Absolute Recoil Slavoj Zizek,2015-10-06 A contemporary philosophical masterwork from one of the world s best known public intellectuals New York Review of Books Philosophical materialism in all its forms from scientific naturalism to Deleuzian New Materialism has failed to meet the key theoretical and political challenges of the modern world This is the burden of philosopher Slavoj i ek s argument in this pathbreaking and eclectic new work Recent history has seen developments such as quantum physics and Freudian psychoanalysis not to speak of the failure of twentieth century communism shake our understanding of existence In the process the dominant tradition in Western philosophy lost its moorings To bring materialism up to date i ek himself a committed materialist and communist proposes a radical revision of our intellectual heritage He argues that dialectical materialism is the only true philosophical inheritor of what Hegel designated the speculative approach in thought Absolute Recoil is a startling reformulation of the basis and possibilities of contemporary philosophy While focusing on how to overcome the transcendental approach without regressing to naïve pre-Kantian realism it offers a series of excursions into today's political, artistic, and ideological landscape from Arnold Schoenberg's music to the films of Ernst Lubitsch Red Parrot, Wooden Leg Gregorio Kohon, 2019-06-06 This book describes the adventures of two young writers set in the midst of political repression, anti-Semitism, and violence during the Latin American dictatorships of Brazil and Argentina in the 60s The End of Two Illusions Hamid Dabashi, 2022-04-19 Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity. In turn, Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India, China, Africa, Latin America, and the Islamic world. The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations. Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison, expose and overcome its perilous delusions, and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage Eugene O'Neill's Last Plays Doris Alexander, 2005 This study draws on research concerning the lives of Eugene O'Neill, his family, and his circle. It corrects and expands the biographical record on him and distinguishes the man and his life from the creations that were inspired by and drew on that life. Included are his attempted suicide, his tuberculosis, and his relationship with his parents Socialism Since 1889 James D. Young, 1988-01-01 This book is an analytical study of the history of modern socialism from 1889 when the Second International was founded up to the present. The biographical portraits of the individuals chosen in this study provide insight into important issues in socialist history. These contrasting studies of twenty prominent socialists, major thinkers and important activists or agitators, illuminate particular problems in the historical evolution of socialism. The book's final chapter offers a substantial analysis of developments in the post-war period and an exploration of the crises facing contemporary world socialism in all its guises.

Central European Democracy and its Background Rudolf Schlesinger, 2013-08-21 First published in 1998. This is volume IV of the library of Sociology, 18 volume series on Political Sociology. This book is concerned with a particular type of social organisation and a particular stage in the development of certain countries in central Europe The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth-Century Women Philosophers in the German Tradition Kristin Gjesdal, Dalia Nassar, 2024 This Oxford Handbook celebrates the work of trailblazing women in the history of modern philosophy. Through thirty-one original chapters, it engages with the work of women philosophers spanning the long nineteenth century in the German tradition and covers women's contribution to major philosophical movements including romanticism and idealism, socialism and Marxism, Nietzscheanism, feminism, phenomenology, and neo-Kantianism. It opens with a section on figures offering essays focused on fifteen thinkers in this tradition, before moving on to sections of essays on movement and topics. Across the volume's chapters, essays examine women's contributions to key philosophical areas such as epistemology and metaphysics.

History and Class Consciousness Georg Lukacs, 1972-11-15 This is the first time one of the most important of Luk cs early theoretical writings published in Germany in 1923 has been made available in English The book consists of a series of essays treating among other topics the definition of orthodox Marxism the question of legality and illegality Rosa Luxemburg as a Marxist the changing function of Historic Marxism class consciousness and the substantiation and consciousness of the Proletariat Writing in 1968 on the occasion of the appearance of his collected works Luk cs evaluated the influence of this book as follows For the historical effect of History and Class Consciousness and also for the actuality of the present time one problem is of decisive importance alienation which is here treated for the first time since Marx as the central question of a revolutionary critique of capitalism and whose historical as well as methodological origins are deeply rooted in Hegelian dialectic It goes without saying that the problem was omnipresent A few years after History and Class Consciousness was published it was moved into the focus of philosophical discussion by Heidegger in his Being and Time a place which it maintains to this day largely as a result of the position occupied by Sartre and his followers The philologic question raised by L Goldmann who considered Heidegger s work partly as a polemic reply to my admittedly unnamed work need not be discussed here It suffices today to say that the problem was in the air particularly if we analyze its background in detail in order to clarify its effect the mixture of Marxist and Existentialist thought processes which prevailed especially in France immediately after the Second World War In this connection priorities influences and so on are not particularly significant What is important is that the alienation of man was recognized and appreciated as the central problem of the time in which we live by bourgeois as well as proletarian by politically rightist and leftist thinkers Thus History and Class Consciousness exerted a profound effect in the circles of the youthful intelligentsia
