Leadership Rubs: 1-Hour Mentors, A Memoir of an Artist as a Masseur Valentino Zubiri, 2014-03-31 All artists struggle wondering how to make ends meet while doing their art As an artist I went to figure drawing sessions I became a masseur to improve my art pay the rent and find a story to write The story found me I met Celebrities Authors Taxi Drivers Actors Singers Radio Personalities Leaders Art Auction Experts CEOs Chairmen of the Board They all had something to share to keep the flame going for people like me The hour long massages became inspiring wonderful hour long mentoring sessions of leaders and dreamers who have achieved their goals This book is part of Val Zubiri s Memoirs of an Artist Series He hopes that people learn valuable profitable lessons from his books and that collectors and financial companies and investment bankers will notice and collect his art Gay Crow Vishwas Pethe,2021-10-02 Truth is stranger than fiction To say that the author has overcome the most seemingly insurmountable of odds and has lived nothing short of an astounding life would be a gross understatement Just when you think the indignities the considerable suffering that Vishwas goes through could not get worse your senses are assaulted with something even grimmer even more sorrowful But through it all the Gay Crow keeps rising phoenix like a veritable cat with nine lives the gay man brilliant enough to have never had to eat crow Written in a crisp conversational style with lucid prose this heartfelt memoir never falls short of being a page turner A testament to human resilience it will open your eyes to what a person is truly capable of Above all it will restore your faith in humanity Ninad Jog The Fine Artist's Career Guide Daniel Grant,2004-04-01 This indispensable guide gives anyone with studio art training the vital tools and breadth of information they need to develop and succeed in the fine and applied arts It covers the full spectrum of career options available to artists today from being an independent artist to niches in the corporate world and from jobs that require special artistic skills to those calling for artistic improvisation Painting the Web Shelley Powers,2008-05-01 Do you think that only professionals with expensive tools and years of experience can work with web graphics This guide tosses that notion into the trash bin Painting the Web is the first comprehensive book on web graphics to come along in years and author Shelley Powers demonstrates how readers of any level can take advantage of the graphics and animation capabilities built into today s powerful browsers She covers GIFs JPEGs and PNGs raster and vector graphics CSS Ajax effects the canvas objects SVG geographical applications and more everything that designers and non designers use to literally paint the Web More importantly Shelley s own love of web graphics shines through in every example Not only can you master the many different techniques you also can have fun doing it Topics in Painting the Web include GIF JPEG PNG lossy versus lossless compression color management and optimization Photo workflow from camera to web page including a review of photo editors workflow tools and RAW photo utilities Tricks for best displaying your photos online Non photographic raster images icons and logos with step by step tutorials for creating popular Web 2 0 effects like reflection shiny buttons inlays and shadows Vector graphics An SVG tutorial with examples of all the major components Tips and tricks for using CSS Interactive effects with Ajax such as accordions and fades The canvas object implemented in most browsers Geographical applications such as Google Maps and Yahoo Maps with programming and non programming examples Visual effects such as

forms and data displays in table or graphics Web design for the non designer Graphics are not essential to the web experience but they do make the difference between a site that s functional and one that s lively compelling and exciting Whether you want to spruce up a website use photos to annotate your stories create hot graphics or provide compelling displays for your data this is the book for you Drawing Without an Eraser Guy McLain,2020-08-27 What does it take to become a great artist Is it simply a matter of unlocking our innate talent or is it something developed through training and experience What obstacles must you overcome especially if you are a woman in a male dominated art world This novel explores those questions through the story of a woman who grew up in rural Texas during the Great Depression Although suffering the trauma of poverty childhood abuse and marriage to an unfaithful and domineering husband she dedicates her life to becoming an artist But that road is far from easy Ultimately it will mean leaving her family and her home in Texas and venturing on a journey filled with many obstacles to overcome This novel told by the owner of a prestigious New York art gallery will follow the life of this courageous woman in her quest to reach greatness as an artist and overcome her past

The Ghost Painter Marilu Norden,2012-01-30 Eccentric world famous Santa Fe artist Adelaide Moran recently arrived in heaven is obsessed with not having finished painting the masterpiece that she feels will be so different from all others that it will forever ensure her legacy in the history of art Invading the dreams of her earthly assistant Ramon Herrera she elicits his help and that of a Taos shaman and a psychict to steal the soul of talented young New York painter Angelina Bonelli Whisked to New Mexico and held prisoner as she is guided by Morans ghostly hand painting on the masterpiece Angelina struggles against dark seemingly immovable forces to find her way back to the reclamation of her soul as an artist and woman Her best friend jazz singer Gabriella Burke and a handsome Santa Fe photographer Troy Lundberg join forces in a race against time to rescue Angelina Bonelli counts Moran as one of her favorite artists but aches to honor her own artistic expression Meanwhile even in death the spirit of Moran will stop at nothing to become as famous as Georgia O Keeffe Two painters but only one set of hands and an art world that may be forever changed New Orleans in the Fifties Mary Lou Widmer,2004-07-31 Photos and reminiscences of life the 1950s part of the decade by decade series that vividly documents the Crescent City s history Remember when Mardi Gras was cancelled in 1951 in tribute to the men fighting the Korean War Surely you were there for Elvis Presley s visit to the Municipal Auditorium in 1956 and you must recall the first time you crossed the brand new Greater New Orleans Bridge How about the milk bottle on top of the Cloverland Dairy For those who were there and those who wish they were Mary Lou Widmer recalls these and many other images and events that define the decade Packed with photographs her remembrances will delight and entertain all who lived through this unique decade in New Orleans and fascinate anyone intrigued by the city s past from the tumult of integration to the worries about communism to the rapid growth of Gentilly Metairie and other suburbs The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser Connie Houser,2007-10-05 The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a book about Connie and Jim Houser s passion for art and each other as well as for living and family It is a dialogue about their adventures in pursuing those loves and achieving recognition for their accomplishments In 2008 the book garnered FIRST PLACE in the DIY California Book Fest and HONORABLE MENTIONS in A DOZEN BOOK FESTS including the New England Book Fest and the LONDON ENGLAND book fest It is a readable visual delight There is a profound degree of suchness or Zen quality in Jim Houser's paintings as well as a lyricism not unlike the clear concise resonance of Robert Frost's shorter verse Those essentials are shown in the almost forty paintings photographed for The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser The imagined and inventive device and use of letters or messages in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser swiftly conveys the actual events in Jim and Connie Houser's lives The creative partners are portrayed in a rapidly moving dialogue that involves the reader in artist's competitions art gallery shows foreign and domestic travel family life and an understanding of the profession of producing a fine work of art in modern times The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser explains that a fine work of art is very different from the remainder of artistic endeavor Fine art engages the viewer in a visual dialogue that distinguishes it and bonds the viewer in love or hate but never mediocrity Not a run of the mill coffee table book The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a charming and accurate account of the modern day artist's life while creating works of art and bringing them to the public's attention The story encompasses the tragedies and the successes in the Houser's lives and their interaction with others Written by the artist's wife Connie Houser herself an awarded artist and writer it spans the artists relationship thus far and offers insights into their creative work The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser follows the artists creative work accomplished during their hectic everyday existence The same full lives of having a family a home and a job to pay bills necessary today to most people Although the letters themselves are an imaginative artistic device to enliven the book the events are true Not satisfied to just get by they made career choices that would eventually make them both candidates for inclusion in the prestigious Marquis Who's Who editions of art literature America and the World Jim has been represented in those volumes for fifteen years and Connie joined the ranks in 2004 Photographs of his paintings will also appear in the 2008 2009 Who's Who in American Art Artist's gallery Their ability to continue to work under conditions that might discourage others is made clear in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser Jim's profession is painting and Connie's is writing and painting The rest of their work although they contributed much enjoyed it and performed with excellence was done to pay the bills Jim was a 30 year college professor and full time family man Connie organized family matters taught part time while writing for various publications and magazines plus painting The carousing hours were the working hours for their creative efforts because silence reigned Their many travel adventures in the states and abroad guaranteed they played hard with the same energy and enthusiasms When Jim began winning countless awards for his painting he was invited to show at numerous exhibitions and in New York City galleries They added these events plus art show openings to their already hectic schedule Through it all they managed a fulfilling family life while taking creative care of their parents and allowing them their desired home life
