Red Virgin Louise Michel, 1981 Louise Michel was born illegitimate in 1830 and became a schoolmistress in Paris She was involved in radical activities during the twilight of France's Second Empire and during the Franco Prussian War of 1870 and the siege of Paris She was a leading member of the revolutionary groups controlling Montmartre Michel emerged as one of the leaders of the insurrection during the Paris Commune of March-May 1871 and French anarchists saw her as martyr and saint The Red Virgin When the Versailles government crushed the Commune in May 1871 Michel was sentenced to exile in New Caledonia until the general amnesty of 1880 when she returned to France and great popular acclaim and support from the working people of the country Michel was arrested again during a demonstration in Paris in 1883 and sentenced to six years in prison Pardoned after three years she continued her speeches and writing although she spent the greater part of her time from 1890 until her death in 1905 in England in self-imposed exile It was during her prison term from 1883 to 1886 that she compiled her Memoires now available in English These memoirs offer readers a view of the non-Marxist left and give an in-depth look into the development of the revolutionary spirit The early chapters treat her childhood the development of her revolutionary feelings and her training as a schoolteacher The next section describes her activities as a schoolteacher in the Haute Marne and Paris and therefore contains much of interest on education in 19th century Europe Her chapters on the siege of Paris the Commune and her first trial show those events from the point of view of a major participant Of particular interest is a chapter on women's rights which Michel saw as part of the search for the rights of all people male and female and not as a separate struggle The Red Virgin Memoirs of Louise Michel will be useful to both scholars and students of 19th century French history and women's studies

The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Oceania 1825-1850 is the first detailed and documentary history of the seminal period of Roman Catholic missionary activity Beginning with the founding of the Prefecture Apostolic of the Sandwich Islands in 1825 there was continued development in Australia New Zealand Melanesia Micronesia and Polynesia for the next quarter century By 1850 this vast area of the South Seas could boast of one archdiocese eight dioceses and eight vicariates apostolic This lively dramatic narrative is told largely through the words of the participants drawn from diaries documents and letters found in the archives of the Vatican and several religious orders The comprehensive tale ranges from the politics of the Vatican to sufferings on outpost islands The focus of attention shifts from Rome to Paris Valparaiso Sydney Honiara Auckland and many other places in a study of men and institutions faith and emotion rivalries and confusions murder and annexation God and mammon Originally published in 1979 this important historical study had been out of print and virtually unavailable for many years until this new edition was completed The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Melanesia and Micronesia, 1850-1875 Ralph M.

Wiltgen,2008-01-01 The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Melanesia and Micronesia 1850 to 1875 is the result of Father Ralph Wiltgen s years of archival work in Rome and at the headquarters of religious orders who worked in Micronesia and Melanesia It follows his first historical book on the subject The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Oceania 1825 to 1850 but narrows the focus The first book dealt with the whole of Oceania and emphasized developments in Polynesia This book concentrates on Melanesia and Micronesia from 1850 to 1875 the period immediately before the work of large numbers of Missionaries of the Sacred Heart Marists and Divine Word Missionaries assumed great momentum in the period between 1875 and 1914 Micronesia is a huge area of the world made up of numerous culturally and politically distinct groups of atolls ranging over about 1 400 miles from the northwest to the southeast Its peoples speak scores of mutually unintelligible though related languages on such island groups as the Marshalls the Gilberts Nauru and Kiribati Far more heavily populated is Melanesia another huge area of the Pacific where as many as one thousand distinct languages are spoken in an arc of islands extending from just below the equator in a boomerang shape from today s Indonesian controlled Papua and independent Papua New Guinea on the island of New Guinea in the northwest all the way along the Solomon Island chain to 25 south latitude to the southeast In this book Wiltgen shows himself the undisputed master of the archives of the Propaganda Fide the Vatican s chief mission agency and the religious orders that provided missionaries all of which is supplemented by his attention to the lives of key people of the period He shows the Propaganda now prodding missionary orders to take on the difficult work of evangelizing these areas and on other occasions struggling to keep up with and understand fast moving events and the colorful characters both ecclesiastical and among colonial administrators rogue sea captains and indigenous leaders Wiltgen lets the contemporary records speak for themselves though one can imagine his arched brow and mischievous grin as he selects exactly the right quote to describe now an act of missionary heroism and now an act of self promotion It is a masterful book making available the early history of one of Catholicism s greatest missionary successes helping the reader understand both the idealism of the vision and the way in which concrete events and people affected the outcome
