Champions...Plus Gary Devaul, Mark Thallander, 2013-02 A summer thunderstorm pursued Mark Thallander as he drove from Massachusetts to Maine after playing the organ for a morning church service in Worcester Dinner awaited him but Mark never arrived The car hydroplaned at the exit from the turnpike just minutes from his destination A deafening silence followed the explosion of the accident Then an unseen woman's voice spoke to Mark Turn off the engine Keep talking Later in a hospital forty miles away surgeons had Mark sign an amputation release form as he pleaded with them to save his arm

Sermonettes from the Seashore Barry Blackstone, 2019-05-23 Coming from this preacher's love of the seashore is a series of sermonettes he heard while walking along some of the world's sandy beaches Stroll with this man as he shares his insights from days spent on seashores in the counties of Israel India Canada and Australia as well as the states of Alaska California Florida New Jersey and Maine Listen with him as he hears surf and sea sermons tide and tern tenets beach and breeze benedictions and sand and storm sermonettes Look with him into the face of a coastal nor easter watch with him as sea creatures and shoreline birds play together along the sea edge behold brilliant sunrises and amazing sunsets over distant shores with family and friends and observe the rising and falling of the great tides all events along a seashore that inspired these spiritual messages from the Almighty So take off your shoes let the sand fill the cracks between your toes lift your eyes toward the sea open your ears to the sound of the surf and be still and know that I am God Ps 46:10 What does God want to say

God Talk Ruth A. Tucker, 2006-01-01 Does God speak The answer seems clear Books abound on the topic of hearing God's voice And many believers testify to God's conversational guidance in their life God told me to help you I knew it was God speaking to me Our culture reinforces the idea that speaking constant speaking is good and natural and essential In those rare moments during a day when talking ceases or when we're alone we quickly find some way to fill the void whether turning on the television or radio or calling someone on the phone With others and especially with God we get the message speaking is good silence is bad But still Ruth Tucker is not afraid to ask the question Does God speak And her answer might surprise you She urges caution in speaking about hearing God pointing out that our privatized spirituality often sets those who hear God on a pedestal and leaves those who don't feeling spiritually inferior Further she shows how the expectation of conversation may too easily humanize God in our minds causing us to approach God with the same attitude we have when we call a friend on the phone And if God does speak how can we be sure our own desires are not affecting our interpretation of God's voice In God Talk Tucker offers us a new paradigm for viewing silence and prayer Rather than feeling inferior when we don't hear God speak she helps us lean more deeply on his silent Spirit inspired Word By examining the Trinity Tucker gives us a new glimpse of how God the Father spoke his words in the past how Christ the Incarnate Word lived among us and how the Holy Spirit speaks to us now through Scripture Here is a probing thought provoking read on how our present active powerful God relates to us and how we in turn should relate to God Shalom Yesterday, Today, and Forever Mark DeVine, 2019-02-21

When we hear the word shalom we think first of the common Jewish greeting Then perhaps we consider the promise Jesus the Prince of Peace gave to his followers to grant them a peace the world cannot provide In the Bible the word shalom means much more than the absence of hostility it means harmony and prosperity Shalom refers to life as it was meant to be as it should be where sin is gone and love reigns In this book theologian Mark DeVine employs the well known but little studied Hebrew word to illuminate the three dimensions of relationship God the Creator designed human beings to enjoy 1 the relationship between God and his people 2 the relationship between God's people as his children and 3 the relationship between God and his people in the place the home God made for them and made them for DeVine gives special attention to the third dimension the home God provides to his people Shalom Yesterday Today and Forever offers a more fully evangelical and orthodox comprehension of redemption while avoiding the pitfalls that often jeopardize creation friendly theologies
