My Mountie And Me A True Story:

Cahiers de la Femme ,2001 Hunger, Horses, and Government Men Shelley A. M. Gavigan,2012-10-15 Scholars often accept without question that the Indian Act 1876 criminalized First Nations Drawing on court files police and penitentiary records and newspaper accounts from the Saskatchewan region of the North West Territories between 1870 and 1905 Shelley Gavigan argues that the notion of criminalization captures neither the complexities of Aboriginal participation in the criminal courts nor the significance of the Indian Act as a form of law This illuminating book paints a vivid portrait of Aboriginal defendants witnesses and informants whose encounters with the criminal law and the Indian Act included both the mediation and the enforcement of relations of inequality Mountie Makers Robert Gordon Teather,2011-02-01 Bob Teather entered RCMP Basic Recruit Training three decades ago with no idea of what he was getting into Along with 31 other confused young men he found himself in Regina Saskatchewan as a lowly member of Troop 18 Bald intimidated and soon to be bruised Bob began a six month ordeal that he candidly recalls in this engaging book Corporal Teather s story brings you close to six recruits from across the country Prairie Dog Andr Lumchuck Francois weird Harold Burl and Teather himself a scrawny kid from Hamilton who often learned the hard way that if it hurts you just tape an aspirin to it Their experiences capture the essence of Canada and provide revealing aspects of the traditional RCMP training process Near the end of his active career Bob came to realize that it was Basic Training that put the Canadian in his RCMP and that bonds its members into a force capable of policing this complex country The Scarlet Sentinels John C. Smith,2012-07-01 THE SCARLET SENTINELS spans a period of one year at a large Royal Canadian Mounted Police detachment in the Interior region of British Columbia Although written as a novel this story accurately reflects the kinds of events that typically occur in the police world presented graphically and in the lingua franca that is particular to this work Readers will enter the lives of members of this famous police force at the detachment level learning how they operate in and adapt to continual challenge and change Author John C Smith draws on his experience as a detachment watch commander to illustrate the complexities of police work the tragic sad happy and sometimes satisfying events that are experienced by members of the Force in their efforts to provide professional police service to Canadians Past and current members of the Force may well recognize a part of themselves and others in this narrative although it should be considered a work of fiction and all characters are composites of many individuals known to the author and his imagination John C Smith was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for twenty five years He served at six different police posts in British Columbia and was an instructor at the Canadian Police College Ottawa Much of his service was performed in what is called General Duty policing where most law enforcement is carried out He currently lives in Victoria BC with his wife Jean where he s writing his second novel a police procedural set on a cruise ship out on the high seas John has accurately captured the life of general duty policing which reflects 99% routine and 1% adrenalin rush inter mixed with the emotional realities of being human Anyone considering a career in the Force should read this book Tom Rippon PhD dismounted Member Death on the Barrens George James Grinnell,2010-04-20 Set in the remote arctic region of Northern Canada this book takes readers on a harrowing canoe voyage that results in tragedy redemption and ultimately transformation George Grinnell was one of six young men who set off on the 1955 expedition led by experienced wilderness canoeist Art Moffatt Poorly planned and executed the journey seemed doomed from the start Ignoring the approaching winter the men became entranced with the peace and beauty of the arctic in autumn As winter closed in they suddenly faced numbing cold and dwindling food When the crew is swept over a waterfall Moffatt is killed and most of the gear and emergency food supplies destroyed Confronting freezing conditions and near starvation the remaining crew struggled to make it back to civilization For Grinnell the three month expedition was both a rite of passage and a spiritual odyssey In the Barrens he lost his sense of identity and what he had been conditioned to think about society and himself Forever changed by the experience he unsparingly describes how the expedition influenced his adult life and what powerful insights he was able to glean from this life altering experience Song of the Mounties ,

The Cowboy Tutor & The Cowboy Comes Home Linda Ford,2020-11-10 A cowboy s redemption The Cowboy Tutor With the mortgage due and funds scarce Madge Morgan can t afford distractions Especially not from Judd Kirk her sister Louisa s tutor and according to their mother s plans suitor Madge doesn t know about Judd s real reason for coming to Golden Prairie He s finally found the man who swindled his mother Yet if he seeks revenge he risks losing the woman with faith enough to rekindle his own The Cowboy Comes Home Sally Morgan dreams of security and a home of her own A new job could offer both Her employer will marry her if she proves her worth as housekeeper A sensible if unromantic plan Until handsome Linc McCoy moves in next door A cowboy with a tarnished name Linc has nothing to offer a woman like Sally Except for a spark of kinship neither can deny Atoned in Truth B.P. Fletcher,2023-02-03 When Lou Brandon retires as the only constable of a small Manitoba town his life takes on a comfortable but aimless routine That changes when he slowly becomes friends with the new Catholic priest Peter Wilson As the two struggle with life unlikely circumstances bring them together to investigate a murder long thought solved Their friendship gives them the space to question the burdens they carry and how these have limited their lives But examining life particularly when it has not been lived honestly is much easier said than done Learning to face their truths gives them the opportunity to grow but comes with risks of failure they may be unwilling to face As Brandon and Wilson draw closer to identifying the real murderer the uncomfortable relationship between the local Indigenous and non Indigenous communities threatens to derail their investigation completely Will they be able to find justice for the victim and reconciliation to themselves before it s too late Scarlet and Gold ,1919 Night We Stole the Mounties' Car Max Braithwaite,2012-07-10 Max Braithwaite has the unique capacity to be both tender and caustic both nostalgic and uncompromisingly honest He is also one of Canada s few original humorists All these qualities are present in his latest bittersweet recollections of life on the Prairies during the early Thirties It was a time of depression and drought but for Max a young schoolteacher it was also a time for courtship and marriage for those hilarious episodes in Wannego Saskatchewan which did much to belie the grimness of the era There was Max s disastrous umpiring of a Ladies Softball game his writing and directing of a play that generated more drama off stage than on the awful problem of the wasps at the outhouse and much much more The Night We Stole the Mountie s Car follows Never Sleep Three in a Bed and Why Shoot the Teacher and completes the story of Max s early years It is also Braithwaite at his vintage best lusty thought provoking and consistently amusing

The Mountie Michael Dawson,1998-04-01 Historian Michael Dawson digs deep into the written and pictorial record to reveal how the RCMP since its inception has constructed and zealously guarded its public image Drawing on previously untapped sources Dawson documents how consultants and entrepreneurs deliberately transformed and modernized the traditional symbolism of the Mountie His trenchant analysis extends to the ironies of the recent licensing of the hallowed Mountie image to the ultimate dream merchants Disney

So Few on Earth Josie Penny,2010-10-04 Josephine Mildred Curl Penny grew up in Labrador during the 1940s and 1950s Like many M tis she and her family lived a semi nomadic lifestyle moving inside to the primitive settlement of Roaches Brook each fall to hunt and trap and outside to Spotted Islands in the spring to harvest the rich fishing grounds Sent away to hospital at age four to boarding school when she was seven and forced out to work at age eleven Josie lost the family bond so important to a young child She recounts the years spent at Lockwood Boarding School where she suffered atrocious punishments merciless teasing and the humiliation of two rapes The depersonalization and constant punishment eventually took their toll and her once free spirited nature was broken Reading became her only escape Set against the beauty and ruggedness of the Labrador coast So Few on Earth is a story of perseverance in a harsh environment and the possibility of life starting anew from shattered beginnings

Mad Trapper of Rat River Dick North,2005-12-01 The Arctic trails do indeed have their secret tales and one of the best is that of The Mad Trapper of Rat River equal to the legends of Bonnie and Clyde or John Dillinger

Now author Dick North of course may have solved the mystery of the Mad Trapper's true identity thereby enhancing the saga Thomas McIntyre author of Seasons Days A Hunting Life A courageous and unrelenting posse on the trail of a furious and desperate wilderness outlaw Lean and bloody meticulously researched The Mad Trapper of Rat River is a dark and haunting story of human endurance adventure and will that speeds along like the best fiction Bob Butz author of Beast of Never Cat of God They called it The Arctic Circle War It was a forty eight day manhunt across the harshest terrain in the world the likes of which we will never see again The quarry Albert Johnson was a loner working a string of traps in the far reaches of Canada's Northwest Territories where winter temperatures average forty degrees below zero The chase began when two Mounties came to ask Johnson about allegations that he had interfered with a neighbor's trap No questions were asked Johnson discharged the first shot through a hole in the wall of his log cabin When the Mounties returned with reinforcements Johnson was gone and The Arctic Circle War had begun On Johnson's heels were a corps of Mounties and an irregular posse on dogsled Johnson on snowshoes seemed superhuman in his ability to evade capture The chase stretched for hundreds of miles and during a blizzard crossed the Richardson Mountains the northernmost extension of the Rockies It culminated in the historic shootout at Eagle River

Anatomy of a Cover-Up Paul Palango, 2025-06-10 NATIONAL BESTSELLER FOLLOW UP TO THE 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER 22 MURDERS The truth about the deadliest criminal incident in Canadian history has remained untold until now Investigative journalist Paul Palango's 22 Murders examined the April 2020 shooting spree committed by Gabriel Wortman that began in Portapique Nova Scotia and ended thirteen and a half hours later when Wortman was shot dead by RCMP officers The episode left numerous serious questions in its wake most especially why was the killer able to evade police in such limited geography for so long Since then the government called a public inquiry into the massacres the Mass Casualty Commission Though Palango unearthed a treasure trove of evidence pointing to the possibility that Wortman or someone close to him was acting as a police agent the commission evaded all the big questions and let the RCMP off with a slap on the wrist To this day no one has been held accountable In this new book Palango continues to crack the case delving deeper into the evidence and testimonies of the witnesses who have been ignored Drawing on his vast experience as an investigative reporter he has mined the thousands of pages of commission documents to reveal the wall of secrecy and deceptions constructed by the RCMP and the criminal justice system exposing new facts that may alter the public's perception of what really happened A tour de force of reportage Anatomy of a Cover Up accomplishes what the commission set out to do uncover the truth about the Nova Scotia massacres and bring long overdue justice to its victims

THE SUMMONING OF NOMAN Orest Stocco, 2015-06-27 Monday March 19 2012 I had my first dream last night that indicates I am reliving my same life over again in a parallel world In my dream a woman that I know said to me There are two of you I am astounded by her comment because I seem to know that there are two of me in my dream also that is I have the knowledge that I have lived my same life before and I say to her just to make certain that she is sure of what she said Are there two of anybody else And she replies No I only see two of you The Canadian War on Queers Gary Kinsman,Patrizia Gentile,2010-03-01 From the 1950s to the late 1990s agents of the state spied on interrogated and harassed gays and lesbians in Canada employing social ideologies and other practices to construct their targets as threats to society and enemies of the state In this path breaking book Gary Kinsman and Patrizia Gentile use official security documents and interviews with gays lesbians civil servants and high ranking officials to disclose not only the acts of state repression that accompanied the Canadian war on queers but also forms of resistance that raised questions about just whose national security was being protected and about national security as an ideological practice This passionate personalized account of how the state used the ideology of national security to wage war on its own people offers ways of understanding and resisting contemporary conflicts such as the so called war on terror R C M P Quarterly Royal Canadian Mounted Police,1975 22 Murders Paul Palango,2022-04-12 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A shocking expos of the deadliest killing spree in Canadian history and how police tragically failed its victims and survivors As news broke of a killer rampaging across the tiny community of Portapique Nova Scotia late on April 18 2020 details were oddly hard to come by Who was the killer Why was he not apprehended What were police doing How many were dead And why was the gunman still on the loose the next morning and killing again The RCMP was largely silent then and continued to obscure the actions of dentist Gabriel Wortman after an officer shot and killed him at a gas station during a chance encounter Though retired as an investigative journalist and author Paul Palango spent much of his career reporting on Canada s troubled national police force Watching the RCMP stumble through the Portapique massacre only a few hours from his Nova Scotia home Palango knew the story behind the headlines was more complicated and damning than anyone was willing to admit With the COVID 19 lockdown sealing off the Maritimes no journalist in the province knew the RCMP better than Palango did Within a month he was back in print and on the radio peeling away the layers of this murderous episode as only he could and unearthing the collision of failure and malfeasance that cost a quiet community 22 innocent lives SPIN ,1994-02 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today s most innovative sounds Whether covering what s new or what s next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks
