LEACH,2013-08-27 Many congregations and church leaders are faced with the collapse of the institutional church culture in America A great number of them have retreated inside their four walls and created church activities to replace their Christ given mission to make disciples and thereby extending His kingdom on earth thy kingdom come Abandoning their mission means they have abandoned their real identity and reason for existence Others have gone to the other extreme by selling out to the culture Their worship service is a form of entertainment with the objective to feel good and be happy Both choices have turned off many saved people and they have left the church In 1998 a Barna poll reflected that 20 million born again Christians had withdrawn their membership Todays poll shows an increase to 115 000 million Many are out there

A Light Unto My Path James J. Bacik, Kevin E. Anderson, 2006 There are many books available on creating a good effective homily This book unique in that it is the product of a long standing dialogue between James Bacik a pastor and theologian and Kevin Anderson a clinical psychologist and author offers those who preach theological perspectives and practical advice on proclaiming the word of God The authors move through the process of preparing and delivering a homily from its conception to delivery However they emphasize the focus and function of the homily rather than the theme and how this relates the message of the readings to the human or social concerns of the congregation Here is a one of a kind book that includes empirical data in the form of a survey to explore what works and does not work in preaching It will provide a fresh perspective to those in homiletics courses in seminaries as well as hands on advice for those who already preach Light unto My Path Fr.
