A TRUE STORY THAT READS LIKE A NOVEL. With illustrations. Sunbirds Mirandi Riwoe, 2023-08-29 1941 West Java. Love and revolution are in the air. And war is on its way. Shortly before the Japanese invade the van Hoorn family throws their famous Sinterklaas party at their tea plantation. One of their guests Mattijs a Dutch pilot hopes to forge a future in the Dutch East Indies possibly with the family's daughter Anna but she is torn between her dreams of Holland and her desire to belong. Meanwhile the housekeeper Diah keenly observes the goings on around the plantation wondering how much to tell her freedom fighter brother. After the German occupation his parents worked for the Dutch resistance but in August 1942 Soli was arrested and sent to Westerbork. In April 1943 Caroline and three month old Levie were sent there as well however the baby was taken from the train by members of the resistance. With the help of Father Theo Verhoeven of Veghel who also saved many other Jews he was brought to that town. He was raised by Bertie and Susanne Fox who owned the local inn and were active in the resistance. In September 1943 Levie's parents were sent to Auschwitz where Soli was killed and Caroline was subjected to Mengele's medical experiments. In January 1945 she was sent on a death march to Austria during which she collapsed and was saved by an Austrian couple. After the liberation she returned to the Netherlands where she faced a court hearing in order to be reunited with her son. In 1952 they emigrated to Canada. Asian Studies at Hawaii, 1976 Re-examining the Holocaust Through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field. The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals. Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East. Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an
