Not Just Talking Sioban Boyce, 2017-07-12. This innovative approach to dealing with communication difficulties was devised by the author following encounters with increased numbers of children who had learned to talk but still were unable to communicate effectively. This new theory of communication development, devised in the late 1990s, has been successfully used by the author and a wide range of educators and promotes the good use of non-verbal skills in children. This programme changes the lives of the children in the family and at school who benefit from it. The book will look at Non-verbal communication theory, Normal and disordered development, Problems arising, behaviour, social skills, emotions, education in the family, Prevention, Assessment and Intervention. Generally, those children with poor non-verbal skill development will have limited ability to communicate effectively in all situations and may even be shut down, i.e. not attempting to communicate unless they choose to. This flagship book provides a whole new perspective and presents a concrete alternative approach to tackling the fundamentals from which communication difficulties arise. How to Make Friends Ruth MacConville, 2008-08-07. Includes CD Rom. Pupils are rarely taught the principles of effective co-operation although being able to work effectively as part of a group is critical in all contexts, school life and work. The book is based on the author's practical experience of running the programme in schools and is underpinned by research into the development of pro-social behaviour and friendship skills. The 26 sessions are arranged in the sequence of the alphabet from Attitude to the Zest for life. In each session there is a poster and a take-away activity as well as full facilitator's notes for whole class introduction, pair and share tasks and a plenary. A unique feature of the programme is that it addresses the development of non-verbal communication, the ability to read social cues. The sessions raise awareness and understanding of the interpersonal skills necessary for friendships including communication and co-operation. The teaching sessions cover topics such as Reciprocity, Commitment, Giving and sharing, Trust, Specific thinking skills. The programme is intended for whole class work but would also be suitable for small groups. The Heart of the Preteen Pasquale De Marco, Welcome to The Heart of the Preteen, the essential guide for preteens navigating the ups and downs of this transformative time in their lives.
