Sir Archibald Gordon Kinloch

Looking After Din:

Seeking After God Wayne Talbot, 2019-10-08 The author has a fascination with God His belief stems from an earlier study of science and logic concluding that a transcendent infinite entity is the most probable cause of our existence The same study convinced him that God is One and that he should ignore polytheistic religions in his search for understanding A study of the Quran revealed it to be a mixture of Jewish Christian and pagan beliefs and thus unlikely to be an authentic depiction of God A deeper study of Christian history the contradictions and implausible narratives in the New Testament and the Old Testament variances from the earlier Hebrew Scriptures convinced him to walk away from the Christianity of his earlier years All this he has written about in his previously published works Now he had but one choice to understand what Judaism has to say about God For this he sought the opinions of earlier Jewish scholars Maimonides Rabbi Ibn Ezra Hasdai Crescas and others and more modern commentators Hirsch Kook and most especially Rabbi Nathan Lopes Cardozo in the title of whose book Jewish Law in Rebellion he found a kindred spirit echoing his own rebellion against religions in general He considers religions to be too complacent believing that they already know the God Whom the Jews describe as Ein Sof the Infinite and Unknowable God The author contends that cannot truly know God agreeing with Maimonides that we can only describe God in terms of what He is not Thus his search continues believing that God knows the fallibility of the mankind He created and likely prefers that we seek without finding rather than in turn accept vicariously the perceptions of others who have not sought for themselves Indoctrination has its dangers whether in ideology politics or religion

Ernst, 1992-03-26 Ernst's research based on rare Persian manuscripts preserved in Sufi shrines in the medieval town of Khuldabad a major center of pilgrimage in the Indian Deccan reveals the mystical teachings and practices of the Chishti Sufi order as taught by the ecstatic Shaykh Burhan al Din Gharib d 1337 and his disciples The book clarifies the diverse historiographical approaches found in an array of narratives It redefines major topics in the often emotionally charged study of religion and history in South Asia and it raises provocative theses on much argued topics such as the basis of Islamic political power in South Asia and the alleged roles of Sufis as warriors and missionaries
