Awakenings Frank Billingham, 2013-03 The flush of adrenaline now running through my veins has long been absent from my life Though confrontation is not what I anticipated on Topos Hydatos Katharos place of pure water the rush of adrenaline reconnects me with the excitement of living Just as vigorously as I came to Topos Hydatos Katharos to run away from my life I am now just a vigorously running for my life Fear and exuberance simultaneously battle for the supremacy of my immediate emotions Having lost at love and business Charles sets out for a holiday on the island Topos Hydatos Katharos renown for relaxation and regeneration What he finds there is not what he came looking for An aggressive race of human like indigenous beings seeking to dominate the island has pitted themselves against two other groups who want only peace for the island Caught in the middle of the conflict Charles begins to learn that We are not strong because of what we can do We are strong because of what we choose not to do even though we have the power to do it Text Me Jeffrey Schein, 2019-10-24 Common sense tells us that technology can either be a blessing or curse in our lives The assertion flows easily but deceptively from us Beneath the flowing assertion lay many cross currents and much complexity These complexities are named and laid out for individual and group exploration throughout the book They provide mirrors for the reader and groups of readers to discover their own affirmations and arguments with their own digital profiles based on Jewish humanistic religious values The iterative analysis points back to the double entendre in the book's title text me can be a command to engage in the famously quick communication as in receiving a text on our smart phones and text me can also serve as an imperative to explore the wisdom contained in Jewish texts The synergies gaps creative tensions and paradoxes living within this double use of text me permeate the volume Though rooted in Jewish sources the tools of analysis can be used by Christians Muslims and people who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious Indeed the book is an invitation to all who live in the digital age which is to say all of us Commentaries provided by scholars of all three of the western monotheistic faiths highlight this universal dimension

Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning

Integral Advantage Ronnie Lessem, 2017-05-15 The BRICS countries are heralded for their double digit economic growth rates and while this has indeed been impressive particularly in India and China it is clear that significant social and environmental fault lines have developed in these regions Building on the integral heritage of Ronnie Lessem s previous work through Trans4m s Centre for Integral Development here he makes the case for integral advantage a philosophy inclusive of nature and culture technology and economy altogether accommodated by an integral polity Moreover and as will be illustrated in each of the cases of the five BRICS countries each one is an integral entity in its own particular right and needs to be viewed and duly evolved as such In the final analysis he argues then that around the world the failure of a society to develop is not due to its economic limitations in isolation but to the failure of nature and culture technology and economy to co evolve in unison under the rubric of an integral polity altogether aligned with that particular society Drawing on the approach he has developed towards the release of a society s genius in each case he demonstrates how the pursuit of integral advantage may actually arise Most specifically he indicates how a balance between the spiritual and the material on the one hand and the natural and the social on the other needs to be achieved
