foreign born first and second generation Americans and more and the myriad opportunities and challenges those students present to their instructors These contributors have seen the validity in the stories and experiences these students bring to the classroom evidence of their lifetimes of complex learning in both academic and nonacademic settings Like thousands of college level instructors in the United States they have immigrant stories of their own The immigrant narrative offers a unique framework for knowledge production in which students and teachers may learn from each other in which the ordinary power dynamic of teacher and students begins to shift to enable empathy to emerge and to provide space for an authentic kind of pedagogy By engaging writing and literature teachers within and outside the classroom Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story speaks to the immigrant narrative as a viable frame for teaching writing an opportunity for building and articulating knowledge through academic discourse The book creates a platform for immigration as a writing and literary theme a framework for critical thinking and a foundation for significant social change and advocacy Contributors Tuli Chatterji Katie Daily Bruckner Libby Garland Silvia Giagnoni Sibylle Gruber John Havard Timothy Henderson Brennan Herring Lilian Mina Rachel Pate Emily Schnee Elizabeth Stone Handbook on Home and Migration Paolo Boccagni, 2023-06-01 This dynamic Handbook unpacks the entanglements between the two notions of home and migration which illuminate the lived experiences of in voluntary mobilities and the contested terrain of inclusion and belonging Drawing on cross disciplinary contributions from leading international scholars it advances research on the social study of home in relation to migration refugee displacement and diaspora studies This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Cultural Complexes in Australia Thomas Singer, 2023-12-29 Cultural Complexes in Australia Placing Psyche is the first in a series of books that will explore the notion of cultural complexes in a variety of settings around the world The continent of Australia is the focus of this inaugural volume in which the contributors elucidate how the unique geography and peoples of Australia interact and interpenetrate to create the particular mindscapes of the Australian psyche While the cultural complexes of Australia are explored with a keen eye to the specificity of place history context and content at the same time it becomes obvious that these cultural complexes emerge out of an archetypal background that is not just Australian but global This volume shows how cultural complex theory itself mediates between the particularity of place and the universality of archetypal patterns The Sexual Politics of Asylum Calogero Giametta, 2017-03-27 Today within neoliberal democracies gender and sexuality provisions give people the opportunity of being granted social and legal protection But how does the asylum system intervene within claimants understandings of themselves and in what ways does this affect their livelihoods in the country of arrival The Sexual Politics of Asylum emerges from a 2 year long ethnography which explores the experiences of 60 gender and sexual minority refugees in the UK Bringing previously unheard stories to the forefront this enlightening volume challenges dominant notions about the construction of sexuality and gender as an instrument for claiming rights in a world shaped by postcolonial relations Giametta first examines why the migratory
