

We are each assigned people in our lives for seasons/reasons.

Some are Roots; helping to grow and stabilize us.

Others are Branches;
they help to display our fruit.

Then others are Leaves;
who are only there for a short season and then blow away.

Don't put hope in leaves;
they are meant to leave!!!

A Poet's Trees Love Lena, 2017-03-09 48 poems of madness and reality from the mind of Violet Lovelena Witt From thoughts of peace to simple madness to bliss of nature to rage of her hopeless humanity

American Poetry after Modernism Albert Gelpi, 2015-03-09 Albert Gelpi's American Poetry after Modernism is a study of sixteen major American poets of the postwar period from Robert Lowell to Adrienne Rich Gelpi argues that a distinctly American poetic tradition was solidified in the later half of the twentieth century thus severing it from British conventions In Gelpi's view what distinguishes the American poetic tradition from the British is that at the heart of the American endeavor is a primary questioning of function and medium The chief paradox in American poetry is the lack of a tradition that requires answering and redefining redefining what it means to be a poet and likewise how the words of a poem create meaning offer insight into reality and answer the ultimate questions of living Through chapters devoted to specific poets Gelpi explores this paradox by providing an original and insightful reading of late twentieth century American poetry

Pruning Root and Branch Phil Lloyd, 2023-01-20 The 274 poems in this anthology are pruned from 12 previously published collections that contain approximately 700 poems plus 700 explanations 99 tiny droplets of condensation 99 reflections on landscapes 99 broken buildings 99 missed calls 198 explanations 200 explanations 49 songs of silent sirens 49 islands set in a single sea 49 gods we serve 49 insights into the smoking abyss 49 chances to exist and 49 counter positions I have also included 14 poems pruned from the next book I am writing 49 troublesome thoughts Gardeners know the truth of the paradox pruning encourages growth I hope these modest roots and slender branches pruned from deeper roots and sturdier branches will encourage the growth of your ever burgeoning tree of knowledge but the fruit that your tree bears will always be your own unique truth

Root and Branch Allan H. Findlay, 1986

The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years

The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names

Human-Plant Entanglement and Vegetal Agency in the Poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath Dilek Bulut Sarikaya, 2024-03-06 Dilek Bulut Sarikaya scrutinizes human plant entanglement in the poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath from the perspective of critical plant studies which is committed to restoring the lost connection between humans and plants The author offers a theoretical reading of Hardy and Plath's poetry focusing specifically on how plants are depicted by these two poets as self conscious and emotional individuals who are turned into vulnerable victims of humans exploitative practices The author develops a critical argument on the necessity of eradicating humans anthropocentric mindsets categorizing plants as sessile inert objects and replaces it with a plant centric world view perceiving plants as instantly active biological organisms who exist with their botanical accuracy rather than with the impositions of humans metaphoric meanings upon them

A Revised Text of the Poems of Vergil Virgil, 1888 Like a Dark Rabbi Norman Finkelstein, 2019-09-15 Wallace Stevens dark rabbi from his poem Le Monocle de Mon Oncle provides a title for this collection of essays on the lordly study of modern Jewish poetry in English Including chapters on such poets as Charles Reznikoff Allen Grossman Chana Bloch and Michael Heller this volume explores the tensions between religious and secular worldviews in recent Jewish poetry the often conflicted linguistic and cultural matrix from which this poetry arises and the complicated ways in which Jewish tradition shapes the sensibilities of not only Jewish but also non Jewish poets Finkelstein described as one of American poetry s indispensable makers Lawrence Joseph whose previous critical work has been called the exemplary study of the religious aspect of the works of contemporary American poets Peter O Leary considers large literary and cultural trends while never losing sight of the particular formal powers of individual poems In Like a Dark Rabbi he offers a passionate argument for the importance of Jewish American poetry to modern Jewish culture and to American poetry as it engages with the contradictions of contemporary life A Guide to the Selected Poems of T.S. Eliot B. C. Southam,1996 A unique guide designed to help the readers of Eliot s personally chosen collection Selected Poems Specific information about the poems and their development is included as is a chronology of the poet s life and work Women's Poetry and Poetics in Late Imperial China Haihong Yang,2017-05-24 This literary study examines women authored poetry and poetic criticism in late imperial China It provides close readings of original texts to explore the poetic forms and devices women poets employed to place their work into the context of the wider literary history of the period and to analyze how they asserted their own agency to negotiate their literary social and political concerns The author also investigates the interactions between women s poetic creations and existing male scholars discourses and probes how these interactions generated innovative self identities and renovations in poetic forms and aesthetics Root and Branch Jon Stallworthy,1969

A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning , The Columbia Book of Later Chinese Poetry Jonathan Chaves,1986 Jonathan Chaves makes available a vast store of rich and significant poems by both major and minor poets from China s last three dynasties Featured are poems from the Yuan dynasty which range from quiet landscape depictions to expansive freely expressive works from the Ming era notable for its stylistic quality and its diversity and from the Ching dynasty known for poets who by refusing to fit into any category helped continue the fascinating richness of late Ming cultural life Annotated with biographical sketches of the poets and illustrated with their paintings this collection is an unprecedented anthology of exceptionally well translated Chinese poetry up to the twentieth century A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton,Benjamin Franklin Stelter,1925
