Thomas,2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18 000 books published through 2017 it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically this reference applies more than 1 200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children's picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians. It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times. Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles.

Did I Ever Tell You about My Grandfather? Prof. Joe Arthur, 2021-08-04 Joe's sister was born with a silver spoon in her mouth but not Joe. Joe's sister was afforded every opportunity but Joe got only adversity. Joe was routinely abused by his father but this is not an oh pity me story. Rather it is the tale of how Joe's maternal grandfather shared his experiences strength and certainties that helped Joe learn how to face life's challenges and grow into a strong and successful man. Between these covers are some of the challenges and obstacles that helped give might to Joe's life. As Joe shares this quest and the lessons his grandfather shared with him you too will have the opportunity to grow and learn how Joe used these very tools to forge a meaningful and valuable life. Often when Joe shared these lessons he would honor with gratitude the lessons from his mentor guardian and protector by asking Did I ever tell you about my grandfather. For reasons found in this book a portion of the proceeds from the sale of all Joe Arthur's writings go to the Association of Zoos and Aquariums the Covenant House the Native American Rights Fund The NAACP the USS Constitution Museum and the World Wildlife Fund.

My Grandpa's Garden Issak Esmail Issak, A presentation of a collection of poems coupled with artistic photographs produced by a brilliant Zanzibar born artist photographer author and theatrical producer Issak Esmail Issak. What started as individual Friday greetings to close friends and family later became a treasure trove that had to be shared widely hence this selected collection. Each photograph is a subtle yet very eloquent portrayal of the intricate cosmopolitan life in Zanzibar. Although each individual photograph already speaks volumes the poem alongside each serves as a colorful embellishment. It is hoped that the reader will take the time to scrutinize each entry to try to read understand and savor the creative genius of the author for there is little doubt that this man of many talents is an indefatigable creator of not only admirable photographs and author of beautiful poetry but also a brilliant producer of theatrical plays. Worth mentioning here are two other projects on which he is currently working. One is a book detailing the histories of Kutch and Zanzibar and the Kumbhaar or the potter community immigration to rural Zanzibar and the other is the production of plays for the FaAna Theatre. Not only does he produce the plays he selects and trains the young Zanzibari actors and even directs the film productions himself.
