Twists and Turns in the Heart's Antarctic Hélène Cixous, 2014 Twists and Turns in the Heart's Antarctic is a compelling new volume in Hélène Cixous's search for lost time. Readers of earlier volumes Hemlock and Hyperdream among others will reconnect with familiar characters: Eve, the elderly mother now in her hundredth year; Hélène, the daughter who never expected to become a mother at 70; and the brother, childhood companion and rival. She has almost no time to write. Twists and Turns like all Cixous's books is a many-faceted text whose narrative spins its webs in corners familiar to Cixous readers: corners with books and writers, Montaigne, Proust, Kafka, Derrida, a theater and plays, friendship and love. It is a tale on the scale of Greek myth about the inescapable entanglements of family relationships that can lead one in hyperbolic mode to envision murder and suicide. This is a tale with profoundly touching reversals.
