Make Believe Media The Politics Of Entertainment:

Make-believe Media Michael Parenti,1992 Shows how America s media actually promote the ideals of the economic and political forces that control them and alter the way America views history politics race gender and class The Depiction of Terrorists in Blockbuster Hollywood Films, 1980-2001 Helena Vanhala,2014-01-10 This book examines how American foreign policy and the commercial film industry s economic interests influenced the portrayal of international terrorism in Hollywood blockbuster films from the time of the Iran hostage crisis to the 9 11 terrorist attacks Part I provides a historical overview of modern international terrorism and how it relates to the United States its news media and its film industry Part II covers depictions of terrorism during the Cold War under President Reagan including films like Commando and Iron Eagle Part III covers the Hollywood terrorist after the Cold War including European terrorists in the Die Hard franchise Passenger 57 Patriot Games Blown Away The Jackal and Ronin fundamentalist Islamic terrorists in True Lies and Executive Decision the return of the communist threat in Air Force One and 9 11 foreshadowing in The Siege Politics of Fear Manuel G. Gonzales,Richard Delgado,2015-12-03 Lucidly written widely informed and uncompromisingly honest a valuable expose Michael Parenti Documents the stunning success of a network of wealthy donors and corporations in creating and sustaining a set of think tanks legal action groups and media strategies Gary Orfield Harvard University What explains the electoral success of Republicans particularly of the ascendant neoconservatives who now dominate the Party Based on a thorough and up to date examination of the New Right over twenty five years The Politics of Fear proposes some provocative answers including globalization new technologies and a far reaching network of right wing think tanks and foundations As the authors show all have opened the doors to a new politics of fear successfully waged by the neoconservatives By manipulating insecurity the New Right has created an extraordinarily successful populist conservative movement Utilizing extensive documentation the authors argue convincingly that the fear of immigrants and racial minorities has served as the most effective tactic in the GOP arsenal while their approach also implicates gays feminists and terrorists The book explains why Americans have willingly supported a party that promises them security just as it delivers greater economic and political insecurity The authors argue that despite their striking political successes neoconservatives have delivered to voters a set of policies harmful to working Americans in the way of regressive tax measures military exploits tort reform deregulation and environmental destruction The Politics of Persuasion Anthony R. DiMaggio,2017-02-21 Tracking the effects of media content on the public is a difficult endeavor and media effects vary on a subject to subject basis To address this challenge The Politics of Persuasion employs a multifaceted mixed method approach to studying mass media and public attitudes Anthony R DiMaggio analyzes more than a dozen case studies covering US domestic economic policy and examines a wide range of theories of how bias operates in mass media with regard to coverage of these issues While some research claims that journalists are overly negative and biased against government officials some reveals that journalists favor citizens groups Still other studies contend there is a liberal bias in the media a progovernment bias or a bias in favor of advertisers and business interests Through his analysis DiMaggio is the first to systematically examine all of these competing interpretations He concludes that reporters tailor stories to corporate and government interests but argues that the ability to manufacture consent from the public in favor of these elite views is far from guaranteed According to DiMaggio citizens often make use of their own personal experiences and prior attitudes to challenge official narratives Electronic Media Criticism Peter B. Orlik,2008-11-19 Electronic Media Criticism introduces readers to a variety of critical approaches to audio and video discourse on radio television and the Internet The book applies key aesthetic sociological philosophical psychological structural and economic principles to arrive at a comprehensive evaluation of both programming and advertising content It includes numerous critiques to illustrate the ways in which critical expression can be structured providing readers with feasible and flexible tools for focused and rational analysis of electronic media product as well as enhanced understanding of the role and essential ingredients of criticism itself These insights range from the perceptions of Plato and Aristotle to the research that motivates twenty first century marketing and advertising A Theology of Liberation and Reparations Rev. Dr. Herbert Daughtry,2024-04-05 Book A Theology of Liberation and Reparations by Rev Dr Herbert Daughtry Sr is a powerful and thought provoking work that explores the intersection of religion social justice and reparations for past wrongs With insightful analysis and a deep understanding of the historical and cultural forces that have shaped our society Reverend Daughtry makes a compelling case for the urgent need for reparations as a means of healing the wounds of systemic oppression and achieving true liberation This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the intersection of faith and social justice and a call to action for all who seek a more just and equitable society Censored 2005 Peter Phillips,Project Censored,2011-01-04 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone,1996 Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress This work makes the television researcher s job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood Media Criticism in a Digital

Age Peter B. Orlik, 2015-07-24 Media Criticism in a Digital Age introduces readers to a variety of critical approaches to audio and video discourse on radio television and the Internet It is intended for those preparing for electronic media careers as well as for anyone seeking to enhance their media literacy This book takes the unequivocal view that the material heard and seen over digital media is worthy of serious consideration Media Criticism in a Digital Age applies key aesthetic sociological philosophical psychological structural and economic principles to arrive at a comprehensive evaluation of programming and advertising content It offers a rich blend of insights from both industry and academic authorities These insights range from the observations of Plato and Aristotle to the research that motivates twenty first century marketing and advertising Key features of the book are comprised of multiple video examples including commercials cartoons and custom graphics to illustrate core critical concepts chapters reflecting today s media world including coverage of broadband and social media issues fifty perceptive critiques penned by a variety of widely respected media observers and a supplementary website for professors that provides suggested exercises to accompany each chapter www.routledge.com/cw/orlik Media Criticism in a Digital Age equips emerging media professionals as well as perceptive consumers with the evaluative tools to maximize their media understanding and enjoyment

Controlling Broadcasting Meryl Aldridge, Nicholas Hewitt, 1994 This text assesses the transformation of broadcasting currently taking place in Europe where deregulation coupled with advances in satellite cable and video technology promises consumer choice on an American scale

Politics in Popular Movies John S. Nelson, 2015-10-23 Popular movies can be surprisingly smart about politics from the portentous politics of state or war to the grassroots everyday politics of family romance business church and school Politics in Popular Movies analyses the politics in many well known films across four popular genres horror war thriller and science fiction The book s aims are to appreciate specific movies and their shared forms to understand their political engagements and to provoke some insightful conversations The means are loosely related film takes that venture ambitious playful and engaging arguments on political styles encouraged by recent films Politics in Popular Movies shows how conspiracy films expose oppressive systems it explores how various thrillers prefigured American experiences of 9 11 and shaped aspects of the War on Terror how some horror films embrace new media while others use ultra violence to spur political action it argues that a popular genre is emerging to examine non linear politics of globalisation terrorism and more Finally it analyses the ways in which sci fi movies reflect populist politics from the Occupy and Tea Party movements rethink the political foundations of current societies and even remake our cultural images of the future

Media Across the African Diaspora Omotayo O. Banjo, 2018-07-04 This volume gathers scholarship from varying disciplinary perspectives to explore media owned or created by members of the African diaspora examine its relationship with diasporic audiences and consider its impact on mainstream culture in general Contributors highlight creations and contributions of people of the African diaspora the interconnections of Black American and African centered media and the experiences of audiences and users across the African diaspora positioning members of the Black and African Diaspora as subjects of their own narratives active participants and creators In so doing this volume addresses issues of identity culture audiences and global influence Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Political Rhetoric Mary E. Stuckey, 2017-07-12 Rhetoric is among the most important and least understood elements of presidential leadership Presidents have always wielded rhetoric as one tool of governance and that rhetoric was always intended to facilitate political ends such as image building persuasion of the mass public and inter branch government persuasion But as mass media has grown and then fragmented as the federal bureaucracy has continued to both expand and calcify and as partisanship has heightened tensions both within Congress and between Congress and the Executive rhetoric is an increasingly important element of presidential governance Scholars have derived ways to explain how these developments and the presidents use of rhetoric have contributed to and detracted from the health of American democracy This briefing book offers a succinct reflection on the ways in which historical developments have encouraged the use of political rhetoric It explores strategies of going public to provide some leverage over the political system and the lessons one might derive from these choices This essential analysis written for lay readers scholars students and future presidents is the first in Transaction's innovative Presidential Briefings series Mary E Stuckey covers the scholarly literature with authority and offers examples of rhetoric that have lasting influence

Making Trouble Jeff Ferrell, 2017-09-04 In Making Trouble leading scholars in criminology sociology criminal justice women's studies and social history explore the mediated cultural dynamics that construct images and understanding of crime deviance and control Contributors examine the intertwined practices of the mass media criminal justice agencies political power holders and criminal and deviant subcultures in producing and consuming contested representations of legality and illegality While the collection provides broad analysis of contemporary topics it also weaves this analysis around a set of innovative and unifying themes These include the emergence of situated media within and between the various subcultures of crime deviance and control the evolution of policing and social control as complex webs of mediated and symbolic meaning the role of power identity and indifference in framing contemporary crime controversies with special attention paid to the gendered construction of crime deviance and control and the importance of historical and cross cultural dynamics in shaping understandings of crime deviance and control

Formations Dan Fleming, Henry A. Giroux, Lawrence Grossberg, 2000 Formations is a comprehensive textbook designed for students moving to a deeper engagement with the media studies The original essays are organized around the broad themes of public knowledge cultural identity broadcasting film and pop tech An introductory section explores the fundamentals of the field and a section on method examines how knowledge is constructed within media studies Throughout the material is structured into a combination of case studies and integrative essays punctuated at key moments by stop and think advice aimed directly at students With contributions well known scholars Formations offers a deep engagement with issues theories and methods especially new technologies transforming landscapes of popular culture      Representations of Black Women in the Media Marquita Marie Gammage,2015-10-16 In 1920 W E B Du Bois cited the damnation of women as linked to the devaluation of motherhood This dilemma he argues had a crushing blow on Black women as they were forced into slavery Black womanhood portrayed as hypersexual by nature became an enduring stereotype which did not coincide with the dignity of mother and wife This portrayal continues to reinforce negative stereotypes of Black women in the media today This book highlights how Black women have been negatively portrayed in the media focusing on the export nature of media and its ability to convey notions of Blackness to the public It argues that media such as rap music videos television dramas reality television shows and newscasts create and affect expectations of Black women Exploring the role that racism misogyny and media play in the representation of Black womanhood it provides a foundation for challenging contemporary media s portrayal of Black women      The Social Studies Curriculum, Fifth Edition E. Wayne Ross,2024-09-01 The Social Studies Curriculum Fifth Edition updates the definitive overview of the issues teachers face when creating learning experiences for students in social studies Renowned for connecting diverse elements of the social studies curriculum from history to cultural studies to contemporary social issues the book offers a unique and critical perspective that continues to separate it from other texts The social studies curriculum is contested terrain both epistemologically and politically Completely updated and revised the fifth edition includes fourteen new chapters and covers the politics of the social studies curriculum questions of historical perspective Black education and critical race theory whiteness and anti racism decolonial literacy and decolonizing the curriculum gender and sexuality Islamophobia critical media literacy evil in social studies economics education anarchism children s rights and Earth democracy and citizenship education Readers are encouraged to reconsider their assumptions and understandings of the purposes nature and possibilities of the social studies curriculum      Politics and Film Daniel P. Franklin,2016-07-18 Politics and Film examines popular movies and television shows as indicators of social and political trends to explore the political culture of the United States Updated to include the popular and controversial movies and shows American Sniper House of Cards Orange Is the New Black and Twelve Years a Slave the second edition investigates popular conceptions of government the military intelligence and terrorism punishment and policing providing valuable insights for students of film and American politics alike      Barack Obama and Twenty-First-Century Politics Horace G. Campbell,2010-08-06 Barack Obama has been called a transformative and transcendental political figure this book shows us just how significant the movement behind him was in reshaping the politics of the United States Horace Campbell examines the networks that made the 2009 electoral victory possible and discusses the importance of self organization and self emancipation in politics Developing a theory of politics that starts with the humanist principles of Ubuntu and draws in ecological spiritual anti racist and anti sexist principles Campbell suggests we move away from old forms of vanguardism reconceptualising political organisation and recognising that new social forces are at play      Organizing the Curriculum ,2019-02-11 Contemporary American youth live in a culture that ignores or denigrates labor unions Mainstream media cover labor issues only sparingly and unions no longer play much of a role in popular culture texts films or images In our schools labor has been limited to a footnote in textbooks instead of being treated seriously as the most effective force for championing the rights of working people the vast majority of the citizenry Teachers have been convinced that to bring up class or to teach about the labor movement may be construed as taking sides while the all pervasive presence of corporate America in our schools is rarely questioned So for all the talk of schools preparing young people for the work world we are failing to teach them even the basics of how that world is structured or how they can be empowered through collective action Organizing the Curriculum Perspectives on Teaching the US Labor Movement is the first book length treatment of this blind spot in contemporary curriculum and pedagogy Contributors to this collection unionists activists teachers teacher educators and academics interrogate the ways in which knowledge is constructed in school discourses conceptualize pedagogical strategies and curricula that open discussions around class analysis and political economy via studies of the labor movement and put forward an activist vision of education that truly engages young people beyond the classroom walls
