My Life And Other Stories:

My Life and Other Stories Bob Elles, 2013-05-14 Intelligence comes from ignorance as wisdom comes from naiveté and there is nothing like gathering both from people who represent a diverse swath of nations throughout the world. As cultures require contact with each other in order to grow and remain viable and not succumb to atrophy, man too requires contact with men of different beliefs and practices. No one nation or culture or religion has a hold on logic or is immune to extremism. I feel blessed that I've had the opportunity to absorb and learn about aspects of life that I'm sure I wouldn't have learned otherwise. In fact, my whole belief system was changed over the past forty-five years through this contact. I began to do some research on my family and what I learned coupled with what I had experienced in my life literally brought me to tears in gratitude and admiration and hopefully in wisdom. If you like to sit down and listen to stories told by say an old friend, an uncle, or a person with wrinkles on his face, grey in his hair, and a sparkle of wisdom in his eyes coupled with a smile on his face, then you should so bother. If you don't, then stop right here and go pick up and read a book on vampires or loves lost or whatever turns your fancy. My life has been tragic and wondrous, and I have what I call life lessons that I believe you will find helpful in your life. I'll even go so far as to say that given even a fraction of introspection in you, your life will be significantly altered after you've read this book. I know that doesn't sound humble, but I also know this to be true. I have learned, forgot, and made up many a good story. Keep this in mind when you read these chapters, stories compiled within this book. Are they all true? Mostly, with only the most embarrassing events removed. An old retired Air Force fighter pilot once told me, "I have secrets only God and I know, and that's the way it will remain." The strangest journey of my life, and other stories, by F. Pigot Frederick Arnold, 1889

First Love and Other Stories Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 1999 Bringing together six of Turgenev's best-known stories in one volume, this collection includes First Love, Asya, Mumu, The Diary of a Superfluous Man, Song of Triumphant Love, and King Lear of the Steppes. Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life. You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse. How can you do that? You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do. Success at anything is not by chance or by luck. It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition. Therefore, successful people are not surprised by their success. They actually knew it would happen before it happened. The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards. What is the curse? It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with: the negative friends, the negative conversations, the negative situations. An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations, in those conversations, and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake. I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life. They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life. And that is what any man needs: incarcerated or free, people who believe in him when no one else in the world does. You Are My Heart and Other Stories Jay Neugeboren, 2011-05-17 Jay

Neugeboren's You Are My Heart is an object lesson in imaginative empathy and observational intelligence. His fiction for years now has had the courage to be quiet and careful and comprehensively humane, but it's in no way slight. One of his great subjects has been the damage that even the most caring and thoughtful can inflict, and though these stories take place all over the world, they're at heart about the difference between the America to which we aspire and the America in which we live. Jim Shepard

Jay Neugeboren is an award-winning short story writer who has been applauded as one of the most distinguished writers of our time. With this his fourth collection of short stories, he returns to the form that earned him the reputation as a master storyteller. From the secluded villages in the south of France to the cattle crawl in the Valley of a Thousand Hills in South Africa to the hard knock adolescent streets of Brooklyn, Neugeboren examines the great mysteries and complexities that unsettle and comprise human relationships. In works that are as memorable, engrossing, and exciting as they are gorgeously crafted, Neugeboren delivers on his reputation as one of our pre-eminent American writers.

Jay Neugeboren is the author of seventeen books, including two prize-winning novels, The Stolen Jew and Before My Life Began, two award-winning books of nonfiction, Imagining Robert and Transforming Madness, and three collections of award-winning stories. His stories have appeared in The Atlantic, Esquire, Virginia Quarterly Review, Best American Short Stories, The O. Henry Prize Stories, and Penguin Modern Stories.
