delights Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Living With a Writer D. Salwak, 2016-05-23 Living With a Writer brings together a group of prestigious contributors to discuss the writing lives of contemporary poets, novelists, critics, dramatists, editors, and collaborators. What are the practical considerations of being a writer? What are the household dynamics? How do the circumstances contribute to the work? What does it tell us about the creative process? The book features pieces from well-known authors and partners in famous literary relationships including John Bayley, Amanda Craig, Nadine Gordimer, Ann Thwaite, Paul Theroux, and John Updike. Food in Time and Place Paul Freedman, Joyce E. Chaplin, Ken Albala, 2014-10-31 Food and cuisine are important subjects for historians across many areas of study. Food, after all, is one of the most basic human needs and a foundational part of social and cultural histories. Such topics as famines, food supply, nutrition, and public health are addressed by historians specializing in every era and every nation. Food in Time and Place delivers an unprecedented review of the state of historical research on food, endorsed by the American Historical Association, providing readers with a geographically, chronologically, and topically broad understanding of food cultures from ancient Mediterranean and medieval societies to France and its domination of haute cuisine. Teachers, students, and scholars in food history will appreciate coverage of different thematic concerns such as transfers of crops, conquest, colonization, immigration, and modern forms of globalization. The New York Times Acrostic Puzzles Volume 9 Emily Cox, Harry Rathvon, 2003-03 50 Quotation puzzles from the pages of The New York Times. Edited by Emily Cox and Harry Rathvon. New York Times puzzles are America's favorite. Whether your tastes are literary or lowbrow, this latest installment of fifty of the Sunday Times's famous acrostic puzzles features quotations ranging from Herman Melville to Dave Barry, Stephen Jay Gould to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. So sharpen your pencil, put on your thinking cap, and get ready for some acrostic fun. New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index, the physical body has emerged in the last twenty-five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essay will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women s Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies

Staging Women's Lives in Academia Michelle A. Massé,Nan Bauer-Maglin,2017-01-12 Staging

Women's Lives in Academia demonstrates how ostensibly personal decisions are shaped by institutions and advocates for ways that workplaces not women must be changed Addressing life stages ranging from graduate school through retirement these essays represent a gamut of institutions and women who draw upon both personal experience and scholarly expertise The contributors contemplate the slipperiness of the very categories we construct to explain the stages of life and ask key questions such as what does it mean to be a graduate student at fifty Or a full professor at thirty five The book explores the ways women in all stages of academia feel that they are always too young or too old too attentive to work or too overly focused on family By including the voices of those who leave as well as those who stay this collection signals the need to rebuild the house of academia so that women can have not only classrooms of their own but also lives of their own Julia
