Soul Searching Christian Smith, Melina Lundquist Denton, 2009-04-13 In innumerable discussions and activities dedicated to better understanding and helping teenagers one aspect of teenage life is curiously overlooked Very few such efforts pay serious attention to the role of religion and spirituality in the lives of American adolescents But many teenagers are very involved in religion Surveys reveal that 35% attend religious services weekly and another 15% attend at least monthly 60% say that religious faith is important in their lives 40% report that they pray daily 25% say that they have been born again Teenagers feel good about the congregations they belong to Some say that faith provides them with guidance and resources for knowing how to live well What is going on in the religious and spiritual lives of American teenagers What do they actually believe What religious practices do they engage in Do they expect to remain loyal to the faith of their parents Or are they abandoning traditional religious institutions in search of a new more authentic spirituality This book attempts to answer these and related questions as definitively as possible It reports the findings of The National Study of Youth and Religion the largest and most detailed such study ever undertaken The NYSR conducted a nationwide telephone survey of teens and significant caregivers as well as nearly 300 in depth face to face interviews with a sample of the population that was surveyed The results show that religion and spirituality are indeed very significant in the lives of many American teenagers Among many other discoveries they find that teenagers are far more influenced by the religious beliefs and practices of their parents and caregivers than commonly thought They refute the conventional wisdom that teens are spiritual but not religious And they confirm that greater religiosity is significantly associated with more positive adolescent life outcomes This eagerly awaited volume not only provides an unprecedented understanding of adolescent religion and spirituality but because teenagers serve as bellwethers for possible future trends it affords an important and distinctive window through which to observe and assess the current state and future direction of American religion as a whole

A Rhetoric of Style Barry Brummett, 2008-07-07 Exploring style in a global culture In A Rhetoric of Style Barry Brummett illustrates how style is increasingly a global system of communication as people around the world understand what it means to dress a certain way to dance a certain way to decorate a certain way to speak a certain way He locates style at the heart of popular culture and asserts that it is the basis for social life and politics in the twenty first century Brummett sees style as a system of signification grounded largely in image aesthetics and extrarational modes of thinking He discusses three important aspects of this system its social and commercial structuring its political consequences and its role as the chief rhetorical system of the modern world He argues that aesthetics and style are merging into a major engine of the global economy and that style is becoming a way to construct individual identity as well as social and political structures of alliance and opposition It is through style that we stereotype or make assumptions about others political identities their sexuality their culture and their economic standing To facilitate theoretical and critical analysis Brummett develops a systematic rhetoric of style and then demonstrates its use through an in depth exploration of gun culture in the United States Armed with an understanding of how this rhetoric of style works methodologically students and scholars alike will have the tools to do their own analyses Written in clear and engaging prose A Rhetoric of Style presents a novel discussion of the workings of style and sheds new light on a venerable and sometimes misunderstood rhetorical concept by illustrating how style is the key to constructing a rhetoric for the twenty first century
