The Making of a Mystic in the Twenty-First Century Carol E. Parrish-Harra, 2014-08-06 There are three major ways to follow the spiritual path slow fast and the Bardo Most people are familiar with gradual awakening by using discipline and purification practices to cleanse one's self of emotional and behavioral conditioning Then there are others who awaken suddenly perhaps through a near death or out of body experience and they find themselves seeing and feeling in new ways about everything including their own subconscious the Bardo realm To become a mystic however is a step further as it involves both an inner commitment to spiritual growth in one's daily life as well as a deeper initiation into the mysteries of one's mind The author Carol Parrish Harra is a trusted master in helping train and guide those individuals who seek to grow in their inner life in both the pain and the ecstasy In The Making of a Mystic she shares age old wisdom gleaned from previous generations and adds a wealth of personal experience gained from living a mystical life in our modern world The Making of a Mystic A Twenty first Century Mystic Speaks by Carol E Parrish Harra offers an excellent introduction to the path of mysticism by someone who has not only studied deeply but has had deep mystical experiences herself As she writes Our real heartfelt desire is to be in the Presence This book describes her quest to bring this heartfelt desire to realization It is an inspiring work for travelers on the path Robert Powell PhD co founder of the Sophia Foundation and author of The Sophia Teachings The Most Holy Trinosophia The Mystery Destiny and Biography of Mary Magdalene and other works Carol Parrish Harra is a dynamic spiritual trailblazer and a real visionary Her spiritual path is a living synthesis of multiple strands of living wisdom and her story is a document of great importance As a modern Mystic she is a source of evolutionary inspiration and spiritual renewal and I warmly recommend the book Soren Hauge Spiritual Teacher Counsellor and Author www.sorenhauge.com The Making of a Mystic is what I would like all newcomers to the field of spiritual Esoterics and Mysticism to read Carol Parrish gives easy to read descriptions of some essential Do's and Don'ts from her personal experience and warns of several traps that can befall the advanced student A gentle but firm entry into this vast subject Archbishop Frank Bugge Australian Church of Antioch Malibar Rite The Making of a Mystic is the culmination of forty years searching finding and sharing insights into higher reality Carol Parrish has inspired generations of students and her new book written in the straightforward compelling style that is her hallmark is a must read for all on the Path John F Nash PhD author of The Soul and Its Destiny and The Sacramental Church The Making of a Mystic: My Journey With Mushrooms, My Life as a Pastor, and Why It's Okay for Everyone to Relax Kevin Sweeney, 2022-05-31 There is an increasing interest in the mystics contemplative faith and what it feels like in real life We have teachers who can explain the path and help us understand but we need guides who have experienced the path and who can show us how it unfolds This is what The Making of a Mystic is all about The Making of a Mystic (Classic Reprint) Aelfrida Tillyard, 2017-11-24 Excerpt from The Making of a Mystic In the Lent terms of the years 1915 1916 and 1917 I delivered courses of Lectures at Cambridge on Spiritual Exercises and their Psychological Results The Development of the Religious Consciousness in East and West and The Practice of Mysticism These lectures which were given in the Psychological lecture room were purely academic They brought me into contact however with a number of people whose interest in mysticism and in the spiritual experience and methods of meditation of saints of all religions was not merely that of the scholar I found myself being constantly asked for advice by men and women who wished to become pilgrims on the mystic way and who felt the need for intense religious experience without having any opportunity for practising the austerities of the contemplative life I myself as I had better confess quite frankly am a mystic in so far as I find the world of spiritual experience more real than the material world and look on our union with God as the aim of humanity And though I agree with Dr Rendel Harris that those people who talk of undertaking the guidance of souls are both dangerous and impertinent I could not avoid giving these seekers after truth such help as was within my power which was little enough of course About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Making of a Mystic Paddy Fievet, 2014

The Making of a Mystic Helen R. Bakkensen, 1992 Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become George Matheson and Mysticism--A Biographical Study Scott S. Tillyard,2016-08-29 A Meeting with God Mike Ward,2013-02-04 This book is my true recollection of the events leading up to the Mystical experience that i had in february of 1993 Immediately after my Spiritual Pilgrimage to the holy shrines on mount Carmel Israel The world centre of the Bahai Faith My experience was so intense that it took me over a year to recover a sense of normality and be able to return to my work as a contact design draughtsman to support my family I had been a Bahai fo ten years prior to this but i did not know the reality of Faith that i had been investigating at all i was just aware of the iceing on the cake a Religion that seemed to tick all the right boxes and had the ingredients to appeal to a wide percentage of Mankind Until i visited the tombs of the Prophets on Mount Carmel and abzorbed a lions share of that Holy spirit latent witin that Sacred place which soon led to a full mystical union with God as the spirit of Baha u llah here on earth I believe that i was chosen for that experience because the Spirit knew that i would one day reveal the full details of His power to the world and publish the experience for all to read as a book and on the world wide web So here you all are read and be inspired and may God bless you all Michael The Making of a Mystic Aelfrida Catharine Wetenhall
