My Ghost In The Bush Of Lies:

Whiteheart Lesego Rampolokeng, 2005 I've never celebrated nor embraced negativity in my life Every single thing I have tried to do or written has come out of a need to actually eradicate or wipe out whatever it is that seeks to destroy the soul of other people I respect the WORD People talk about wordplay I don't play with it it's one of the most powerful weapons in the world Lesego Rampolokeng is well known in South Africa and internationally for his confrontational performance poetry Whiteheart his first prose work is a nightmarish plunge into a 1970s Soweto childhood where violence waits everywhere to make its nest in the child narrator's mind The African Book Publishing Record, 2007 All the Days

Robert Berold, 2008 All the Days Robert Berold's fourth book of poems reaches further and sings more clearly than his earlier work The reader will be struck by the spare lucidity of the language the elemental sense of place and the way love in the end gets the better of difficulty Denis Hirson author of I Remember King Kong the Boxer and White Scars All the characteristics of Berold's trademark voice his refined simplicity his focus upon sharply defined and evocative imagery a preoccupation with the natural world and the impermanence of the human but here in this new book he pushes these elements further and deeper Kobus Moolman poet of Separating the Seas and playwright of Full Circle Editor of the literary journal Fidelities

You, Sir, Are an Idiot Richard Larsen, 2005-04 You Sir Are an Idiot compiles journalist Richard Edward Larsen's short columns on America's recent big events Larsen's columns arise from the belief that reasonable debate must be restored to understand and to resolve the issues polarizing too much of public debate in the United States No topic escapes Larsen's observations On Iraq war justification No this is not a failure of the intelligence agencies it is a failure of this administration to use the intelligence intelligently On war images We should never avert our eyes from the violence we visit upon ourselves in the name of hatred or politics or religion On self improvement I'm not sure when the tradition of new year's resolutions began but I wouldn't be surprised if it started when a female Neanderthal looked at her mate one New Year's Eve and said You need to quit slouching On the future Peace is not merely a process it is a commitment to the future of mankind Larsen's columns urge us to question what we are told to look beyond the superficial and to exercise always our basic right to look someone in the eye and say You sir are an idiot Ghost Letters Baba Badji, 2021-01-01 In Ghost Letters one emigrates to catastrophes Yet in many surprising often submerged ways the transatlantic slave trade shaped the works of both Black and white writers This book reveals how modernists turned to the Middle Passage and in so doing upended Western ideas about time and space race and gender and the category of the human Bringing together Afro diasporic and Black studies scholarship modernist aesthetics and environmental studies Laura Winkiel presents a new literary history of modernism from the perspective of the Atlantic and its role in slavery and colonization She examines the works of African Caribbean British and US writers including Joseph Conrad William Faulkner Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay Jean Rhys Amos Tutuola and Virginia Woolf as well as later interlocutors such as Marlon James and Jamaica Kincaid Paying particular attention to settings on shorelines deltas archipelagos and the ocean Winkiel argues that allusions to the slave trade make visible the exploitative structural relations between the metropolis and the colonies and between the liberal subject and its others By turning to the ocean and its violent histories this groundbreaking book rethinks the fraught relationship of modernism and race
