Marian Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn, 2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel's forty nine notebooks notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel's creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer. The notebooks also portray Engel's surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking. Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death. Christl Verduyn's illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings. Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s. It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada's significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature.

Shortly after World War II Kathleen Coburn formerly of Victoria College in Toronto rediscovered this great collection of unpublished manuscripts. The Notebooks of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Volume 4 Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 2019-08-06 During his adult life until his death in 1834 Coleridge made entries in more than sixty notebooks. Neither commonplace books nor diaries but something of both they contain notes on literary theological philosophical scientific social and psychological matters plans for and fragments of works and many other items of great interest. This fourth double volume of the Notebooks covers the years 1819 through 1826. The range of Coleridge's reading his endless questioning and his recondite sources continue to fascinate the readers. Included here are drafts and full versions of the later poems. Many passages reflect the technological interests that led to Coleridge's writing of Aids of Reflection later to become an important source for the Transcendentalists. Another development in this volume is the startling expansion of Coleridge's interest in the theory of life and in chemistry the laboratory chemistry of the Royal Institution of Great Britain and the theoretical chemistry of German transcendentalists such as Okeas Steffens and Oersted. Also contained in this volume is an important section on the meaning of marriage. Kathleen Coburn is Professor Emeritus at Victoria College of the University of Toronto. Merton Christensen was Professor of English at the University of Delaware. Bollingen Series L 4. Originally published in 1990.
