Rome Time And Eternity:

Rome Anthony Woodward, 1995 Jews and Christians on Time and Eternity Annette Aronowicz, 1998 This book grapples with a wide range of contemporary ethical and religious issues through the lens of the reflections of Charles P. Guy on his friend and mentor Bernard Lazare. Both P. Guy, a leading French Catholic poet and philosopher, and Bernard Lazare, an iconoclastic Jewish intellectual, were passionately involved in the Dreyfus Affair, which forms the background of these reflections. The book is in four parts. The first sets P. Guy's portrait of Bernard Lazare in a series of contexts, analyzing it against the background of the rampant antisemitism of its time, situating it in relation to present-day discussions about the Other, and especially placing it within various twentieth-century attempts to rethink religion. P. Guy's great contribution in this area lies in redirecting our attention to the ways human beings respond to defeat and to the ways the intellect is oriented by something outside itself as keys to the discovery of the transcendent. His work reformulates the meaning of hope and incarnation. The second part of the book presents P. Guy's portrait of Bernard Lazare in a complete English translation. In the third part, the author shows the affinity of P. Guy's thought to that of two Jewish thinkers, Franz Rosenzweig and Emmanuel Levinas. All three, in rethinking the religious dimension, located it amidst the daily interactions between people. The final part explores the implications of this notion of transcendence for the task of interpretation in the social sciences and the humanities.

Encyclopedia of Time H. James Birx, 2009-01-13 Surveying the major facts, concepts, theories, and speculations that infuse our present comprehension of time, the Encyclopedia of Time: Science, Philosophy, Theology, and Culture explores the contributions of scientists, philosophers, theologians, and creative artists from ancient times to the present. By drawing together into one collection ideas from scholars around the globe and in a wide range of disciplines, this Encyclopedia will provide readers with a greater understanding of and appreciation for the elusive phenomenon experienced as time. Features surveys of historical thought about time, including those that emerged in ancient Greece, early Christianity, the Italian Renaissance, the Age of Enlightenment, and other periods. Covers the original and lasting insights of evolutionary biologist Charles Darwin, physicist Albert Einstein, philosopher Alfred North Whitehead, and theologian Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. Discusses the significance of time in the writings of Isaac Asimov, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Fyodor M. Dostoevsky, Francesco Petrarch, and numerous other authors. Includes the contributions of naturalists, philosophers, physicists, theologians, astronomers, anthropologists, geologists, paleontologists, and psychologists. Includes artists' portrayals of the fluidity of time, including painter Salvador Dalí's The Persistence of Memory and The Discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, and writers Gustave Flaubert's The Temptation of Saint Anthony and Henryk Sienkiewicz's Quo Vadis. Provides a truly interdisciplinary approach with discussions of Aztec, Buddhist, Christian, Egyptian, Ethiopian, Islamic, Hindu, Navajo, and many other cultures' conceptions of time.

The Eternal Time of History - Part I Simone Malacrida, 2025-06-04 Servio Italico's choice to break with his family's traditions will give rise to a lineage that for five generations will walk alongside the history.

of the first century From the defeat of Teutoburg to the conquest of Britain from the death of Octavian Augustus to the fire of Rome from the eruption of Vesuvius to the first campaign of Dacia men and women will find themselves in the presence of the founding idea of the Roman Empire shaken by novelties and evolutions in an attempt to defend the values of an ancestral and now past virtue To complete the vision of the century two collateral stories intertwine in the plot trade and cultivation in the Chinese Empire following the rise and fall of the Eastern Han dynasty and the growing tensions in a family of zealots between Judea and Syria

The Eternal Time of History - Part II Simone Malacrida,2025-06-27 Following the family saga originated by Servius Italicus his descendants will find themselves facing new challenges and new problems unfolding throughout the second century The conquest of Dacia the endless wars against the Parthians the barbarian incursions will mark the territorial and cultural expansion of the adoptive principality one of the most glorious pages of the Empire until the definitive caesura given by the Antonine plague and the civil war In the background remain the personal passions the intrepid exploratory journeys the magisterial and senatorial careers the loves and doubts of entire generations The complementary vision of the century will be given by the same enemies of Rome that Parthian kingdom and those barbarian tribes always divided between coexistence or conflict

The Eternal Time of History - Part III Simone Malacrida,2025-07-25 The travails of the third century characterized by a profound social crisis in the Roman Empire shaken by civil wars and constant invasions inevitably affected the Italian family beginning with the descendants of Numa the imperial legate who won countless battles and would be the last witness of the Severan dynasty In the darkest period of Rome's thousand year history amid usurpers and the end of patrician rule there were key figures capable of averting collapse and restoring new hope to a system that with appropriate modifications would achieve the incredible feat of integrating new peoples and emerging religions without losing its own identity The landscape of looming enemies is characterized by the example of two peoples the Alemanni and the Goths who more than any other threatened Rome throughout the century

The Eternal Time of History - Part IV Simone Malacrida,2025-09-07 With the rise of Constantine to the helm of the Roman Empire religion became a crucial element along with civil wars and barbarian invasions shaping the entire history of the fourth century This was characterized by a continuous transformation of society much more concerned with cultural philosophical and theological aspects than with military tradition The Italics were no exception and generations adapted to these new customs a clear sign of a decline that was both inevitable and almost indefinitely postponed The foundations for the collapse lay in the emergence of new peoples represented by eternal past enemies such as the Sassanids and by adversaries who mistakenly would even be considered allies such as the Visigoths

Time in Ancient Stories of Origin Anke Walter,2020-06-30 Greek and Roman stories of origin or aetia provide a fascinating window onto ancient conceptions of time Aetia pervade ancient literature at all its stages and connect the past with the present by telling us which aspects of the past survive even now or ever since then Yet while the standard aetiological formulae remain surprisingly stable over time the understanding of time that lies behind stories of origin undergoes profound changes By studying a broad range of texts and by closely examining select stories of origin from archaic Greece Hellenistic Greece Augustan Rome and early Christian literature Time in Ancient Stories of Origin traces the changing forms of stories of origin and the underlying changing attitudes to time to the interaction of the time of gods and men to historical time to change and continuity as well as to a time beyond the present one Walter provides a model of how to analyse the temporal construction of aetia by combining close attention to detail with a view towards the larger temporal agenda of each work In the process new insights are provided both into some of the best known aetiological works of antiquity e g by Hesiod Callimachus Vergil Ovid and lesser known works e g Ephorus Prudentius Orosius This volume shows that aetia do not merely convey factual information about the continuity of the past but implicate the present in ever new complex messages about time

Making Time for the Past Katherine Clarke, 2008-03-20 This book has two main and connected themes the conception and articulation of time in the Greek world and the creation of history especially in the context of the Greek city Both how time is expressed and how the past is presented have often been seen as reflections of society By looking at the construction of the past through the medium of local historiography where we can view these issues in the relatively restricted world of individual city states we can gain a clearer insight into how different versions of the past and different constructions of time were offered to the community for approval In this way the citizens were able to negotiate time past and indeed their own history and thereby to express their values and aspirations

The Atlantic Monthly, 1912

Atlantic Monthly, 1912 God's Time For Us James J. Cassidy, 2016-09-28 The relationship between eternity and time is a common subject for theologians and philosophers What difference does it make for this discussion that God became man and inhabited time in Jesus Christ In God's Time for Us James J Cassidy examines the theology of Karl Barth to show that God is our Father who does not neglect us for lack of time he is the God who has time to be with us God also quite literally has time in his own being by virtue of the incarnation Cassidy shows that Barth seeks a rapprochement between eternity and time which is overcome by Jesus Christ There is today a resurgence in interest in the theology of Barth especially among evangelicals Yet Barth is often read without discernment and discussed in churches without full understanding Cassidy illuminates his thought so evangelicals can make a better more well informed appraisal of the man and his theology

The Newtonian concept of time has been changed by Einsteinian insight Yet the Einsteinian world view might make it difficult to appreciate traditional concepts of eschatology like heaven and hell death and immortality life after death and resurrection last day and final judgments because these expressions presuppose a pre Einsteinian view of the universe Since theology cannot remain unaffected by the new research in concepts of time Eternity and Eternal Life tries to express the eschatological faith of the Church by using the time language of our age To achieve this it provides an overview on the research in the nature of time done in geology cosmology physics biology psychology sociology history and philosophy and proposes a notion of time for timely Christology and for timely eschatology By using the singularity event as literary form Horvath scrutinizes how Christ's time can lead to the times of all existing realities through death to eternity This is a pioneering work one that needs to be tested in the community of interested readers It is a communal search for an understanding of life death and eternal life not only in the light of abstract ideas and cultural linguistic doctrines in the world of religions but also in the light of science and especially of a person as the horizon of understanding for both time and eternity Christ as the eschatological union of time and eternity becomes the work's unifying focus and its paradigm which solves recognized problems and opens our minds to new ones A Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church Philip Schaff, 1887 Concrete Time and Concrete Eternity Li Qu, 2014-02-14 This publication investigates how Karl Barth's doctrine of time and eternity can contribute to the continued understanding of the relationship of divine eternity to time or temporality Examining from a theological philosophical and physical perspective with deep emphasis on the Trinity as well as Barth's Christology and pneumatology the author helps us to understand his theory on time and eternity Barth's contribution to the subject is significant with his doctrine of time and eternity being relational in ontology Trinitarian in background and concrete in character Time, Eternity, and the Trinity Eunsoo Kim, 2010-03-01 One of the vital issues in contemporary Christian theology is the problem of a renewed understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time This is not merely a peripheral doctrinal issue but lies at the heart of our understanding of God and humanity and contributes to our entire worldview This study focuses on a long standing debate between two competing views on God's eternity one focused on God's absolute timelessness in classical theism and the other on God's temporal everlastingness in contemporary panentheism In contrast to both of these well worn options this book presents an alternative Trinitarian analogical understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time especially through a critical reflection on Karl Barth's and Hans Urs von Balthasar's engagement of the issue This analogical approach based on the dynamic and dramatic concepts of God's being in relation and of the Triune God's communicative action in eternity and time has the potential to resolve the debate between absolute timeless eternity and temporal everlasting duration Eternity Today, Vol. 1 Martin Connell, 2006-11-01 Eternity Today is a vade mecum for anyone who wishes to observe the liturgical year with intelligent devotion Religion, Space, and the Atlantic World John Corrigan, 2017-11-30 An interdisciplinary exploration of the influence of physical space in the study of religion While the concept of an Atlantic world has been central to the work of historians for decades the full implications of that spatial setting for the lives of religious people have received far less attention In Religion Space and the Atlantic World John Corrigan brings together research from geographers anthropologists literature scholars historians and religious studies specialists to explore some of the possibilities for and benefits of taking physical space more seriously in the study of religion Focusing on four domains that most readily reflect the importance of Atlantic world spaces for the shape and practice of religion texts design distance and civics these essays explore subjects as varied as the siting of churches on the Peruvian Camino Real the evolution of Hispanic cathedrals Methodist identity in nineteenth century Canada and Lutherans in early eighteenth century America Such essays illustrate both how the organization of space was driven by religious interests and how religion adapted to spatial ordering and reordering initiated by other cultural authorities The case studies include the erasure of Native American sacred spaces by missionaries serving as cartographers which contributed to a view of North America as a vast expanse of unmarked territory ripe for settlement Spanish explorers and missionaries reorganized indigenous built space to impress materially on people the surveillance power of Crown and Church The new environment and culture often transformed old institutions as in the reconception of the European cloister into a distinctly American space that offered autonomy and solidarity for religious women and served as a point of reference for social stability as convents assumed larger public roles in the outside community Ultimately even the ocean was reconceptualized as space itself rather than as a connector defined by the land masses that it touched requiring certain kinds of religious orientations to both space and time that differed markedly from those on land Collectively the contributors examine the locations and movement of people ideas texts institutions rituals power and status in and through space They argue that just as the mental organization of our activity in the world and our recall of events have much to do with our experience of space we should take seriously the degree to which that experience more broadly influences how we make sense of our lives Seginus: The Eternal Time Traveller Ganesh K Shenoy, A young man wearing nothing but a linen garment was following Jesus When they seized him he fled naked leaving his garment behind Mark 14 51 52 Follow Seginus a time traveller and ranger in the Search Rescue department of the United Human Settlements UHS the Solar System's human habitat with man made planets space stations and other habitable planets in his journey through space and time who travelled from the year 31021 to the time of Jesus to find and rescue three lost time travellers Diantha Aleksy and Leandros What happens when Jesus not only assists him in his journey but also in reuniting him with his long lost lover and finally revealing the true mission for Seginus The book will certainly invoke and raise the fantasies of readers The author has attempted to blend science with spirituality without lessening the level of readers imaginations This is an exhilarating work of fiction encompassing methodical and mystical knowledge The novel establishes that the past present and future are
