My New Gun:

Sozaboy Ken Saro-Wiwa, 2023-10-01 Sozaboy powerfully describes the fate of a young naive soldier thrown into the frontline of a civil war from his first proud days of recruitment to the disillusionment and horrors that follow Mene yearns for manhood He dreams of gaining the glory that the ex soldier in his village brags about with his stories of hunting Hitla So when war breaks out and soldiers appear in Mene's isolated village he sees his chance to finally wear a uniform Too soon however Mene's innocence turns to terror While witnessing the unfathomable Mene must learn to evade the carnage of warfare if he wants to make it home alive Writing in Nigerian Pidgin English Ken Saro Wiwa creates a unique window into the dark consequences of meaningless war Haunting Guardian Sozaboy is not simply a great African novel it is also a great anti war novel among the very best the twentieth century has produced William Boyd Supreme Court , Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A. Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn't been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women's Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women's cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production The Last Ole Southern Sheriff Jeffery P. Duval, 2021-10-08 As I stood looking eye to eye with death and the gun the killer was holding on me I turned my back expecting to be killed in the middle of the road I asked God to show me a way out of this dark place trying to save a young woman's life As I started toward the sheriff's car suddenly I heard a loud gunshot I felt death all around me As I fell to the middle of the road facedown I thought Oh God is this my day Is this the way I die No one except a law enforcement officer can really understand the sacrifices that we make carrying the weight of the badge A law enforcement officer leaves his family to serve the public and to prevent any more death threats to him and his family It gets to be a lonely world but we took an oath to protect and serve the people Never let us forget that I give thanks to God for bringing me home all those years Who Was That Masked Kid? Dan Neiser, 2017-05-11 Ralphie might have wanted a Red Ryder B B gun in Jean Shepherd's A Christmas Story but the kid in this story wants a lot more He fantasizes about becoming the Lone Ranger the Masked Man himself but is thwarted at every turn Return with us now to those thrilling days of yesteryear when the Masked Kid tries to realize his dreams only to discover they may be harder than he thought They!
