The Mexican Filmography, 1916 through 2001

David E. Wilt, 2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need Arranged by year of release and then by title the filmography contains entries that include basic information film and translated title production company genre director cast a plot summary and additional information about the film Inclusion criteria a film must be a Mexican production or co production feature length one hour or more silent films excepted fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release

Nadludzki Bushi Xhindi, 2016-07-11 Ben Zolbarschy was never like other children The only son of a respected Jewish family in Poland he grew far faster than his peers and was soon as strong as a grown man By his third birthday he started behaving strangely He could hold his breath for ten minutes under water or stare down a wild wolf in the dead of night As he grew his powers became stronger and eventually took on a mind of their own When the Nazis arrested his parents imprisoning them in the Warsaw Ghetto he accepts that his gifts came to him for a reason Armed only with a black knife he embarks on a campaign to free his parents and get revenge on those who have destroyed his world His rage grows and the bodies of Nazis pile higher but his control over the voice in his head begins to slip As he journeys into the belly of the beast what was left of his boyhood disappears Nadludzki has come Set in the darkest hour of Europe's history this is a story of ragged determination of defiance in the face of evil and of fiery retribution <http://www.bushixhindi.com>

The Family Album Yeon-Soo Kim, 2005 This book is an examination of the use of the family album in contemporary Spanish culture Through the analysis of films narratives painting and a photographic exhibition produced from the end of

Franco's dictatorship to the present Kim interrogates how the family album serves as a critical instrument to reflect on the treatment of the past in contemporary Spain the recuperation of repressed identities nostalgia for collective memory symptomatic of the cultural discontent with the erosion of a national boundary due to globalization and the increasing claim of diversity and ethical concerns for immigration This study explores a broad range of works by canonical as well as less studied writers and artists including Juan Goytisolo Carlos Saura and Marta Balletbo Coll Yeon Soo Kim is Assistant Professor of Spanish at Rutgers University
