From My Heart Beverly Tina Childs, 2015-11-20 You do not have to be alone There is a God in heaven who can bring you words that will encourage and strengthen you If you've ever felt no one could understand the things you're going through just realize that God does I was abandoned as a young child and in God's time He restored the empty spaces in my heart I wrote this book to bring the hope of God's healing to you from my heart to yours I have had MS for thirty years and I've learned that the only one I can depend upon is the Lord Through the years I've lost my vision three times and regained it My mobility has had the same pattern and God has always been faithful My hope is that my poetry can be used by God to draw you closer to Him God still does miracles Anyone can fall in love even when your life is filled with despair My husband Jim Childs was my mailman and God brought him to my door Its never too late even if you're disabled to find love with God's help
