its distinctive valence and signature against the pressure to assimilate and the emergence of anti Semitism in Germany It provided moreover a forum to engage in internal dialogue amongst Jews and external dialogue with German majority society about challenging questions of religious political and national identity In this respect the perception of prominent Sephardic Jews as intercultural mediators was key to emphasizing the skills and values Jews had to offer to civilizations in the past German Jews invoked this past significance in their case for a Jewish role in present and future societies especially in Germany Sacred and Secular: Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic

Teachings Fr. Wilson A. Jerusalem,2024-05-26 Sacred and Secular Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic Teachings delves deeply into the intricate tapestry of love across centuries examining its transformation through the lens of Catholicism In this comprehensive exploration the author meticulously traces the trajectory of love from its foundational roots in ancient scriptures to its contemporary manifestations in the modern world The book embarks on its journey by elucidating the foundational elements of love within the Catholic tradition It meticulously dissects biblical perspectives on love scrutinizing key passages from both the Old and New Testaments Furthermore it delves into the teachings of early Church Fathers such as Augustine and Jerome illuminating their profound insights into the nature of love and its role within early Christian communities A significant portion of the book is devoted to the exploration of love within the framework of Canon Law It elucidates the canonical views on love and marriage emphasizing the sacramental nature of marriage and the intricate regulations governing love within the Catholic Church Additionally it meticulously traces the evolution of Canon Law pertaining to love highlighting the historical shifts and cultural influences that have shaped canonical interpretations over time The narrative seamlessly transitions to an analysis of Catholic documents on love particularly focusing on papal encyclicals and Vatican II documents Through a meticulous examination of key encyclicals such as Deus Caritas Est and Amoris Laetitia the book unveils the rich tapestry of papal teachings on various aspects of love ranging from eros to agape Furthermore it explores Vatican II documents such as Gaudium et Spes shedding light on the Church's stance on love within the context of human rights and dignity In its exploration of contemporary Catholic thought the book engages with the perspectives of influential theologians such as Hans Urs von Balthasar and Karl Rahner It analyzes their works offering insights into contemporary interpretations of love within the Catholic tradition Moreover it addresses the challenges and opportunities for love in the modern world examining societal trends and discussing how Catholic teachings respond to contemporary challenges Ultimately Sacred and Secular Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic Teachings culminates in a reflective conclusion where the author encapsulates the key insights gleaned from the exploration Through its comprehensive analysis the book not only provides a nuanced understanding of the transformations of love across centuries but also underscores the enduring relevance of Catholic teachings on love in both sacred and secular contexts

Arab-Islamic Education Systems in the Experience of Migrants and Refugees in Europe Sara Mazzei, 2025-03-15 In the last decade Europe has welcomed numerous migrants and refugees from Arab countries Their scholastic inclusion has been challenging and the teaching staff had to sometimes deal with unfamiliar realities The issue has been addressed by various perspectives from sociology to psychology insights from which are gathered in intercultural education In it there are scarcity of studies that delve into pupils cultural backgrounds and countries of origin's history is seldom regarded as a decisive factor in the formation of identity Among Arabic speaking communities the Moroccan and Syrian ones are the most significant and Morocco and Syria have interesting histories and education systems Using Nussbaum's 2010 multifactorial analysis this research aims to better understand the educational universe where Arabic speaking pupils come from focusing on humanities and religious education in the experience of pupils especially from Morocco and Syria Methodology comprehends qualitative empirical research conducted in Europe Results show the differences experienced by pupils in their educational paths among diverse Arab and European countries and the more sensitive topics they encounter in their education in Europe in relation to their identity

Everyday Arab Identity Christopher Phillips, 2013 Whether through government propaganda or popular transnational satellite television channels Arab citizens encounter a discourse that reinforces a sense of belonging to their own state and a broader Arab world on a daily basis Looking through the lens of nationalism theory this book examines how and why Arab identity continues to be reproduced in today's Middle East and how that Arab identity interacts with strengthening ties to religion and the state Drawing on case studies of two ideologically different Arab regimes Syria and Jordan Christopher Phillips explores both the implications this everyday Arab identity will have on western policy towards the Middle East and its real life impact on international relations Offering an original perspective on this topical issue this book will be of interest to academics and practitioners working on the Arab world and political affairs as well as students of International Relations Political Science and the Middle East notably Syria and Jordan and policymakers in the region

Mapping the Self Alex Goody, Anna Hewitt, Nissa Parmar, 2015-10-05 As the title indicates three themes of perpetual interest in contemporary cultural studies place identity and nationality converge in this critical essay collection While proffering varied and sometimes clashing arguments concerning the title themes the essays and their authors all assert the importance of the creative text in defining contesting and understanding place identity and nationality in the modern and contemporary globalised world The critical frameworks of these essays grow out of the groundbreaking literary and cultural studies theory of the past two decades However several of the essays map hitherto uncharted territory by engaging with recent works from emerging authors and a director and providing new insight into the work of established authors Beyond mapping new academic terrain the collection is further distinguished by its global perspective with texts and authors from around the world which come together in a unique multinational dialogue The collection is divided into three sections The first Women Writers and Nationalism includes essays on Gertrude Stein Adrienne Rich Jo Shapcott and Leila Aboulela The second National Identity and Contemporary Fictions examines the role of contemporary fiction in establishing the respective national identities and histories of Wales and Australia The third Transnational Identities analyses Partition literature migrant women s literature of France and Spain and film director Shane Meadows take on new forms of nationalism From India Africa Europe Australia and the United States the texts and essays crisscross the globe exploring the relationships between nationality and identity through film memoir poetry and the novel Some examine national literatures and identities others focus on the struggle of the individual particularly the migrant individual to define his or her identity within a multicultural multinational framework Together the essays register both collective and individual responses to nationality and illustrate new forms of nationalism and identity in the modern and contemporary world
