My Journey The Autobiography Of An Immigrant:

Lim Chong Yah: An Autobiography - Life Journey Of A Singaporean Professor Chong Yah Lim, 2017-01-18 Why are some nations rich and others poor Why do the citizens of some countries lead a happy prosperous life while others struggle in terrible want This book takes the reader through the eventful life journey of one of Singapore's best known economists and educators Professor Lim Chong Yah Born in Malacca the author planted tapioca to feed himself and his family caught fish in paddy fields and was thrown in jail as a 10 year old during the war He fought to win a Commonwealth scholarship to get a decent education met the love of his life at a Chinese New Year party became a Professor at two of the best universities in Asia and went on to write one the most widely used economics textbooks of the time Elements of Economic Theory At 84 Lim Chong Yah is as feisty indomitable and curious as when he was a small cheeky boy catching fighting fish in those paddy fields And he still asks the fundamental question of how each of us can make a difference

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers

Hawaiian History Richard Lightner, 2004-08-30 Hawaii has been referred to as the crossroads of the Pacific This book illustrates how many world cultures and customs meet in the Hawaiian Islands providing a chronological overview highlighted by extracts from important works that express Hawaii's unique history This work starts with chronological chapters on general and ancient Hawaiian history and continues through early Western contact the 19th century and Hawaii's annexation to the United States Topics include politics religion social issues business ethnic groups and race relations

Take My Word Anne E. Goldman, 2023-09-01 In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including the cookbooks of Nuevo Mexicanas African American memoirs of midwifery and healing and Jewish women's histories of the garment industry Goldman illustrates how American women have asserted their ethnic identities and made their voices heard over and sometimes against the interests of publishers editors and readers While the dominant culture has interpreted works of ethnic literature as representative of a people rather than an individual the working women of this study insist upon their own agency in narrating rich and complicated self portraits In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including

Memories: Journey into an Immigrant's Mind Emanuel Paparella, 2018-08-10 As its title powerfully suggests this book while being a personal memoir a narration of one's life journey from sunrise to sunset transcends the personal Its uniqueness lies in the fact that these memories are the memories of an immigrant who has lived in the country as a US citizen with an American born father for some sixty years It is much more than a list of events and anecdotes of an immigrant experience It is written in a Dantesque and Vichian spirit and as such it goes beyond the listing of historical events and people More than a physical journey it is an intellectual journey into the mind of an immigrant in search of ones self and ones ethnic identity As such it is a universal journey with which nonimmigrants even native born can easily empathize Our common humanity makes it universal As Dante well put it when he began the narration of his lifes journey In the middle of the journey of our lives I found myself in a dark wood As Dante begins the journey guided by Virgil and Breatrice he finds out that indeed the journey is universal beyond the purely personal As Michelangelo said Ancor imparo I am still learning He uttered such a statement at the venerable age of eighty nine a few days before he died He was still sculpting and learning Likewise if we dare to begin the journey at whatever age we may find ourselves we may soon find out that we too are still learning and the journey may well have a common purpose and destination

Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Festus E. Obiakor,Ying Hui-Michael,2018-10-01 Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Unheard Voices is a unique and historical book Asian Americans are often portrayed as model minority yet their personal and educational experiences are often unheard In this book 10 Asian American educators and scholars present realistic pictures of America s higher education using personal narratives The contributors in this book come from different regions and teach in different colleges and universities and coincidentally they all endure the outsider category formerly as students and now as professors and leaders This outsider status can be emotionally overwhelming and psychologically unnerving This status hampers opportunities for Asian Americans to grow and maximize their fullest potential Though they develop different strategies to address their outsider label it does not make it comfortable But time and time again they have proven that they can succeed In this technological age we must value unending truths as we educate ourselves and others We hope that this book will be an educational and informational resource for students administrators and faculty in higher education and also educational policy makers and stakeholders

A Little Book for Immigrants in Boston Boston (Mass.). Committee on Americanism,1921

Never Alone
Natan Sharansky,Gil Troy,2020-09-01 A classic account of courage integrity and most of all belonging In 1977 Natan Sharansky a leading activist in the democratic dissident movement in the Soviet Union and the movement for free Jewish emigration was arrested by the KGB He spent nine years as a political prisoner convicted of treason against the state Every day Sharansky fought for individual freedom in the face of overt tyranny a struggle that would come to define the rest of his life Never Alone reveals how Sharansky s years in prison many spent in harsh solitary confinement prepared him for a very public life after his release As an Israeli politician and the head of the Jewish Agency Sharansky brought extraordinary moral clarity and uncompromising often uncomfortable honesty His story is suffused with reflections from his time as a political prisoner from his seat at the table as history unfolded in Israel and the Middle East and from his passionate efforts to unite the Jewish people Written with frankness affection and humor the book offers us profound insights from a man who embraced the essential human struggle to find his own voice his own faith and the people to whom he could belong The Value of Worthless Lives Ilaria Serra,2007 Publisher description Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia

Baena,2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena s theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies Bulletin Detroit Public Library,1913 Life Stories Maureen O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books The Viking Immigrants Laurie K

Bertram,2020-02-24 A Viking statue a coffee pot a ghost story and a controversial cake What can the things that immigrants treasured tell us about their history Between 1870 and 1914 almost one quarter of Iceland s population migrated to North America forming enclaves in both the United States and Canada This book examines the multi sensory side of the immigrant past through rare photographs interviews artefacts and early recipes By revealing the hidden histories behind everyday traditions The Viking Immigrants maps the transformation of Icelandic North American culture over a century and a half

Of Memory and the Misplaced Sarah O'Brien,2024-01-02 What can the life writing of post famine Irish immigrants tell us about Irish diasporic memory Of Memory and the Misplaced considers the endurance and nature of Irish American memory across the twentieth century Guided by 30 memoirs written between 1900 and 1970 Sarah O'Brien shows the prevalence of intimate and taboo themes in ordinary immigrants writing such as domestic violence same sex love and famine induced trauma Importantly Of Memory and the Misplaced critiques the role of the Irish landscape as a site of memory and shows how the interiority of the domestic world has provided Irish women with the language needed to reclaim their own lives Combining literary and historical theory Of Memory and the Misplaced highlights voices that have traditionally been silenced and offers a rare and unexplored collection of primary source autobiographical texts to better understand the experiences of Irish immigrants in the United States

Book Notes Illustrated ,1923 My History is America's History National Endowment for the Humanities,1999 15 things you can do to save America s stories Trial and Error: The Autobiography of Chaim Weizmann Chaim Weizmann,2019-07-31 Chaim Weizmann s autobiography is a highly personal account of his life in the Zionist movement Book One completed in 1941 covers the years 1874 1917 and Book Two covers the years 1918 1948 Weizmann describes the Russian shtetl where he was born in 1874 his schooling in Pinsk and his university studies in Berlin Geneva and Freiburg Switzerland where he received his PhD in chemistry in 1899 before moving to Manchester in 1904 He portrays many leading Zionists such as Theodor Herzl Achad Ha am Max Nordau Shmarya Levin Ussishkin Jabotinsky Ruppin He describes the opposition by assimilationist Jews like Edwin Montagu to Zionism and internal debates within the Zionist movement such as the defeat of Herzl s Uganda plan bitterly opposed by Weizmann at the 6th Zionist Congress 1903 and his frictions with the American Zionists led by Brandeis Weizmann describes how during World War I his work on acetone brought him into contact with British political leaders such as Lloyd George Arthur Balfour and Winston Churchill and facilitated the Balfour Declaration which in 1917 paved the way for the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people Weizmann recounts his role in the creation of what would become Israel s leading scientific institutions the Hebrew University the Weizmann Institute of Science and the Technion including his fundraising efforts in Europe and in the United States on their behalf and for other Zionist initiatives He became the first President of Israel and died in office in 1952 one of the important historical documents of our time Orville Prescott The New York Times January 19 1949 Trial and Error is likely to be read for many years to come as an authoritative exposition of the Zionist movement records eye witness accounts of so many crucial events and reflects so many deep insights that it is certain to become of permanent value to the scholar and a delight to the general reader Salo Baron The New York Times January 23 1949 There are four angles from which one can approach this book One can take it as a history of Zionism during the last seventy years a record of personal endeavour triumphant over obstacles and dissension a sad commentary upon human achievement when eventual triumph comes at a date and in circumstances which rob it of its full savour the self portrait of a most remarkable man Harold Nicolson The Observer March 27 1949 Notable in this intellectually candid record is the fact that Weizmann embraced and propagated Jewish nationalism because he regarded it as a positive good not merely a negative escape from gentile persecution This intensely human book which in a sense is the story of modern Zionism constitutes one of the indispensable sources for the history of our times Robert Gale Woolbert Foreign Affairs July 1949 Weizmann s
