the publication in 1819 of Revealer of Secrets The novel tried to pass itself off as a hasidic holy book when it was in fact a broadside against Hasidism a parody of its teachings and of the language of its holy books The outraged hasidim responded by buying up and burning as many copies as they could Dov Taylor's careful translation and commentary make this classic of Hebrew literature available and accessible to the contemporary English speaking reader while preserving the integrity and bite of Perl's original With Hasidism presently enjoying a remarkable rebirth the issues in Revealer of Secrets are all the more relevant to those seeking to balance reason and faith As the first Hebrew novel the work will also be of great interest to students of modern Hebrew literature and modern Jewish history

shtetl through the eyes of three contemporaneous Jewish writers Karl Emil Franzos 1848 1904 Sholom Aleichem aka Sholom Rabinovitz 1859 1916 and Shmuel Yosef Agnon aka Samuel Josef Czaczkes 1888 1970 Israeli Mythogynies Esther Fuchs, 2012-02-01 This book is the first to systematically examine the representation of women by mainstream Hebrew authors from the Palmah Generation to the New Wave Fuchs unique analytical method exposes the male centered bias which often inspires the works of such prominent and widely translated authors as S Yizhar Moshe Shamir A B Yehoshua and Amos Oz She exposes both the continuities and the transformations in the literary representations of women and explains them in innovative ways grounded in aesthetic social political and cultural conditions and ideologies The bold and unexpected discoveries offered by this book illuminate the complex ways in which Israel s political predicaments for example affect the representation of women as well as the various ways in which Israeli literature uses female images to express the anxiety and frustration arising from these predicaments This pioneering study will be invaluable to feminist literary critics scholars and teachers and students of modern Hebrew literature The Contemporary Middle Eastern Scene Gustav Stein, Gustav Steinbach, 2012-12-06 The contributions to this volume are based on papers read at an international conference held in Hamburg in May 1978 Some of them are reprinted in their original form others have been slightly modified in order to incorporate more recent findings Since the overall concern is Middle Eastern development the various contributions deal with a wide range of problems Studies on the Middle East are more often than not one sided because of the pre dominating interest in the Arab Israeli conflict and the economic factors relating to the supply of oil At the Hamburg Conference however the participants concentrated mainly on examining such aspects of the situation as are far too often relegated to the sidelines In order to illustrate what those neglected topics are one should refer to two major examples 1 the religious cultural identity of Arabs and Israelis 2 the tackling of political issues in Arab and Israeli literature
