Black, 2012-07-26 What can be gained from a dialogue between psychoanalysis and religion Freud described religion as the universal obsessional neurosis and uncompromisingly rejected it in favour of science Ever since there has been the assumption that psychoanalysts are hostile to religion Yet from the beginning individual analysts have questioned Freud's blanket rejection of religion In this book David Black brings together contributors from a wide range of schools and movements to discuss the issues They bring a fresh perspective to the subject of religion and psychoanalysis answering vital questions such as How do religious stories carry or distort psychological truth How do religions work psychologically What is the nature of religious experience Are there parallels between psychoanalysis and particular religious traditions Psychoanalysis and Religion in the 21st Century will be of great interest to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic therapists psychodynamic counsellors and anyone interested in the issues surrounding psychoanalysis religion theology and spirituality

We Are The Murder Victims Who Lived S.K. Menelle, 2022-11-12 We Are the Murder Victims Who Lived is a gritty and grimy memoir written in the first person which tackles the surviving of sexual assault while offering hope on life after It also glimpses into the struggles and shames of life lived during and a reminiscence on the innocence of life led before This book serves as a beacon of hope to survivors of sexual assault as well as a wake up call for a society blinded by darkness The book targets audiences of every age and gender and sexual orientation presenting itself as a safe zone specifically for women a comfort for those previously affected by sexual violence assault and abuse It is also written for those who are trying to understand what has happened to their loved ones navigating through the unknown It is an education in the horrors of sexual assault a spit in the face of the writer's very own rapist It paves its way as a testimony to the power of good people It is an education in the phases that survivors of sexual assault face denial hate hiding shame and fear which then lends itself to hopefulness unbounding love and truth It is a plea for people to listen forcing us to look at the ways in which we view sex and relationships and consider whether we will raise our very own sons from boys to men or from boys to rapists
