The Documentary Impulse in French Literature ,2021-12-28 Film Sequels Carolyn Jess-Cooke,2009-02-02 The film sequel has been maligned in popular culture as a vampirish corporative exercise in profit making and narrative regurgitation Drawing upon a wide range of examples from early cinema to the twenty first century this volume reveals the increasing popularity of and experimentation with film sequels as a central dynamic of Hollywood cinema Now creeping into world cinemas and independent film festivals the sequel is persistently employed as a vehicle for cross cultural dialogue and as a structure by which memories and cultural narratives can be circulated across geographical and historical locations This book aims to account for some of the major critical contexts within which sequelisation operates by exploring sequel production beyond box office figures Its account ranges from sequels in recent mainstream cinema art house and indie sequels non Hollywood sequels the effects of the domestic market on sequelisation and the impact of the video game industry on Hollywood Sessional Papers of the Dominion of Canada Canada. The History of French Literature on Film Kate Griffiths, Andrew Watts, 2020-12-24 French novels plays poems and short stories however temporally or culturally distant from us continue to be incarnated and reincarnated on cinema screens across the world From the silent films of Georges Méliès to the Hollywood production of Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary directed by Sophie Barthes The History of French Literature on Film explores the key films directors and movements that have shaped the adaptation of works by French authors since the end of the 19th century Across six chapters Griffiths and Watts examine the factors that have driven this vibrant adaptive industry as filmmakers have turned to literature in search of commercial profits cultural legitimacy and stories rich in dramatic potential The volume also explains how the work of theorists from a variety of disciplines literary theory translation theory adaptation theory can help to deepen both our understanding and our appreciation of literary adaptation as a creative practice Finally this volume seeks to make clear that adaptation is never a simple transcription of an earlier literary work It is always simultaneously an adaptation of the society and era for which it is created Adaptations of French literature are thus not only valuable artistic artefacts in their own right so too are they important historical documents which testify to the values and tastes of their own time

Oceanic Encounters Margaret Jolly, Serge Tchekézo, Darrell Tryon, 2009-07-01 This volume the result of ongoing collaborations between Australian and French anthropologists historians and linguists explores encounters between Pacific peoples and foreigners during the long duration of European exploration colonisation and settlement from the sixteenth century to the twentieth century It deploys the concept of encounter rather than the more common idea of first contact for several reasons Encounters with Europeans occurred in the context of extensive prior encounters and exchanges between Pacific peoples manifest in the distribution of languages and objects and in patterns of human settlement and movement The concept of encounter highlights the mutuality in such meetings of bodies and minds whereby preconceptions from both sides were brought into confrontation dialogue mutual influence and ultimately mutual transformation It stresses not so much prior visions of strangers or others but the contingencies in events of encounter and how senses other than vision were crucial in shaping reciprocal appraisals But a stress on mutual meanings and interdependent agencies in such cross cultural encounters should not occlude the tumultuous misunderstandings political contests and extreme violence which also characterised Indigenous European interactions over this period
