The Routledge Handbook of Spanish in the Global City Andrew Lynch, 2019-07-11 The Routledge Handbook of Spanish in the Global City brings together contributions from an international team of scholars of language in society to offer a conceptual and empirical perspective on Spanish within the context of 15 major cosmopolitan cities from around the world With a unique focus on Spanish as an international language each chapter questions the traditional and modern notions of language place and identity in the urban context of globalization This collection of new perspectives on the sociology of Spanish provides an insightful and invaluable resource for students and researchers seeking to explore lesser known areas of sociolinguistic research

Caribbean and Latinx Street Art in Miami Jana Evans Braziel, 2024-02-29 This study focuses on street art and large scale murals in metropolitan Miami Dade County while also foregrounding the diasporic and aesthetic interventions made by migrant and second generation artists whose families hail from the Caribbean and Latin America Jana Evans Braziel argues that Caribbean and Latinx street artists define and visually mark the city of Miami as a diasporic transnational urban space These artists also help define Miami as a cosmopolitan city yet one that is also a distinctly Caribbean and Latinx urban space and simultaneously resist but also at times reluctantly participate in the forces of gentrification and urban re development particularly through the myriad and complex ways in which street art contributes to city branding and art tourism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history urban studies American studies and Latin American Caribbean studies
