My Lost World:

Comics and Power Rikke Platz Cortsen, Erin La Cour, Anne Magnussen, 2015-02-05 Many introductions to comics scholarship books begin with an anecdote recounting the author's childhood experiences reading comics thereby testifying to the power of comics to engage and impact youth but comics and power are intertwined in a numbers of ways that go beyond concern for children's reading habits Comics and Power presents very different methods of studying the complex and diverse relationship between comics and power Divided into three sections its 14 chapters discuss how comics interact with reproduce and or challenge existing power structures from the comics medium and its institutions to discourses about art subjectivity identity and communities The contributors and their work as such represent a new generation of comics research that combines the study of comics as a unique art form with a focus on the ways in which comics like any other medium participate in shaping the societies of which they are part John McGahern and the Art of Memory Dermot McCarthy, 2010 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland's past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland's literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography political science and theology Poetry Los Angeles Laurence Goldstein, 2014-03-12 A look at the poetry of one of America's most populous and fascinating cities with poems spanning from 1942 to 2012 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1892 The Conservator, 1908 The Year's Best Science Fiction: Fifteenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 1998-05-15 Science fiction's premier editor assembles the best stories of the year from veterans and newcomers alike including Alan Brennert Gwyneth Jones James Patrick Kelly Nancy Kress Paul J McAuley Robert Silverberg and many others Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change Gate in the Garden Wall Sam Pickering, 2022-06-21 Familiar essays by Sam Pickering who has written more than thirty books and barrows of articles When not at his desk he was in the classroom the last thirty five years teaching English at the University of Connecticut Integrative Theology Gordon R. Lewis, Bruce A. Demarest, 2010-09-21 Integrative Theology is designed to help graduate students in a pluralistic world utilize a standard method of fruitful research Each chapter on a major doctrine 1 states a classic issue of ultimate concern 2 surveys alternative past and present answers and 3 tests those proposals by their congruence with information on the subject progressively revealed from Genesis to Revelation Then the chapter 4 formulates a doctrinal conclusion that consistently fits the many lines of biblical data 5 defends that conviction respectfully and finally 6 explores the conclusion's relevance to a person's spiritual birth growth and service to others all for the glory of God Why the title Integrative Theology In each chapter steps 2-6 integrate the disciplines of historical biblical systematic apologetic and practical theology The Living Age, 1902
