My Pushkin Written In Rubian:

Under the Sky of My Africa Catharine Theimer Nepomnyashchy, Nicole Svobodny, Ludmilla A. Trigos, 2006-05-30 A wide ranging consideration of the nature and significance of Pushkin's African heritage Roughly in the year 1705 a young African boy acquired from the seraglio of the Turkish sultan was transported to Russia as a gift to Peter the Great This child later known as Abram Petrovich Gannibal was to become Peter's godson and to live to a ripe old age having attained the rank of general and the status of Russian nobility More important he was to become the great grandfather of Russia's greatest national poet Alexander Pushkin It is the contention of the editors of this book borne out by the essays in the collection that Pushkin's African ancestry has played the role of a wild card of sorts as a formative element in Russian cultural mythology and that the ways in which Gannibal's legacy has been included in or excluded from Pushkin's biography over the last two hundred years can serve as a shifting marker of Russia's self definition The first single volume in English on this rich topic Under the Sky of My Africa addresses the wide variety of interests implicated in the question of Pushkin's blackness race studies politics American studies music mythopoetic criticism mainstream Pushkin studies In essays that are by turns biographical iconographical cultural and sociological in focus the authors representing a broad range of disciplines and perspectives take us from the complex attitudes toward race in Russia during Pushkin's era to the surge of racism in late Soviet and post Soviet contemporary Russia In sum Under the Sky of My Africa provides a wealth of basic material on the subject as well as a series of provocative readings and interpretations that will influence future considerations of Pushkin and race in Russian culture about adolescence sex and friendship and ultimately about the kind of love that lasts a lifetime Big bang of scientific idiocy Pavlovich Konstantin ,2025-06-26 The book debunks all the myths of modern cosmological views on the evolution of the Universe reveals gross errors that led to the dead end of modern cosmology In a popular form on a solid foundation of physical laws the absurdity of any cosmological chimeras such as dark matter energy big bangs wormholes and other inflations has been irrefutably proven Instead of these ridiculous inventions a description is given of real phenomena occurring both in outer space and in the immediate vicinity around us in the so called scientific community The book is intended for a wide range of readers interested in the structure of the surrounding world and can also be used as a textbook for studying astrophysics Russia's Muslim Heartlands Dominic Rubin,2018-05-15 Moscow has the largest Muslim population of any city in Europe In 2015 some 2 million Muslim Muscovites celebrated the opening of the continent's biggest mosque One quarter of the Soviet population was ethnically Muslim and today their grandchildren living in the lands between Bukhara Kazan and the Caucasus once again have access to their historical traditions But they also suffer the effects of civil war mass migration and political instability At the highest levels Islam has been swept up into Russia's broader search for identity as the old question of eastern versus western takes on new force Dominic Rubin has spent the last three years interviewing Muslims across Russia from Sufi shaykhs in Dagestan new Muslim artists on the Volga and professionals in Kyrgyzstan to guest workers commuting between Russia and Uzbekistan and Kremlin sponsored muftis hammering out a new Russian Muslim ideology in Moscow He discovers their family histories their faith journeys and their hopes and fears caught between roles as traditionalist allies in the new Eurasian Russia and as potential traitors in Moscow's war on terror This story of Islam adapting in a paradoxical landscape against all odds brings alive the human reality behind the headlines suspicion in the post civil rights era of literacy acts that may estrange educated blacks from the larger black community Powell concludes with Godwin who embraces university life in her fiction as she explores what it means to be a southern female intellectual in the modern world a world in which all those markers inscribe isolation A Plot of Her Own Sona Stephan Hoisington,1995 A Plot of Her Own presents compelling new readings of major texts in the Russian literary canon all of which are readily available in translation The female protagonists in the works examined are inextricably linked with the fundamental issues raised by the novels they inform the interpretations offered strive not to be reductive or doctrinaire not to be imposed from the outside but to arise from the texts themselves and the historical circumstances in which they were written Authors discussed include Pushkin Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Bulgakov and the novels considered range from Fathers and Children to Zamyatin's anti Utopian We Throughout the contributors new visions expand our understanding of the words and reveal new significance in them Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music ,1918 Radicalism in the South since Reconstruction J.
