Clark, 2014-02-15 Teeming with convulsive energy raw brush strokes and Fauvist colors the paintings of Robert Qualters reflect the multifaceted and kinetic spirit of the artist himself In these pages the art historian Vicky A Clark presents the first in depth study of the art and life of this iconic Pittsburgh artist Complemented by over eighty color images Clark follows Qualters's development from early childhood sketches through his recent autobiographical work As she reveals Qualters is truly a quotidian raconteur who infuses allegory narrative and memory into his paintings of urban landscapes neighborhoods lunch counters and amusement parks Here we witness coming of age and sexuality economic hardship working class identities death and rebirth and many other themes both personal and universal As Clark shows Qualters's oeuvre is the culmination of a lifelong artistic journey recalling a host of influences from Japanese prints to Matisse Bruegel and Rembrandt Throughout his career and despite the popularity of his contemporaries many of whom adopted abstract painting Qualters has maintained a distinctly representational style keeping a close link to his audience through the power of visual storytelling      Saint Paul and Philosophy Gert Jan van der Heiden, George Henry van Kooten, Antonio Cimino, 2017-08-07 The much acclaimed present day philosophical turn to the letters of Saint Paul points to a profound consonance between ancient and modern thought Such is the bold claim of this study in which scholars from contemporary continental philosophy new testamentary studies and ancient philosophy discuss with each other the meaning Paul's terms pistis faith In this volume this theme discusses in detail the threefold relation between Paul and 1 continental thought 2 the Graeco Roman world and 3 political theology It is shown that pistis does not only concern a mode of knowing but rather concerns the human ethos or mode of existence as a whole Moreover it is shown that the present day political theological interest in Paul can be seen as an attempt to recuperate Paul's pistis in this comprehensive sense Finally an important discussion concerning the specific ontological implications and background of this reinterpretation of pistis is examined by comparing the ancient ontological commitments to those of the present day philosophers Thus the volume offers an insight in a crucial consonance of ancient and modern thought concerning the question of pistis in Paul while not forgetting to stipulate important differences      Thinking Women and Art in the Long Eighteenth Century Mechthild Fend, Jennifer Germann, Melissa Hyde, 2025-10-01 Thinking Women represents state of the art feminist scholarship in the field of eighteenth century French and British art and visual culture Topics range from women and their activities in art and science to gendered representations of childhood and animals to fashion femininity and temporality Some chapters center on individual genres like hunting portraits or on specific paintings such as David Martin s Portrait of Dido Elizabeth Belle and Lady Elizabeth Murray ca 1780 or Marie Guillemine Benoist s Portrait of a Young Black Woman Madeleine 1800 Others make contributions on the work of familiar actors like Jean Sim on Chardin or Elisabeth Louise Vig e Le Brun The volume also brings to the fore lesser known figures including Marie Th r se Reboul Madeleine Basseporte Marguerite Le Comte and Gabrielle Capet Written by eleven distinguished art historians the assembled essays engage with and honor the work of the late Mary D Sheriff whose unpublished chapter on women artists self portraiture opens the book      The Invention of the Self Andrew Spira, 2020-06-25 This book is an examination of personal identity exploring both who we think we are and how we construct the sense of ourselves through art It proposes that the notion of personal identity is a psycho social construction that has evolved over many centuries While this idea has been widely discussed in recent years Andrew Spira approaches it from a completely new point of view Rather than relying on the thinking subject s attempts to identify itself consciously and verbally it focuses on the traces that the self sense has unconsciously left in the fabric of its environment in the form of non verbal cultural conventions Covering a millennium of western European cultural history it amounts to an anthropology of personal identity in the West Following a broadly chronological path Spira traces the self sense from its emergence from the collectivity of the medieval Church to its consummation in the individualistic concept of artistic genius in the nineteenth century In doing so it aims to bridge a gap that exists between cultural history and philosophy Regarding cultural history especially art history it elicits significances from its material that have been thoroughly overlooked Regarding philosophy it highlights the crucial role that material culture plays in the formation of philosophical ideas It argues that the sense of personal self is as much revealed by cultural conventions and as a cultural convention as it is observable to the mind as an object of philosophical enquiry      The Road to McCarthy Pete McCarthy, 2024-01-17 Pete McCarthy established one cardinal rule of travel in his bestselling debut McCarthy s Bar Never pass a bar with your name on it In this equally wry and insightful follow up his characteristic good humor curiosity and thirst for adventure take him on a fantastic jaunt around the world in search of his Irish roots from Morocco where he tracks down the unlikely chief of the McCarthy clan to New York and finally to remote Mc Carthy Alaska The Road to McCarthy is a quixotic and anything but typical Irish odyssey that confirms Pete McCarthy s status as one of our funniest and most incisive writers      Word & Image in Colonial and Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures, 2009-01-01 Verbal imagery and visual images as well as the intricate relationships between verbal and visual representations have long shaped the imagination and the practice of intercultural relationships The contributions to this volume take a fresh look at the ideology of form especially the gendered and racial implications of the gaze and the voice in various media and intermedial transformations Analyses of how culturally specific forms of visual and verbal expression are individually understood and manipulated complement reflections on the potential and limitations of representation The juxtaposition of visual and verbal signifiers explores the gap between them as a space beyond cultural boundaries Topics treated include Caliban English satirical iconotexts Oriental travel writing and illustration expatriate description and picturesque illustration of Edinburgh ethnographic film African studio photography South African cartoons imagery ekphrasis and race in South African art and fiction face and visibility representation and memory in Asian fiction Bollywood Asian historical film Asian British pop music Australian landscape in painting and fiction indigenous children s fiction from Aotearoa New Zealand Canada and the USA Canadian photography Native Americans in film Writers and artists discussed include Philip Kwame Apagya the Asian Dub Foundation Breyten Breytenbach Richard Burton Peter Carey Gurinder Chadha Daniel Chodowiecki J M Coetzee Ashutosh Gowariker Patricia Grace W Greatbatch Hogarth Francis K Honny Jim Jarmusch Robyn Kahukiwa Seydou Keita Thomas King Vladyana Krykorka Alfred Kubin Michael Arvaarluk Kusugak Kathleen and Michael Lacapa L szl Lakner George Littlechild Ken Lum Franz Marc Zakes Mda Ketan Mehta M I A Maya Arulpragasam Timothy Mo William Kent Monkman Lady Mary Wortley Montagu John Hamilton Mortimer Sidney Nolan Jean Rouch Salman Rushdie William Shakespeare Robert Louis Stevenson Richard Van Camp Zapiro
