Makers Of Nineteenth Century Culture 1800 1914:

Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture, 1800-1914 Justin Wintle,1982 Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture Justin Wintle Esq,Justin Wintle,2021-12-24 This volume provides a critical examination of the lives and works of the leading novelists poets dramatists artists philosophers social thinkers mathematicians and scientists of the period The subjects are assessed in the light of their cultural importance and each entry is deliberately interpretative making this work both an essential reference tool and an engaging collection of essays Figures covered include Marx Wagner Darwin Malthus Balzac Jane Austen Nietzsche Babbage Edgar Allan Poe Ruskin Schleiermacher Herbert Spencer Harriet Martineau and Oscar Wilde

Themes in Modern European History 1830-1890 Bruce Waller,2002-09-11 Providing a series of lively essays which reflect the skills that historians have to master when challenged by problems of evidence interpretation and presentation this important new text covers the topics of France Germany Italy Austria and Russia as well as analyzing the themes of political thought cultural trends the economy and warfare international relations and imperialism Six distinguished scholars all of whom are regularly involved in student teaching provide an authoritative student guide to the main contours of nineteenth century European history when the continent s standing was at its highest and its influence spanned the globe The Transformation of Theology, 1830-1890 Charles D. Cashdollar,2014-07-14 Charles Cashdollar reinterprets nineteenth century British and American Protestant thought by identifying positivism as the central intellectual issue of the era Positivism meant at first the ideas of the French thinker Auguste Comte later in the century the term indicated a more general opposition to supernatural religion Cashdollar shows that contemporary thinkers recognized positivism at each of these stages as the most fundamental of the proliferating challenges to religious belief He further reveals how the encounter with positivism altered Protestant orthodoxy in both subtle and radical ways Positivists denied that humans could know anything other than physical phenomena Declaring many orthodox beliefs archaic they proposed a new ethically based vision of service to humanity After portraying the dissemination of these positions among British and American Protestants the author explains how each of several groups reacted A few theologians rejected positivism outright but many more responded by recasting their own beliefs The implications of this story of change extend to such topics as Darwinism Biblical criticism the rise of the social sciences theological liberalism and the Social Gospel the beginnings of fundamentalism and the twentieth century debate about creationism and science Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Nihilism of Thomas Bernhard Charles W. Martin,2023-12-18 This study examines the nihilistic basis of Bernhard s writing and traces developments in the author's nihilistic stance throughout his career In the first period of his prose fiction 1963-1975 nihilism is reluctantly accepted by Bernhard's fictional characters as a necessary response to a world perceived as meaningless Various possible sources of transcendence are explored and rejected The autobiographical texts 1975-1982 then represent a sustained attempt by the author himself to transcend his own essentially nihilistic state The apparent success of this attempt is quickly revealed to be illusory in the prose fiction of the second period 1978-1986 and it becomes apparent that nihilism is a no less necessary response to Austrian social reality than to the more purely personal problems which first motivated Bernhard's writing

Neo-/Victorian Biographilia and James Miranda Barry Ann Heilmann, 2018-06-27 Senior colonial officer from 1813 to 1859 Inspector General James Barry was a pioneering medical reformer who after his death in 1865 became the object of intense speculation when rumours arose about his sex This cultural history of Barry's afterlives in Victorian to contemporary neo-Victorian life writing biographilia examines the textual and performative strategies of biography biofiction and biodrama of the last one and a half centuries In exploring the varied reconstructions and reimaginings of the historical personality across time the book illustrates not least with its cover image that the real James Barry does not exist any more than does the faithful biographical biofictional or biodramatic rendering of a life in a generically stable and discrete form What Barry represents and how he is represented invariably pinpoints the imaginative the speculative and the performative reflections and refractions in the looking glass of genre Just as James Miranda Barry as a subject of cultural inquiry comes into being and remains in view in the act of crossing gender so neo-Victorian life writing constitutes itself through similar acts of boundary transgression Transgender thus finds its most typical expression in transgenre

Managing Our Margins Kimberly A. Reed, 2013-10-31 Many women seek to achieve greater control over their working lives by making a transition to entrepreneurship and as a result must negotiate gender norms and gender-related expectations in both business and personal relationships Based on interviews with women in the New Jersey suburbs this book explores the range of uncertainties and practical dilemmas independent businesswomen face today living scientists many of whom provide insights into their lives and scientific times Those contributions plus additional previously unavailable material make this a volume of unprecedented scope and richness Themes in Modern European History, 1890-1945 Nicholas Atkin, Michael Biddiss, 2008-11-26 Themes in Modern European History 1890 1945 brings together an international team of scholars to address an eclectic range of developments and issues in European history in the period between 1890 and the end of the Second World War This lively collection of essays adopts a thematic approach in order to explore comprehensively a period of great change and upheaval in Europe Concentrating on the main powers in Europe from Germany Italy and Russia to the UK and France the book links together developments in society the economy politics and culture and establishes them in their political framework Specially commissioned chapters discuss key issues such as popular culture the relationship between East and West intellectual and cultural trends the origins and impact of two world wars communism dictatorship and liberal democracy the relationship of Europe with the wider world Including a chronology maps and a glossary as well as suggestions for further reading this comprehensive volume is an invaluable and authoritative resource for students of modern European history Creational Theology and the History of Physical Science: The Creationist Tradition from Basil to Bohr Christopher B. Kaiser, 2021-12-06 This volume documents the role of creational theology in discussions of natural philosophy medicine and technology from the Hellenistic period to the early twentieth century Four principal themes are the comprehensibility of the world the unity of heaven and earth the relative autonomy of nature and the ministry of healing Successive chapters focus on Greco Roman science medieval Aristotelianism early modern science the heritage of Isaac Newton and post Newtonian mechanics The volume will interest historians of science and historians of the idea of creation It simultaneously details the persistence of tradition and the emergence of modernity and provides the historical background for later discussions of creation and evolution C. R. Mackintosh David Brett, 2004-04-02 Between 1896 and 1906 Charles Rennie Mackintosh 1868 1928 produced a series of buildings and interiors in and around Glasgow of such startling invention that he immediately established himself as one of the truly great figures in early twentieth century architecture and design David Brett argues that Mackintosh's originality was grounded in a highly subjective poetics of workmanship in which the structure features interiors and furnishings of each individual building became subject to a unifying system of forms metaphors and unconscious associations The system Mackintosh evolved allowing for the formulation of an almost infinite series of ensembles After focusing on the various decorative details and interior spaces of Mackintosh's buildings the author reaches to the heart of Mackintosh's poetic system the suffused eroticism of the sleek feminine and intensely private white interiors A notable feature of this persuasive reappraisal of Mackintosh's work is the wealth of photographs by the author showing rarely featured details of buildings interiors and furnishings Themes in Modern European History 1890-1945 Paul Hayes, 1992 Dictionary Of British And Irish Botanists And Horticulturalists Including plant collectors, flower painters and garden designers Ray

Desmond,2020-12-23 Over the past four centuries botanists and gardeners in the British Isles have gathered maintained and propagated many varying species of plants Their work has been documented in innumerable books and articles which are often difficult to trace The Dictionary of British and Irish Botanists and Horticulturalists represents a time saving reference source for those who wish to discover more about the lives and achievements of the horticulturalists listed The dictionary s utility comes not only from indicating the major publications of the named authors but also the location of their herbaria and manuscripts The previous 1977 edition of the Dictionary has for many years been a much used source of information for botanists botanic artists and archivists In this revised edition the scope has been expanded to include among its 13 000 entries flower painters in addition to botanical artists over 1400 entries and for the first time garden designers Finally the Dictionary should have international appeal since so many botanists and gardeners worked on collective plants overseas in particular in North America and the British Commonwealth Each entry gives wherever possible details of dates and places of birth and death educational qualifications professional posts honours and awards publications location of plant collections manuscripts drawings and portraits Its main function however is to provide further biographical references to books and periodicals Comprehensive classified indices facilitate access by professions and activities countries and plant interests
