Tho I've never called you "Mother"
In my heart I hope you know,
That you'll always be remembered
For the seeds of love you sow.

You'll forever be regarded
For your kind and gentle way,
For your words of love & guidance,
Things that only Mothers say.

And though I've never said it,
Still, I pray that you can see,

My Other Mother My Other Father
