Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1990 Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001, 2001 The Practitioner's Guide to Working with Families Margaret Bell, Kate Wilson, 2017-03-14 This book offers a clear and coherent guide to working with families for practitioners and students in social work health counselling and related professions It brings together recent thinking on the historical and contemporary constructions of the family in such a way as to provide a helpful framework for practitioners working in a variety of settings in the field It offers up to date information on political legislative and theoretical frameworks and it reviews and illustrates a wide range of approaches and practice skills for working with families with different problems in different contexts Family Therapy in Changing Times Gill Gorell Barnes, 2017-03-14 The new edition of this well known text addresses the plurality of family life today and considers the way in which the changeable theory of family has influenced the approaches of those working with families The emphasis in this 2nd edition is on working in a context of cultural diversity and in which life transitions such as marriage divorce and bereavement affect the lives of all families be they multi or lone parent gay or heterosexual This is an essential text for therapists and counsellors both in training and in practice who work with families Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1998 Feminist Interpretation Luise Schottroff, Silvia Schroer, Marie-Theres Wacker, 1998 In the hundred years since The Women s Bible giant strides have been made in feminist interpretation of the Bible Now comes the first comprehensive overview of the whole field The authors systematically recount those efforts to describe the story of women in both testaments to uncover tendencies not supportive of women and to describe biblical traditions that empower women The book unfolds in three parts Historical Hermeneutical and Methodological Foundations Toward a Feminist Reconstruction of the History of Israel Toward a Feminist Reconstruction of Early Christianity Midrashic Women Judith R. Baskin, 2015-05-01 While most gender based analyses of rabbinic Judaism concentrate on the status of women in the halakhah the rabbinic legal tradition Judith R Baskin turns her attention to the construction of women in the aggadic midrash a collection of expansions of the biblical text rabbinic ruminations and homiletical discourses that constitutes the non legal component of rabbinic literature Examining rabbinic convictions of female alterity competing narratives of creation and justifications of female disadvantages as well as aggadic understandings of the ideal wife the dilemma of infertility and women among women and as individuals she shows that rabbinic Judaism a tradition formed by men for a male community deeply valued the essential contributions of wives and mothers while also consciously constructing women as other and lesser than men Recent feminist scholarship has illuminated many aspects of the significance of gender in biblical and halakhic texts but there has been little previous study of how aggadic literature portrays females and the feminine Such representations Baskin argues often offer a more nuanced and complex view of women and their actual lives than the rigorous proscriptions of legal discourse Resources in Education, 1997 Literary News, 1894 Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1895 Breaking Free of Managed Care Dana C.
