Making Of A Pastoral Person:

The Making of a Pastoral Person Gerald R. Niklas,1981      The Disciple-Making Pastor Bill Hull,2007-10-01 Christ commanded the church to make disciples to produce people who love and obey God bear fruit and live with joy The crisis at the heart of the church is that we often pay lip service to making disciples but we seldom put much effort behind doing it For the pastor who is ready to put words into action The Disciple Making Pastor offers the inspiration and practical know how to do so Bill Hull shows pastors the obstacles they will face what disciples really look like the pastor s role in producing them and the practices that lead to positive change He also offers a six step coaching process to help new disciples grow in commitment and obedience and practical ideas to integrate disciple making into the fabric of the church      Make or Break Your Church in 365 Days Rev. Paul D. Borden,2012-04-01 The joy of ministry is lost in the terror of being ill equipped for daily tasks This book leads the way providing clear plans for the daily tasks of effectively leading a congregation Make or Break Your Church in 365 Days helps pastors develop competency in the daily task of leading congregations by answering two fundamental questions What must be done in the first 365 days of a pastor s tenure What is the optimal way to structure a daily work life to affect change in the first year and beyond These very specific tasks are the behaviors that demonstrate competency and lead to growing effective churches      Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard Clinebell,2011-08-01 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish      A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen,2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn t that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people s attention because the digital world is built on attention whatever will get likes or drive outrage However pastoral preaching builds community It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place      Pastoral Ministry Dag Heward-Mills,2011 Discover the keys strategies and principles for successful and effective pastoral work Invaluable tips for training laity to perform priestly functions Understanding that the presence and power of God is the key to doing great works for God Concise instructions on how to receive an anointing Helpful hints on how to make advancements in Ministry Insightful instructions for the personal development of a pastor One night while studying in a remote town of Ghana God miraculously anointed Dag Heward Mills as he waited upon the Lord He supernaturally heard the words From now on you can teach This supernatural call is what has ushered him into a worldwide ministry Today his Healing Jesus Crusades are conducted throughout the world with thousands in attendance and many accompanying miracles These phenomenal miracles attested to by medical doctors have included the opening of the eyes of the blind the restoring of hearing to the deaf the emptying of wheel chairs and even the raising of the dead Dag Heward Mills an author of several bestselling books also founded the Lighthouse Chapel International has become a worldwide denomination His radio TV and internet programs reach millions around the world Other outreaches include pastors and ministers conferences and the renowned Anagkazo Bible and Ministry Training Center Dag Heward Mills lives in Accra Ghana with his wife Adelaide and their four children David Joshua Daniella and Paula

Seeking the Lost, Keeping Them, Making Them Disciples Dr. Benoit Petit-Homme, 2018-08-27 Seeking the Lost Keeping Them Making Them Disciples By Dr Benoit Petit Homme God bless Dr Benoit Petit Homme for all the work he has done in putting this book together I believe that any church or leader who will follow these biblically grounded principles will see beautiful results in changed lives for the kingdom Teresa L Reeve PhD Associate Dean Seventh day Adventist Theological Seminary Associate Professor of New Testament Contexts Andrews University United States of America Dr Benoit Petit Homme's contribution to the discipleship crisis is a compelling re examination of scripture church history and 21st century pastoral experience Practical and convincing his straightforward style brings real solutions to the evangelistic Achilles heels of attrition He reminds us of what has been forgotten and calls us back to our relational roots Pr Ron Kelly Senior Pastor Village Seventh day Adventist Church Berrien Springs Michigan United States of America Seeking the Lost Keeping Them Making Them Disciples by Dr Benoit Petit Homme is a handy Christ based discipleship resource that will contribute to the mission of training and equipping church ministry leaders in the evangelistic work of reaping retaining and nurturing new believing Christians This is a must read for church officers pastors and ministry directors in the Christian church Ron C Smith PhD D Min President Southern Union Conference of SDA Every year many thousands of people hear the Good News of Jesus Christ and choose to be baptized and join a church community Unfortunately it is also true that every year many new converts leave a church relatively shortly after joining The specific reasons that each person leaves the church could fill a book by themselves but they all boil down to one thing a lack of focus on the part of the church community on turning converts into disciples of our Savior A disciple of Christ does more than attend church services A disciple is an active member of the church community A disciple is a witness to others A disciple seeks to grow the church by seeking to lead everyone they meet to Christ Dr Benoit Petit Homme is a committed disciple of Christ and after extensive study of exactly why new converts leave the church he has developed a process by which any church can make disciples All it takes is a little extra work a bit of encouragement and an unwavering faith in the Lord

Conversion and Discipleship Bill Hull, 2016-01-12 Discipleship occurs when someone answers the call to learn from Jesus how to live his or her life as though Jesus were living it The end result is that the disciple becomes the kind of person who naturally does what Jesus did How the church understands salvation and the gospel is the key to recovering a biblical theology of discipleship Our doctrines of grace and salvation in some cases actually prevent us from creating an expectation that we are to be disciples of Jesus A person can profess to be a Christian and yet still live under the impression that they don t need to actually follow Jesus Being a follower is seen as an optional add on not a requirement It is a choice not a demand Being a Christian today has no connection with the biblical idea that we are formed into the image of Christ In this ground breaking new book pastor and author Bill Hull shows why our existing models of evangelism and discipleship fail to actually produce followers of Jesus He looks at the importance of recovering a robust view of the gospel and taking seriously the connection between conversion answering the call to follow Jesus and discipleship living like the one we claim to follow The American Missionary , 1928 Vols 13 62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869 1908 v 38 62 include abridged annual reports of the Society s Executive committee 1883 84 1907 1908 Shepherding God's People Siang-Yang Tan, 2019-07-16 This comprehensive textbook on pastoral ministry for pastors church leaders and students articulates a biblical model for shepherding God s people Written by a leading psychologist and seminary professor who has served as a pastor for more than two decades the book covers twelve major areas of pastoral ministry highlights the essential work of the Holy Spirit and focuses on the personal and family life of the pastor It includes cross cultural perspectives of special interest in our diverse world and a foreword by John Ortberg      Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1895      Homiletic Review, 1925      The Heart of Pastoral Counseling Richard L Dayringer, 2013-04-03 The relationship between pastor and parishioner is the essence of pastoral counseling a simple truth with profound implications Dr Richard Dayringer explores these implications in The Heart of Pastoral Counseling Healing Through Relationship Revised Edition to help pastoral counselors understand how to use the relationship to bring about the desired ends in the therapeutic process Drawing on research from the disciplines of psychiatry psychology marriage counseling family therapy and pastoral counseling this book lays the foundation for utilizing the pastoral counseling relationship to bring about positive change as it explores topics such as observation listening communication handling transference and termination of therapy Because the interpersonal relationship is the vehicle of therapy it is critical that pastoral counselors understand the psychological assumptions that play a large part in the characteristics of relationships as well as the factors requiring attention in order to establish a secure counseling relationship The Heart of Pastoral Counseling will help you attain this understanding as you also improve your knowledge on how pastoral relationships may be applied outside the therapeutic hour in general pastoral work eclectic methods for clarifying feelings developing intellectual insight interpreting questioning and assigning certain behavior employing the problem oriented record in pastoral counseling distinguishing relationship from transference and countertransference the unique problem that counseling acquaintances presents personality traits that attract people to the minister pastoral counselor counselor attitudes that foster relationship how a client's view of the counselor has an impact on the effectiveness of therapy The Heart of Pastoral Counseling brings a solid base of research to pastoral counselors seminary students graduate students in counseling professors of counseling and specialists in pastoral psychotherapy so that you might better understand the nature of pastoral counseling relationships and how they are helpful and constructive in people's lives You will be challenged to rethink your role in initiating and carrying out therapeutic change and realize why you should build your ministry on relationships rather than on friendships      Mission of the Church Jerome Boone, Jerald Daffe, William Effler, Henry Smith, 2018-05-30 What is the mission of the corporate church What is the mission of local churches regardless of denominations What is the reason for the existence of the local church These three questions not only deserve consideration by leadership but also need to be understood by the entire membership to enable productive kingdom work It is so easy for a congregation to develop programs and activities based on what other groups are doing or on what are the perceived needs of the moment These do have value however they tend to be based on our human concepts rather than the directives of Scripture Terry Cross Dean of the School of Religion at Lee University describes this book as follows Another book on the church This one is different Thirteen seasoned professors with some 400 years of combined ministerial experience engage various aspects of the mission of the church Much like the pulse that beats from a strong heart the idea of partnering with God's mission as transformed participants in God's work reappears throughout the chapters While the focus of attention is different for each author the theme beats the same pulse throughout the mission of God is the heart of God and must be the heart of the church With additional contributions from Bob Bayles Terry Cross Rolando Cuellar Tom Doolittle Jimmy Harper John Lombard Lisa Long Edley Moodley Mark Walker Proceedings of the Parliament of South Australia South Australia. Parliament, 1886 Making God Possible Alan Billings, 2011-09-22 What are clergy for In this lively and provocative volume Alan Billings argues that they serve the mission and ministry of the Church which is to make God possible In each new era how to carry out this mission effectively will vary as the Church seeks to respond to changes in society and culture but it is likely to involve clergy in a refocusing of their ministry Part 1 of Making God Possible looks at recent cultural shifts and the challenges they present to Christianity in the twenty first century Part 2 explores some of the models of ministry which have been found in the Church in the past and which continue to exercise an influence classical the parson evangelical the minister catholic the priest and utility the social activist and personal therapist The author skilfully draws out those things of lasting importance and value in each model that might contribute towards the renewal of the ordained ministry today Making the Word of God Fully Known Paul A.
