Ronsard's Contentious Sisters Roberto E. Campo, 1998 This book examines Ronsard's participation in the heated paragone debate between poets and painters the Renaissance contest for superiority in the ranking of the arts that emerged in counterpoint to the parity centered pseudo Horatian principle of ut pictura poesis as is painting so is poetry The book explores issues that despite their importance throughout Ronsard's poetry and the writings of leading paragone theorists such as Leone Battista Alberti and Leonardo da Vinci have remained largely unnoticed In broadest terms Roberto Campo investigates the poet's notions about the differences between poems and pictures More precisely it examines Ronsard's views on two fundamental preoccupations of the theoretical and practical discussions about the arts during the Renaissance which mode of expression word or image can more accurately and meaningfully represent natural realities and abstract celestial truths and thus whose art the poet's or the painter's holds the highest station in the hierarchy of human creative endeavor

Sounding Objects Carla Zecher, 2007-12-15 Often abstracted by the aesthetic implications of music itself musical instruments can be seen as physical signifiers apart from the music that they produce In Sounding Objects Carla Zecher studies the representation of musical instruments in French Renaissance poetry and art arguing that the efficacy of these material objects as literary and pictorial images was derived from their physical characteristics and acoustic properties as well as from their aesthetic product Sounding Objects is concerned with ways in which musical culture provided poets with a rich nuanced vocabulary for reflecting on their own art and its roles in courtly life the civic arena and salon society Poets not only depicted the world of musical practice but also appropriated it using musical instruments figuratively to establish their literary identities Drawing on music treatises and archival sources as well as poems paintings and engravings this unique study aims to enrich our understanding of the interplay of poetry music and art in this period and highlights the importance of musical materiality to

The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie, 2011-01-01 The sixteenth century in France was marked by religious warfare and shifting political and physical landscapes Between 1549 and 1584 however the Pl iade poets including Pierre de Ronsard Joachim Du Bellay Remy Belleau and Antoine de Ba f produced some of the most abiding and irenic depictions of rural French landscapes ever written In The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie reveals and analyzes the cultural history of French paysage through her study of lyric poetry and its connections with landscape painting cartography and land use history In the face of destructive environmental change lyric poets in Renaissance France often wrote about idealized physical spaces reclaiming the altered landscape to counteract the violence and loss of the period and creating in the process what Mackenzie following David Harvey terms spaces of hope This unique alliance of French Renaissance studies with cultural geography and eco criticism demonstrates that sixteenth century poetry created a powerful sense of place which continues to inform national and regional sentiment today

Reading Huizinga Willem Otterspeer, 2010 Summary This study by the renowned Dutch scholar Willem Otterspeer shows the same hallmark passion with which Huizinga immersed himself in history For Huizinga philology was the mother of all interpretative endeavour the master skill from which all branches of humanities originate and to which they all ultimately return Reading and writing were both part of a collective ritual that channeled human passion into beautiful forms while passion and how to master it remained the fundamental fact of human life Throughout this analysis of Huizinga s oeuvre Otterspeer remains faithful to his main philosophical tenets in which contrast and harmony memory and desire are the warp and weft of his work And again this is precisely what Otterspeer does Reading and writing passion and detachment method and mysticism are here combined in a way that would have delighted Huizinga himself This book is the English translation of the original Dutch edition Orde en trouw 2006 Encyclopedia of British Writers, 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries Book Builders LLC.,2005 Presents a two volume A to Z reference on English authors from the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries providing information about major figures key schools and genres biographical information author publications and some critical analyses Poets on Paintings Robert D. Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2000 Galdós's Segunda Manera Linda M. Willem,1998 This book explores the change that occurred in the writings of Spanish novelist Benito Perez Galdos when he entered his segunda manera in 1881 with the publication of La desheredada his first contemporary novel Critical work on this important phase of Galdos s career has tended to concentrate on the content of his novels with little attention given to the way in which Galdos conveys that content to the reader By studying these works in light of how their stories are told Linda Willem shows that La desheredada marks the beginning of a more sophisticated and varied mode of narrative in Galdos s novels Through close readings of his first seven contemporary works Willem shows how the affective response associated with various narrative devices plays a role in the rhetorical strategies of each text Earthly Treasures Catharine Randall,2007 Earthly Treasures maps the presence position and use in the narrative of a variety of material objects in Marguerite de Navarre s Heptameron There is a wide selection of objects ranging from tapestries with scripture passages woven into the borders fine arts paintings chalices incised with proverbs emblems table linens copies of Bibles or manuscripts clothing masks stage props jewelry furniture and foodstuffs Although the presence of such material objects seems paradoxical given the scriptural mandate to disregard things of this world and to store up treasure rather in heaven Marguerite found license to use such objects both in the Bible and in the daily life oriented and artifact studded sermons and writings collected in the Table Talk of Martin Luther
