Mochi's War Chris Enss, Howard Kazanjian, 2015-06-15 As with many incidents in American history the victors wrote the first version of history turning the tragedy of the Sand Creek Massacre into a heroic feat by the Colorado militia tasked with moving the Cheyenne onto reservations The truth of those events has made Colonel John Chivington's name infamous in Colorado and American history and this dramatic and poignant reflection on the events leading to the tragic events of the massacre and the ensuing years of violence offers new perspectives with the hindsight of more than a century and a half of repercussions by telling the story of one of the women a Cheyenne named Mochi who became swept up in the cycle of war and vengeance that ensued Imperialism and Expansionism in American History Chris J. Before We Get Old Toni Sears, 2013-02-28 Six years ago my mother requested that I should write a story about how things were when we all were young The experiences we had and endured along the way while making memories that would last a lifetime The things that we often sat around talking about on so many occasions and would laugh so hard we would be in tears My mother felt that other people would enjoy some of our fondest memories from my childhood as she did her best to raise her children as a single parent most of the time My family felt it was a blessing to be able to look back and laugh about it all what my mother referred to as the good old days There are some stories you would not believe but they are true some are funny and some are sad My mother passed away on Thanksgiving day of 2006 so I am really trying to keep a promise that I made to her and keep our fondest and most cherished memories from my childhood and share it with the world That is what my mother wanted me to do I really hope you enjoy Before We Get Old the good old days Crash Those Cymbals in Hell, Lorraine Grisky Colleen A. Miller, 2011 It's still the Wild West in Colleen's Durango Colleen Miller grew up in her parents' motel in Durango Colorado during the 1950s and 1960s A tourist town in the southwestern corner of the state alive with people from all over the world during the summer Durango became an isolated typical small town the rest of the year These are the stories of her childhood filled with the hilarious larger than life characters that populated her family and the town around them Told in the words of a precocious child who doesn't miss a thing Colleen has the courage to name it all for what it is telling anyone who will listen Inside are her stories and more I laughed out loud so many times Colleen is a brilliant storyteller and a compassionate coach with fresh and unique ideas for uncovering those parts of our past we've buried while integrating them into the person we want to be today Chicken Soup for the Soul series and other books What I love about Colleen's writing is that the stories come alive and draw me in They make me cry and laugh and help me to see the truth of my own authentic self Sally Bonkrude MA LPC MT BC author of Conscious Performing from fear to freedom

The Bent Twig Dorothy Canfield Fisher, 1915 Daughter resents ideals of parents but in moments of indecision draws strength from their traditions Triumph of an American Black Man Alfred Douglas Turnipseed, 2008-10 Alfred Turnipseed was a very small boy with bright eyes a quick smile dark complexion close cropped hair with an engaging personality Although he was outgoing there was a timid quality about him He dressed differently from other boys With a quick eye for fashion Alfred wore black and white or brown and white shoes while other boys wore solid colors Sometimes he wore overalls but pants with suspenders and a belt was his normal dress His mother made sure his clothes were always clean and pressed He took pride in his overall appearance In school kids lined up by height for many events Alfred always led the line He was not only the smallest boy but the smallest person in his class And he didn't feel too good about this When Alfred went to school his mother insisted that the barber cut off all his hair He hated this because the older boys would constantly tap his head But his mother wouldn't change her mind so his head was always bald looking Everyone agreed that Alfred was a nice little boy He was innocent of all vices well most of them anyway But he was a tough minded little boy who kept plugging away and never quit on himself
